Egypt Politics And Society 1981:

Egypt, Politics and Society, 1945-1981 Derek Hopwood,1982 The Mamluks in Egyptian Politics and Society Thomas Philipp,Ulrich Haarmann,1998-02-12 In this book distinguished scholars provide an accessible introduction to the structure of political power under the Mamluks and its economic foundations The Conscription Society Gregory James Kasza,1995-01-01 The ability to organize millions of people for political purposes is a potent and relatively recent weapon in the struggle for power Political scientists have studied two types of mass organization the political party and the interest group In this book Gregory Kasza examines a third type which he calls the administered mass organization AMOs are mass civilian bodies created by authoritarian regimes to implement public policy Officials use them to organize youths workers women or members of other social sectors into bodies resembling the mass conscript army A network of AMOs produces a conscription society a major force in twentieth century politics in over 45 countries Using comparative history and organization theory Kasza analyzes the politics of the conscription society in both military and single party regimes He discusses the origins of AMOs in Japan the Soviet Union and Fascist Italy and their subsequent spread to China Egypt Nazi Germany Peru Poland and Yugoslavia He focuses on the use of AMOs to curb political opposition to mobilize for war and to shift control over the means of production Kasza shows how in the hands of despotic rulers AMOs have contributed to the extremes of political barbarism characteristic of the twentieth century Encyclopedia of African History 3-Volume Set KEVIN SHILLINGTON.,2005 Egypt, Post Report ,1990 Government and Politics of the Contemporary Middle East Tareq Y. Ismael,Jacqueline S. Ismael,2023-09-18 This exciting new edition of the successful textbook for students of Middle Eastern politics provides a highly relevant and comprehensive introduction to the complexities of a region in constant flux Combining a thematic framework for examining patterns of politics with individual chapters dedicated to specific countries the book places the very latest developments and long standing issues within an historical context This third edition extends its analysis to post 2015 developments in the region as well as expanding the range of pedagogical features on offer Presenting information in an accessible and inclusive format the book offers Coverage of the historical influence of colonialism and major world powers on the shaping of the modern Middle East A detailed examination of the legacy of Islam Analysis of the political and social aspects of Middle Eastern life including alienation between the state and society poverty and social inequality and ideological crisis and renewal Case studies on countries in the Fertile Crescent Iraq Syria and Lebanon and Israel Palestine the Northern Belt Turkey and Iran and those West and East of the Red Sea Egypt and the members of the Gulf Cooperation Council A key introductory text for students of Middle Eastern politics and history at advanced undergraduate and postgraduate levels this new edition has been extensively updated to also become a timely and significant reference for policy makers and any motivated reader Marginality and Exclusion in Egypt Ray Bush,Habib Ayeb,2012-06-14 What does it mean to be marginalized Is it a passive condition that the disadvantaged simply have to endure

Or is it a manufactured label reproduced and by its nature transitory In the wake of the new uprising in Egypt this insightful collection explores issues of power politics and inequality in Egypt and the Middle East It argues that the notion of marginality tends to mask the true power relations that perpetuate poverty and exclusion It is these dynamic processes of political and economic transformation that need explanation The book provides a revealing analysis of key areas of Egyptian political economy such as labour urbanization and the creation of slums disability refugees street children and agrarian livelihoods reaching the impactful conclusion that marginalization does not mean total exclusion What is marginalized can be called upon to play a dynamic part in the future as is the case with the revolution that toppled President Mubarak

From Secularism to Jihad Adnan Musallam, 2005-10-30 The modern political idea of jihad a violent struggle against corrupt or anti Islamic regimes is essentially the brainchild of one man who turned traditional Islamic precepts inside out and created the modern radical political Islamist movement Using the evolution of Sayyid Qutb s life and writings Musallam traces and analyzes Qutb s alienation and subsequent emergence as an independent Islamist within the context of his society and the problems that it faced Radicalized following his stay in the United States in the late 1940s and during his imprisonment from 1954 to 1964 Qutb would pen controversial writings that would have a significant impact on young Islamists in Egypt for decades following his death and on global jihadist Islamists for the past quarter century Since September 11 2001 the West has dubbed Qutb the philosopher of Islamic terror and godfather ideologue of al Qaeda This is the first book to examine his life and thought in the wake of the events that ignited the War on Terrorism A secular man of letters in the 1930s and 1940s Qutb s outlook and focus on Quranic studies underwent drastic changes during World War II The Quran became a refuge for his personal needs and for answers to the ills of his society As a result he forsook literature permanently for the Islamic cause and way of life His stay in the United States from 1948 to 1950 reinforced his deeply held belief that Islam is man s only salvation from the abyss of Godless materialism he believed to be manifest in both capitalism and communism Qutb s active opposition to the secular policies of Egyptian President Nasser led to his imprisonment from 1954 to 1964 during which his writings called for the overthrow of Jahili pagan governments and their replacement with a true and just Islamic society A later arrest and trial resulted in his execution in August 1966

