The Politics and Economics of the Transition Period Nikolai Bukharin, 2013-11-05. For many years a neglected figure, Nikolai Bukharin has recently been the subject of renewed interest in the West. Now regarded as a leading Marxist theorist, Bukharin's work has wide appeal to those interested in Soviet history and Marxist economics, as well as to those concerned with theories of development and socialist economies.

Socialism and Commodity Production: Essay in Marx Revival Paresh Chattopadhyay, 2018-08-07. Socialism is a word that is now habitually taken to refer to a particular social system that prevailed in different parts of the globe during the twentieth century. This system was defined primarily by single party rule with public, mainly state ownership of the means of production along with a centrally planned economy. Its material base was generalised commodity production. The spokespersons of this system claim that this socialism was derived from Marx. Paresh Chattopadhyay's Socialism and Commodity Production argues the falsity of this claim. On the basis of a comprehensive study of Marx's own texts as well as a detailed engagement with a wide variety of theorists of socialist economics, it shows that Marx's socialism constituted an Association of free individuals in which private ownership, the commodity wage labour, and the state have no place.

Chinese Economists on Economic Reform - Collected Works of Yu Guangyuan Yu Guangyuan, 2013-12-04. This book is part of a series which makes available to English speaking audiences the work of the individual Chinese economists who were the architects of China's economic reform. The series provides an inside view of China's economic reform, revealing the thinking of the reformers themselves, unlike many other books on China's economic reform which are written by outside observers. Yu Guangyuan, 1915, is a famous Chinese philosopher and economist. A member of the Chinese Communist Party from 1937 he has made significant contributions in the fields of Marxist theory and in state planning He was head of the Political Research Office of the State Council from 1975 and the first director of the Economic Research Institute of the State Planning Commission He has held many other important posts and was editor in chief of the Dictionary of Economics The book is published in association with China Development Research Foundation one of the leading economic and social think tanks in China where many of the theoretical foundations and policy details of economic reform were formulated

Mark's Marxism Mark Maxey, 2019-06-20 Mark's Marxism is a contemporary understanding of what socialism and communal living envisioned by Karl Marx and Friedrich Engels It brings into perspective over 100 000 years of Indigenous cultures living the communal life as illustrated in the Communist Manifesto It shows the root cause of capitalism and the safest and best way to reverse it With a world spinning out of control with a new wave of fascism this commentary is well received at this time It also includes reprints of A Reader's Guide to Marxist Classics and The Marxist Glossary This companion book embraces what Marx and Engels envisioned and is quite a necessary read in this time and age

Entrepreneurship and Innovation Bruce A. McDaniel, 2002 An economic analysis of entrepreneurship and the development process for innovation It seeks to distinguish the role of the capitalist from that of an entrepreneur and to show how the entrepreneur's actions impact new employment economic growth and advancements in the standard of living

Shanghai Mundane Lei Ping, 2025-09-18 This book offers a new critical intervention into the studies of the paradox of Chinese socialism Centering on the unremovable Shanghai bourgeoisie and middle class the book brilliantly discovers Chinese society's persistent aspiration to bourgeois lifestyle and remarkable resistance to socialist ideology from the Mao era to the Xi era Shanghai Mundane offers a new critical intervention into the studies of the paradox of Chinese socialism Through the lens of contested state society relations the book challenges conventional China Studies by repositioning Shanghai as the key to decode the protracted ideological warfare between socialism and capitalism Based on significant archival ethnographic and theoretical evidence unearthed from the distinct cases of Shanghai bourgeoisie and middle class Lei Ping discovers the city's persistent aspiration to bourgeois lifestyle and remarkable resistance to socialist ideology throughout the entire history of the People's Republic of China Ping argues that despite the socialist remolding of capitalist industry and commerce the post 1949 Chinese state failed to eradicate bourgeois heritage in the domain of everyday life in the Mao era which ironically contributed to its controversial policy reversals in the post Mao era from Deng to Xi What lies at the heart of the major intellectual conundrum namely the survival and revival of bourgeois sentiments is what Ping calls the unremovable Shanghai mundane This captivating and provocative account sheds new light on understanding the larger questions as to the crisis ridden practices of Chinese socialism and the raison d'être of the Chinese Communist Party in the twenty first century

Marxism and Feminism Shahrzad Mojab, 2015-03-12 Global events from economic crisis to social unrest and militarization disproportionately affect women Yet around the world it is also women who are leading the struggle against oppression and exploitation In light of renewed interest in Marxist theory among many women activists and academics Marxism and Feminism presents a contemporary and accessible Marxist feminist analysis on a host of issues It reassesses previous debates and seeks to answer pressing questions of how we should understand the relationship between patriarchy and capitalism and how we can envision a feminist project which emancipates both women and society With contributions from both renowned scholars and new voices Marxism and Feminism is set to become the foundational text for modern Marxist feminist thought
