Edward Said At The Limits:

Edward Said at the Limits Mustapha Marrouchi, 2012-02-01 On Edward Said at the Limits Mustapha Marrouchi offers a sensitive critique of Edward Said one of America's foremost commentators on the Palestinian cause Marrouchi does justice to the extraordinary life of a complex figure who was fundamentally a humanist committed to the eradication of domination and whose angry and eloquent writings are of fierce relevance to the fragmented world in which we live The Said story has become the model for the struggle to rewrite colonial history Offering the most up to date and comprehensive bibliography of Said's work this is the only single author book devoted solely to Edward Said and his writing Edward Said at the Limits

Mustapha Marrouchi, 2004-01-08 Shows the full breadth and scope of Edward Said's work and of his role as a public intellectual Music at the Limits Edward W. Said, 2009-06-22 Music at the Limits is the first book to bring together three decades of Edward W. Said's essays and articles on music Addressing the work of a variety of composers musicians and performers Said carefully draws out music's social political and cultural contexts and as a classically trained pianist provides rich and often surprising assessments of classical music and opera Said saw music as a reflection of his ideas on literature and history and paid close attention to its composition and creative possibilities Eloquent and surprising Music at the Limits preserves an important dimension of Said's brilliant intellectual work and cements his reputation as one of the most influential and groundbreaking scholars of the twentieth century

The Essay At the Limits Mario Aquilina, 2021-04-08 In the hands of such writers as Rebecca Solnit Claudia Rankine David Shields Zadie Smith and many others the essay has re-emerged as a powerful literary form for tackling a fractious 21st century culture The Essay at the Limits brings together leading scholars to explore the theory the poetics and the future of the form The book links the formal innovations and new voices that have emerged in the 21st century essay to the history and theory of the essay In so doing it surveys the essay from its origins to its relation to contemporary cultural forms from the novel to poetry film to music and from political articles to intimate lyrical expressions The book examines work by writers such as Theodor W. Adorno Kwame Anthony Appiah Francis Bacon James Baldwin Roland Barthes Maurice Blanchot Ta-Nehisi Coates Annie Dillard Brian Dillon Jean Genet William Hazlitt Samuel Johnson Karl Ove Knausgaard Ben Lerner Audre Lorde Oscar Wilde Michel de Montaigne Zadie Smith Rebecca Solnit Wallace Stevens Eliot Weinberger and Virginia Woolf The Limits of Literary Historicism Allen

Dunn, Thomas Haddox, 2012-02-28 The Limits of Literary Historicism is a collection of essays arguing that historicism which has come to dominate the professional study of literature in recent decades has become ossified By drawing attention to the limits of historicism its blind spots overreach and reluctance to acknowledge its commitments this provocative new book seeks a clearer understanding of what historicism can and cannot teach us about literary narrative Editors Allen Dunn and Thomas F. Haddox have gathered contributions from leading scholars that challenge the dominance of contemporary historicism These pieces critique historicism as it is generally practiced propose alternative historicist models that transcend mere formula and suggest alternatives to historicism altogether The volume begins with the editors extended introduction The Enigma of Critical Distance or Why Historicists Need Convictions and then is divided into three sections The Limits of Historicism Engagements with History and Alternatives to History Defying convention The Limits of Literary Historicism shakes up established modes to move beyond the claustrophobic analyses of contemporary historicism and to ask larger questions that envision more fulfilling and more responsible possibilities in the practice of literary scholarship

