Egypt to Europe Leila Simona Talani,2009-11-30 How does the process of globalisation relate to the increase of migratory flows from less developed countries to western ones This book explores the impact of globalisation upon migration from an international political economy perspective paying particular attention to the dynamics of migration from the Middle East and North Africa area especially Egypt to the EU member countries The theoretical aims of the book are to understand the problem of migration both legal and illegal in the context of globalisation and to assess the relation between globalisation marginalisation and the EU response to threats of mass immigration from less developed countries

The Dynamics of Regional Migration Governance Andrew Geddes, Marcia Vera Espinoza, Leila Hadj Abdou, Leiza Brumat, 2019 This book analyses the dynamics of regional migration governance and accounts for why how and with what effects states cooperate with each other in diverse forms of regional grouping on aspects of international migration displacement and mobility The book develops a framework for analysis of comparative regional migration governance to support a distinct and truly global approach accounting for developments in Africa Asia Pacific Central Asia Europe the Middle East North America and South America and the many and varying forms that regional arrangements can take in these regions

Under Construction: Logics of Urbanism in the Gulf Region Steffen Wippel, Katrin Bromber, Birgit Krawietz, 2016-02-17 Interdisciplinary in approach this volume explores and deciphers the symbolic value and iconicity of the built environment in the Arab Gulf Region its aesthetics language and performative characteristics Bringing together a range of studies by artists curators and scholars it demonstrates how Dubai appeared at least until the financial crisis to be leading the construction race and has already completed a large number of its landmark architecture and strategic facilities In contrast cities like the Qatari capital Doha still appear to be heavily under construction and in countries like the Sultanate of Oman ultra luxury tourism projects were started only recently While the construction of artificial islands theme parks and prestige sport facilities has attracted considerable attention much less is known about the region's widespread implementation of innovative infrastructure such as global container ports free zones inter island causeways and metro lines This volume argues that these endeavours are not simply part of a strategy to prepare for the post oil era for future economic survival and prosperity in the Lower Gulf region but that they are also aiming to strengthen identitarian patterns and specific national brands In doing so they exhibit similar yet remarkably diverse modes of engaging with certain global trends and present questionably distinct ideas for putting themselves on the global map Each country aims to grab attention with regard to the world wide flow of goods and capital and thus provide its own citizens with a socially acceptable trajectory for the future By doing that the countries in the Gulf are articulating a new semiotic and paradigm of urban development For the first time this volume maps these trends in their relation to architecture and infrastructure in particular by treating them as semiotics in their own right It suggests that recent developments in this region of the world not only represent
