Obadare, 2010-07-05 This volume advances extant reflections on the state constituted as the Ur Power in society particularly in Africa It analyzes how various agents within the Nigerian society encounter the state ranging from the most routine form of contact to the spectacular While many recent collections have reheated the old paradigms of the perils of federalism corruption ethnicity etc our focus here is on encounter that is the nuance and complexity of how the state shapes society and vice versa Through this we depart from the standard state versus society approach that proves so limiting in explaining the African political landscape