History and Its Limits Dominick LaCapra, 2011-02-23 Dominick LaCapra's History and Its Limits articulates the relations among intellectual history cultural history and critical theory examining the recent rise of Practice Theory and probing the limitations of prevalent forms of humanism LaCapra focuses on the problem of understanding extreme cases specifically events and experiences involving violence and victimization He asks how historians treat and are simultaneously implicated in the traumatic processes they attempt to represent In addressing these questions he also investigates violence's impact on various types of writing and establishes a distinctive role for critical theory in the face of an insufficiently discriminating aesthetic of the sublime often unreflectively amalgamated with the uncanny In History and Its Limits LaCapra inquires into the related phenomenon of a turn to the postsecular even the messianic or the miraculous in recent theoretical discussions of extreme events by such prominent figures as Giorgio Agamben Eric L Santner and Slavoj Žižek In a related vein he discusses Martin Heidegger's evocative if not enchanting understanding of The Origin of the Work of Art LaCapra subjects to critical scrutiny the sometimes internally divided way in which violence has been valorized in sacrificial regenerative or redemptive terms by a series of important modern intellectuals on both the far right and the far left including Georges Sorel the early Walter Benjamin Georges Bataille Frantz Fanon and Ernst Jünger Violence and victimization are prominent in the relation between the human and the animal LaCapra questions prevalent anthropocentrism evident even in theorists of the posthuman and the long standing quest for a decisive criterion separating or dividing the human from the animal LaCapra regards this attempt to fix the difference as misguided and potentially dangerous because it renders insufficiently problematic the manner in which humans treat other animals and interact with the environment In raising the issue of desirable transformations in modernity History and Its Limits examines the legitimacy of normative limits necessary for life in common and explores the disconcerting role of transgressive initiatives beyond limits including limits blocking the recognition that humans are themselves animals

Toni Morrison and the Limits of a Politics of Recognition William Jefferson, 2014-05-25 Is Toni Morrison's writing as politically progressive as is widely assumed In this eye opening study critic William Jefferson argues that it is not Analyzing Morrison's major texts from the 1970s 80s and 90s Jefferson argues that Morrison's writing has advanced problematic conceptions of racial essentialism sexuality and agency that would not be identified as in any way progressive if issued from the pen of a white writer More than merely showing readers underappreciated aspects of African American history Morrison's fiction has actively intervened in the politics of her era and in ways politically reactionary and disturbing Stepping back from Morrison's fiction Jefferson asks why scholars have not recognized these political aspects of Morrison's writing What he finds is a purportedly left wing academy focused predominantly on recognizing the indisputably black aspects of Morrison's work This politics of recognition unfortunately also naturalizes Morrison's representations in the same manner liberal humanist criticism naturalized the representations of the pre 1970 literary canon

Egypt and the Limits of Hellenism Ian S. Moyer, 2011-07-07 In a series of studies Ian Moyer explores the ancient history and modern historiography of relations between Egypt and Greece from the fifth century BCE to the early Roman empire Beginning with Herodotus he analyzes key encounters between Greeks and Egyptian priests the bearers of Egypt's ancient traditions Four moments unfold as rich micro histories of cross cultural interaction Herodotus interviews with priests at Thebes Manetho's composition of an Egyptian history in Greek the struggles of Egyptian priests on Delos and a Greek physician's quest for magic in Egypt In writing these histories the author moves beyond Orientalizing representations of the Other and colonial metanarratives of the civilizing process to reveal interactions between Greeks and Egyptians as transactional processes in which the traditions discourses and pragmatic interests of both sides shaped the outcome The result is a dialogical history of cultural and intellectual exchanges between the great civilizations of Greece and Egypt

How the West Was Won, 2010-04-06 How the West Was Won contains articles in three main areas of the humanities It focuses on various aspects of literary imagination with essays ranging from Petrarch to Voltaire on the canon with essays on western history as one of shifting cultural horizons and ideals and including censorship and on the Christian Middle Ages when an interesting combination of religion and culture stimulated the monastic and intellectual experiments of Anselm of Canterbury and Peter Abelard The volume is held together by the method of persistent questioning in the tradition of the western church father and icon of the self Augustine to discover what the values are that drive the culture of the West where do they come from and what is their future This volume is a Festschrift for Burcht Pranger of the University of Amsterdam

Postcolonial Literatures and Deleuze L. Burns, B. Kaiser, 2012-06-19 Bringing together high profile scholars in the fields of Deleuze and postcolonial studies this book highlights the overlooked connections between two major schools of contemporary criticism and establishes a new critical discourse for postcolonial literature and theory
