Falling Angels An Irish Romance:

The Falling Angels John Walsh, 1999 This text is the story of rootlessness of a London Irish boy who has two identities and feels at home with neither John Walsh found the Irishness of his parents Battersea home stiflingly warm and puzzlingly foreign Spellbound equally by Mick Jagger and by images of Irish martyrdom he discovered at the age of 16 an extended family he had never known existed In the hidden life of Galway was revelation that begged a crucial question how do we know where our true nature Lies

London Irish Fictions Tony Murray, 2012-01-01 Examines the specific role that the metropolis plays in literary portrayals of Irish migrant experience as an arena for the performance of Irishness as a catalyst in the transformations of Irishness and as an intrinsic component of second generation Irish identities

A History of Irish Autobiography Liam Harte, 2018-03-01 A History of Irish Autobiography is the first ever critical survey of autobiographical self representation in Ireland from its recoverable beginnings to the twenty first century The book draws on a wealth of original scholarship by leading experts to provide an authoritative examination of autobiographical writing in the English and Irish languages Beginning with a comprehensive overview of autobiography theory and criticism in Ireland the History guides the reader through seventeen centuries of Irish achievement in autobiography a category that incorporates diverse literary forms from religious tracts and travelogues to letters diaries and online journals This ambitious book is rich in insight Chapters are structured around key subgenres themes texts and practitioners each featuring a guide to recommended further reading The volume s extensive coverage is complemented by a detailed chronology of Irish autobiography from the fifth century to the contemporary era the first of its kind to be published

The Literature of the Irish in Britain L. Harte, 2009-02-12 The first critical survey of an unjustly neglected body of literature the autobiographies and memoirs of writers of Irish birth or background who lived and worked in Britain between 1725 and the present day It offers a stimulating and provocative introduction to the themes preoccupations and narrative strategies of a diverse range of writers

Modern Irish Autobiography L. Harte, 2007-04-12 Modern Irish Autobiography provides the first comprehensive critical analysis of the Irish autobiographical tradition from the early nineteenth century to the present day This pioneering collection offers readers a stimulating and provocative introduction to the principal themes modes and narrative strategies of Irish autobiographers

London the Promised Land Revisited Anne J. Kershen, 2016-03-09 Some two decades since the publication of London the Promised Land which charted and investigated the successes and failures of the migrant experience in London over a period of three hundred years this book re examines the migrant landscape in London While remaining a beacon for immigrants the migrant face of the city has changed rapidly and dramatically from one which was heavily populated by semi skilled and unskilled post colonial incomers to one which now embraces the EU Accession Countries refugees from the Middle East and Africa oligarchs from Russia the new wealthy from China economic migrants from Latin America and Ireland and still post colonial immigrants at the same time witnessing the exodus home of incomers or their descendants who now see opportunities where there were none before The contributors all leading academics and practitioners in their diverse fields examine changes to the migrant landscape of contemporary London at the micro meso and macro levels London the Promised Land Revisited thus explores a range of experiences in the capital including the presence and treatment of illness amongst migrants the phenomenon of migrant invisibility and asylum the migrant marketplace and ethnic clustering and interaction with local and national government across a variety of migrant groups both new and old As such this book will appeal to scholars across the social sciences with interest in migration migrant experiences and the contemporary global city All the Tiny Moments Blazing Ged Pope,2022-10-24 From Evelyn Waugh to P G Wodehouse and Lawrence Durrell a sweeping celebration of literature set in and inspired by the suburbs of London The London suburbs have for more than two hundred and fifty years fired the creative literary imagination whether this is Samuel Johnson hiding away in bucolic preindustrial Streatham Italo Svevo cheering on Charlton Athletic Football Club down at The Valley or Angela Carter hymning the joyful wrongness of living south of the river in Brixton From Richmond to Rainham Cockfosters to Croydon this sweeping literary tour of the thirty two London Boroughs describes how writers from the seventeenth century on have responded to and fictionally reimaged London s suburbs It introduces us to the great suburban novels such as Hanif Kureishi s Bromley set The Buddha of Suburbia Lawrence Durrell s The Black Book and Zadie Smith s NW It also reveals the lesser known short stories diaries poems local guides travelogues memoirs and biographies which together show how these communities have long been closely observed keenly remembered and brilliantly imagined

