Lamprakis, 2025-03-24 This book examines the history of the transformation of the small town of Kozani situated in modern Greek Macedonia into a vibrant commercial hub and self administering community during the period of Ottoman rule c 1400 1821 Beginning with a comprehensive examination of the foundation myths as recorded in local amateur historical works the book then proceeds with a reconstruction of the foundation of Kozani as a small village during the chaotic Ottoman conquest of Macedonia in the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries It then examines the history of the village using extant Ottoman and Greek documentation as well as available Ottoman and European travelogues and geographical treatises Key moments are highlighted in the socio economic transformation of the village into a thriving commercial hub and religio political and administrative centre during the sixteenth seventeenth and eighteenth centuries To that end it discusses the taxation status of Kozani and more particularly the establishment and administration of the m lik ne life term tax farming system The book also examines local myths about communal strife applying the scheme of bilateral factionalism to explain the repeated waves of intra communal violence that almost tore the settlement apart Shedding new light on an area long overlooked by Ottoman historians the book is vital reading for those interested in the history politics and economy of Ottoman Islamic and Balkan towns Capitalism in the Ottoman Balkans Costas Lapavitsas, Pinar Cakiroglu, 2019-08-08 The Ottoman Empire went through rapid economic and social development in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries as it approached its end Profound changes took place in its European territories particularly and prominently in Macedonia In the decades before the First World War industrial capitalism began to emerge in Ottoman Macedonia and its impact was felt across society The port city of Salonica was at the epicentre of this transformation led by its Jewish community But the most remarkable site of development was found deep in provincial Macedonia where industrial capitalism sprang from domestic sources in spite of unfavourable conditions Ottoman Greek traders and industrialists from the region of Mount Vermion helped shape the economic trajectory of Turkey in Europe and competed successfully against Jewish capitalists from Salonica The story of Ottoman Macedonian capitalism was nearly forgotten in the century that followed the demise of the Empire This book pieces it together by unearthing Ottoman archival materials combined with Greek sources and field research It offers a fresh perspective on late Ottoman economic history and will be an invaluable resource for scholars of Ottoman Greek and Turkish history Published in Association with the British Institute at Ankara Governing the Frontiers in the Ottoman Empire

Gülseren Duman Koç, 2023-11-20 Based on many previously unused sources from Ottoman and British archives Governing the Frontiers in the Ottoman Empire offers a micro history to understand the nineteenth century Ottoman reforms on the eastern frontiers By examining the administrative military and fiscal transformation of Mu a multi ethnic multi religious sub province in the Ottoman East it shows how the reforms were not top down and were shaped according to local particularities The book also provides a story of the notables tribes and peasants of a frontier region Focusing on the relations between state notables notables tribes notables peasants and finally tribes peasants the book shows both the causes of contention and collaborations between the parties Byzantium Between the Ottomans and the Latins Nevra Necipoğlu, 2009-03-19 This book examines Byzantine political attitudes towards the Ottomans and western Europeans during the critical last century of Byzantium It explores the political orientations of aristocrats merchants the urban populace peasants and members of ecclesiastical and monastic circles in three major areas of the Byzantine Empire in their social and economic context Global Traffic B. Sebek, S. Deng, 2016-01-23 This remarkable collection investigates the relations between literature and the economy in the context of the unprecedented expansion of early modern England's long distance trade Studying a range of genres and writers both familiar and lesser known the essays offer a new history of globalization as a complex of unevenly developing cultural discursive and economic phenomena While focusing on how long distance trade contributed to England's economic growth and cultural transformation the collection taps into scholarly interest in race gender travel and exploration domesticity mapping the state and emergent nationalism and proto colonialism in the early modern period Warfare at Sea, 1500-1650 Jan Glete, 2002-01-04 Warfare at Sea 1500 1650 is the first truly international study of warfare at sea in this period Commencing in the late fifteenth century with the introduction of gunpowder in naval warfare and the rapid transformation of maritime trade Warfare at Sea focuses on the scope and limitations of war before the advent of the big battle fleets from the middle of the seventeenth century The book also compares the social history of seamen and the early officer corps in several European countries and includes discussion on Spain Portugal France Venice the Ottoman Empire and the Baltic states Later Medieval Europe Daniel Waley, Peter Denley, 2013-11-26 From the divine right of kings to the political philosophies of writers such as Machiavelli the medieval city states to the unification of Spain Daniel Waley and Peter Denley focus on the growing power of the state to illuminate changing political ideas in Europe between the thirteenth and sixteenth centuries Spanning the entire continent and beyond and using contemporary voices wherever possible the authors include substantial sections on economics religion and art and how developments in these areas fed into and were influenced by the transformation of political thinking The new edition takes the narrative beyond the confines of western Europe with chapters on East Central Europe and the Teutonic knights and the Portuguese expansion across the Atlantic The third edition of this classic introduction to the period includes even greater use of contemporary voices full reading lists and new chapters on East Central Europe and Portuguese exploration Suitable as an introductory text for undergraduate courses in Medieval Studies and Medieval European History Braudel Revisited Peter Reill, 2010-01-01

Fernand Braudel 1912 1985 was a leading French historian and author of among other books the groundbreaking The Mediterranean and the Mediterranean World in the Age of Philip II 1949 One of the founders of the Annales School in France Braudel insisted on treating the Mediterranean region as a whole irrespective of religious and national divides Braudel's new historiography rejected political history as the dominant discipline and espoused a total history or a history from below that would tell the story of the vast majority of humanity hitherto excluded from the grand narrative At the time of the book's appearance this premise was revolutionary The contributors to Braudel Revisited assess the impact of Braudel's work on today's academic world in light of subsequent methodological shifts Engaging with Braudel's texts as well as with his ideas the essays in this volume speak to the enduring legacy of his work on the ongoing exploration of early modern history
