Jerome Kinsler, 2018-11-26 At the age of nineteen I left college at New York University after deciding that I did not want to be an electrical engineer and that I would not make the varsity basketball team That meant two years in the army It was an exciting test of my ability to function away from home This was very late 1952 There was a war on in the Far East My Uncle Sam decided that being tall and strong I would make good rifleman After making me what he had proposed he sent me to Korea to test my skills They were sufficient to stay alive during the last few months leading to the truce It was signed on July 27 1953 I was sent to division headquarters on a mission that eludes my memory But I did remember that I wanted to get out of the infantry company The division newspaper beckoned and the noncom in charge decided that I wrote well enough to join his staff Besides he needed someone with frontline experience I became a cub reporter and later an official US Army correspondent I began to read voraciously starting with Ernie Pyle and Hemingway I found my passion The GI Bill allowed me to study then give up journalism in favor of literature and the theater as a playwright and director Circumstances in 1958 caused me to stop my pursuit of theater and to make a living for a family I've never regretted that decision A vacation visit to the Korean War Memorial in the year 2000 in Washington D C awakened my desire to pick up the pen again It started with minor poetry one act plays short stories and this novella My protagonists are often soldiers past present or future However I don't write war stories I only know how war can effect the minds of those who experienced it      What My Brother Knew

Kristina Amelong, 2025-05-27 For readers who were inspired by Alvin T.S. Eliot's Briefly Perfectly Human an emotional eye opening account of one woman's journey from loss and abuse to healing and spiritual awakening As a boy Jay Amelong predicted the accident that caused his death down to the color of the car that hit him I will die young while riding my bike he told friends and family repeatedly It won't be much longer I want you to be prepared These were baffling words to hear from the mouth of a content thirteen year old but when Kristina Amelong was only seventeen her brother's tragic death unfolded exactly as he said it would radically changing her life Propelled down a self destructive path of drug addiction and reckless sex Kristina spent much of her young adult years wanting to die Once or twice she came close Always Jay's bizarre story and his inexplicable acceptance of his own death lived in her body More than thirty years after losing Jay Kristina embarks on a journey of discovery seeking truth about herself her brother and the universe The result of her investigation is a memoir that defies belief Charting a life path from loss and abuse to healing and spiritual awakening What My Brother Knew demonstrates the transformative power of facing the mystery of death head on and our incredible ability as humans to do just that