Human Nature and the Causes of War John David Orme, 2018-04-07 What are the causes of war Wars are generally begun by a revisionist state seeking to take territory The psychological root of revisionism is the yearning for glory honor and power Human nature is the primary cause of war but political regimes can temper or intensify these passions This book examines the effects of six types of regime on foreign policy monarchy republic and sultanistic charismatic and military and totalitarian dictatorship Dictatorships encourage and unleash human ambition and are thus the governments most likely to begin ill considered wars Classical realism modified to incorporate the impact of regimes and beliefs provides a more convincing explanation of war than neo realism

The Aftermath of Defeats in War Ibrahim M. Zabad, 2019-03-30 This book sets out to explain the variation in nations reactions to their defeats in war Typically we observe two broad reactions to defeat an inward oriented response that accepts defeat as a reality and utilizes it as an opportunity for a new beginning and an outward oriented one that rejects defeat and invests national energies in restoring what was lost most likely by force This volume argues that although defeats in wars are humiliating experiences those sentiments do not necessarily trigger aggressive nationalism empower radical parties and create revisionist foreign policy Post defeat radicalization will be actualized only if it is filtered through three variables national self images inflated or realistic political parties strong or weak and international opportunities and constraints The author tests this theory on four detailed case studies Egypt 1967 Turkey Ottoman Empire Hungary and Bulgaria WWI and Islamic fundamentalism

Islam: Islam as religion and law Bryan S. Turner, 2003 This collection is a study of Islamic thought and institutions that represents a critical introduction to the system of Islamic belief and practice from a social science perspective

Imagining the Perfect Society in Muslim Brotherhood Journals Kiki M. Santing, 2020-08-24 The investigation of the Egyptian Muslim Brotherhood during the presidencies of Anwar Sadat and the early years of Hosni Mubarak is based on the movement s main journals al Da wa and Liw al Isl m presenting its history during two relevant periods 1976 1981 1987 1988 These journals show that contrary to the focus in modern research e a sharia laws gender relations or ideas of democracy the Brotherhood is a much more broadly oriented social political opposition movement taking Islam as its guideline The movement s own versatile discourse discusses all aspects of daily and spiritual life An important adage of the Brotherhood is Islam as a ni m k mil wa sh mil a perfect and all encompassing system Faith should play a role in every aspect of daily life from cooking dinner and housekeeping to education holidays enemy images legislation and watching television Islam is everything and everything is Islam In its journals the Brotherhood provided its unique reflection of the spirit of the age The movement presented itself as a highly reactive group that responded to current events and positioned itself as a moral religious and political opposition to the Egyptian regime

Marriage, Money and Divorce in Medieval Islamic Society Yossef Rapoport, 2005-04-21 High rates of divorce often taken to be a modern and western phenomenon were also typical of medieval Islamic societies By pitting these high rates of divorce against the Islamic ideal of marriage Yossef Rapoport radically challenges usual assumptions about the legal inferiority of Muslim women and their economic dependence on men He argues that marriages in late medieval Cairo Damascus and Jerusalem had little in common with the patriarchal models advocated by jurists and moralists The transmission of dowries women's access to waged labour and the strict separation of property between spouses made divorce easy and normative initiated by wives as often as by their husbands This carefully researched work of social history is interwoven with intimate accounts of individual medieval lives making for a truly compelling read It will be of interest to scholars of all disciplines concerned with the history of women and gender in Islam Egypt Hamied Ansari, 1986-09-15 This book presents new and original insights into the political social and economic development of today's Egypt The case study of Kamshish a small village in the heart of the Delta sheds light on the recent social history of Egypt and the evolving relations between Egyptian rulers and people Highlighted is the Kamshish Affair during which the village appeared to be at the threshold of a socialist revolution destined to engulf the whole country if not the entire region Kamshish became the Mecca of the Left to which such luminaries as Che Guevara Jean Paul Sartre and Simone de Beauvoir paid homage When the expected revolution failed to materialize the state stepped in with a new beginning whose conservatism stands in sharp contrast to the radicalist trends of the 1960s Literature 1982, Part 2 Siegfried Böhme, Professor Dr. Walter Fricke, Herbert Hefele, Inge Heinrich, Wilfried Hofmann, Dietlinde Krahn, Vladimir R. Matas, Dr. Lutz D. Schmadel, Gert Zech, 2013-11-09 Astronomy and Astrophysics Abstracts which has appeared in semi annual volumes since 1969 is devoted to the recording summarizing and indexing of astronomical publications throughout the world It is prepared under the auspices of the International Astronomical Union according to a resolution adopted at the 14th General Assembly in 1970 Astronomy and Astrophysics Abstracts aims to present a comprehensive documentation of literature in all fields of astronomy and astrophysics Every effort will be made to ensure that the average time interval between the date of receipt of the original literature and publication of the abstracts will not exceed eight months This time interval is near to that achieved by monthly abstracting journals compared to which our system of accumulating abstracts for about six months offers the advantage of greater convenience for the user Volume 32 contains literature published in 1982 and received before February 11 1983 some older literature which was received late and which is not recorded in earlier volumes is also included We acknowledge with thanks contributions to this volume by Dr J Bou a Prague who surveyed journals and publications in Czech and supplied us with abstracts in English
