Inventing the New Negro Daphne Lamothe,2013-03-01 It is no coincidence Daphne Lamothe writes that so many black writers and intellectuals of the first half of the twentieth century either trained formally as ethnographers or worked as amateur collectors of folklore and folk culture In Inventing the New Negro Lamothe explores the process by which key figures such as Zora Neale Hurston Katherine Dunham W E B Du Bois James Weldon Johnson and Sterling Brown adapted ethnography and folklore in their narratives to create a cohesive collective and modern black identity Lamothe explores how these figures assumed the roles of self reflective translators and explicators of African American and African diasporic cultures to Western largely white audiences Lamothe argues that New Negro writers ultimately shifted the presuppositions of both literary modernism and modernist anthropology by making their narratives as much about ways of understanding as they were about any quest for objective knowledge In critiquing the ethnographic framework within which they worked they confronted the classist racist and cultural biases of the dominant society and challenged their readers to imagine a different set of relations between the powerful and the oppressed Inventing the New Negro combines an intellectual history of one of the most important eras of African American letters with nuanced and original readings of seminal works of literature It will be of interest not only to Harlem Renaissance scholars but to anyone who is interested in the intersections of culture literature folklore and ethnography Happy Wife, Happy Life: Confessions of a Suburban Mom Tracy Beckerman, 2023-11-17 Tracy Beckerman's kids have flown the coop which has left her plenty of time to further settle into the happy life of a happy wife to a loving husband Flowers are blooming tails are wagging and the ducks are on the verge of a hostile takeover In this collection of top hits from her nationally syndicated column Lost in Suburbia Beckerman forges a path through the blissful chaos of her idyllic life in suburban New Jersey She somehow manages to keep her cool despite an unending wave of dining disasters awkward conversations with the doctor's office receptionist and the horrors of gasping Beckerman lays it all out with the refreshing honesty humor and sage advice that you'd expect from your best friend in the burbs Cool suburban mom is not an oxymoron Sharp witty and irreverent Beckerman will have you rolling with laughter and checking your toilet paper supply The Right Way to Keep Chickens Virginia Shirt, 2013-05-30 For generations people in the countryside have kept chickens mainly for the eggs Now more and more people in town as well as countryside are enjoying the pleasure of keeping hens in the garden and reaping the reward of those fresh eggs every day Virginia Shirt has lived with chickens for over 15 years so her knowledge of these fascinating birds is conditioned by practical experience Her book is a revelation to every aspiring enthusiast Concentrating initially on the very first steps the book goes on to deal with feeding and rearing chickens and comprehensively covers matters relating to health and disease Summoning My Inner Ballerina Paula Mack Smith, 2012-09-21 This is an exceptional memoir Paula shares details of a life fully lived As in each and every life there are ups and downs The key is to find a way to get through each chapter each hurdle and each experience whether positive or negative Paula shares her special way of getting through them As a young girl Paula took ballet lessons At her recital a photo is taken of her in all of her glory It is the only childhood picture of her by herself without siblings This picture epitomizes the Inner Ballerina of Paula her inner beauty poise strength and confidence While we each do not have an Inner Ballerina we do each find a way to cope when necessary It is calling upon this inner self that allows Paula to cope with the many things she must face throughout her life From a tragic fire cancer of first herself then her husband a serious illness of a child to many other life experiences Paula calls upon her Inner Ballerina Paula writes with heart and with humour I love this memoir and admire Paula for her strength and honesty The Santa Fe Magazine, 1926 The Oölogist, 1922 Stories for the "Q" Train Cary Silberman, 2006-07-21 Stories for the Q train can be enjoyed not only by New York subway riders but any aficionado of bizarre comedy and surreal characters Think Woody Allen on steroids and you get Cary Silberman's Stories for the Q Train These short stories should keep you howling from downtown Manhattan until you reach that Russian store hawking cheap caviar outside the first Brooklyn stop Country Life, 1909 The Journal of the Museum of Comparative Oology ... Santa Barbara Museum of Natural History, 1921 The Journal of the Museum of Comparative Oology
