Carrying out many missions to Egypt in search of ancient objects, Budge was hugely successful in collecting papyri, statues, and other artefacts for the trustees of the British Museum, numbering into the thousands and of great cultural and historical significance. Budge published well over 100 monographs which shaped the development of future scholarship and are still of great academic value today, dealing with subjects such as Egyptian religion, history, and literature. This volume, first published in 1901 as part of the Egypt and Chaldaea series, is the first of eight volumes by Budge dealing with different periods in the history of Egypt. The narrative begins with an account of Egypt and her people in the latter part of the Neolithic period and ends with the description of her conquest by the Romans under Caesar Octavianus B.C. 30. Budge considers the great excavations of the nineteenth century in the first volume and, alongside detailed illustrations, provides a fascinating analysis of the dynastic kings. A History of
