It deconstructs the boundaries between high and low culture drawing on conceptual tools in cultural studies, translation studies and gender studies to analyze debates in the fields of literature, cinema, mass media and the plastic arts. Anchored in the Egyptian historical and social contexts and inspired by the influential work of Pierre Bourdieu, it rigorously places these debates and battles within the larger framework of a set of questions about the relationship between the cultural and political fields in Egypt. The Social and Cultural Order of Ancient Egypt Steen Bergendorff, 2019-12-04 From the Narmer palette to funerary preparations to pyramids, Steen Bergendorff draws on anthropological insights to provide new interpretations of accepted truths about Ancient Egypt. Selim,2015-06-29 This book purports to examine the international dimensions of the democratization process in Egypt in the post Cold War era a theme which acquired significance at the academic and policy oriented levels in light of the growing internationalization of reform arrangements in the Arab world in post 9 11 and the greater involvement of external powers in Arab politics following the Arab Spring uprisings During the second half of the twentieth century the mainstream scholarship presented the democratization process as the outcome of domestic conditions not significantly influenced by actors outside the nation state With the end of the Cold War this perspective was challenged as a result of the third wave of democratization and the subsequent growth of the good governance discourse on the agenda of the international development establishment The new perspective attached a more significant role to external factors in the democratization process than was originally conceptualized Issues in Cultural Tourism Studies Melanie K.