Irish Literature Since 1990 Michael Parker,Scott Brewster,2013-01-18 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC ND open access license This is a distinctive book that examines the diversity and energy of writing in a period marked by the unparalleled global prominence of Irish culture This collection provides a wide ranging survey of fiction poetry and drama over the last two decades considering both well established figures and also emerging writers who have received relatively little critical attention Contributors explore the central developments within Irish culture and society that have transformed the writing and reading of identity sexuality history and gender The book examines the impact of Mary Robinson s Presidency growing cultural confidence back home legislative reform on sexual and moral issues the uneven effects generated by the resurgence of the Irish economy the Celtic Tiger myth Ireland s increasingly prominent role in Europe and changing reputation In its breadth and critical currency this book will be of particular interest to academics and students working in the fields of literature drama and cultural studies Nomads Under the Westway Christopher Griffin,2008 Chris Griffin offers an account of the communities of Irish travellers Romani gypsies and other nomads who live and work beneath London s Westway The Way We Die Now Seamus O'Mahony,2017-07-25 Originally published London Head of Zeus 2016 Migrations Mary Gilmartin,Allen White,2016-05-16 This edited collection explores Ireland s complex relationship with migration in novel and innovative ways The contributors leading scholars of migration from the disciplines of anthropology geography history media studies sociology sociolinguistics and women s studies draw on new research to provide insights into emigration from and immigration to Ireland both past and present The chapters which range from the nineteenth to the twenty first century cover topics as diverse as migrant women and children in Ireland the role of the Irish Catholic in migration networks and recent Irish migration to Australia They are organised around three cross cutting themes networks belonging and intersections They focus on the migratory process rather than on migration as a uni directional movement of people Though centred on Ireland the collection has broader implications for the ways in which migration is conceptualised The collection will appeal to scholars of migration and Irish studies and to readers with backgrounds in a range of social science and humanities disciplines including geography and sociology

Creative Writing and Education Graeme Harper,2015 This book explores creative writing and its various relationships to education through a number of short evocative chapters written by key players in the field At times controversial the book presents issues ideas and pedagogic practices related to creative writing in and around education with a focus on higher education The volume aims to give the reader a sense of contemporary thinking and to provide some alternative points of view offering examples of how those involved feel about the relationship between creative writing and education Many of the contributors play notable roles in national and international organizations concerned with creative writing and education The book also includes a Foreword by Philip Gross who won the 2009 TS Eliot Prize for poetry

Diaspora, Identity and Religion Carolin Alfonso,Waltraud Kokot,Khachig Tölölyan,2004-07-31 Examines the development of the concept of diaspora and new perspectives on global networks and local identities Features case histories on the Caribbean Irish Irish American Armenian African and Greek diasporas

Between Shadows John Wilson Foster,2009 Between Shadows is a sequel to John Wilson Foster s acclaimed Colonial Consequences 1991 and like its predecessor is a widely ranging encounter with modern Irish writers and modern Irish culture Among the writers are Wilde Yeats Joyce Trevor and Barry The wartime Ulster literary scene Bloomsday Irish nationalism and the Great War are among the cultural episodes and phenomena the author engages with in this varied set of critical engagements

Sunday at the Cross Bones John Walsh,2008 A kaleidoscopic journey through post World War I London in the footsteps of the real life Rector of Stiffkey a story by turns funny moving and scandalous It s 1930 and the long post war party has ended in a giant collective hangover The flappers have hung up their dancing shoes The streets of London are teeming with homeless and desperate men and women the flotsam left in the wake of the General Strike The bars and caf s are full of seedy chancers and girls who will forget their mothers warnings for the price of a mutton chop supper Through this moral wasteland strides Harold Davidson clergyman social worker impulsive saver of souls With his white hair 16 pocket overcoat and his eye for ladies poised on the edge of perdition he is an unlikely Messiah No London park Holborn public house or Drury Lane brothel is a stranger to his mission to find girls who have strayed or are about to stray down the primrose path to Hell and pull them back by any means at his disposal Meanwhile in the little parish of Stiffkey on the Norfolk coast his Irish wife Moyra is trying to feed her family and stop the local Major from wrecking her husband's reputation Her letters to a Dublin confidante reveal the extraordinary journey that has brought her marriage to its present dire state When Harold meets Barbara Harris a 16 year old London prostitute who confounds his ethical certainties it's the start of a chain of events that will pitch all their lives into disarray a clanging chorus that involves bishops and circus strongmen Indian princelings and Fleet Street hacks lurking private eyes and reeking Islington stews and will lead inexorably to a sensational trial and a notorious defrocking People of Today ,2006 Ireland Liam Harte,Yvonne Whelan,Patrick Crotty,2005 This book investigates the material embodiments of space text and time in a range of cultural practices and phenomena from novels and films to buildings and monuments Irish Catholicism Since 1950 Louise Fuller,2002 Until the end of the 16th century Ulster was the most Gaelic part of Ireland Fifty years later it was the last Gaelic part In 1607 Hugh O'Neill Earl of Tyrone and other Gaelic chieftains fled the continent and settled in Rome Their lands were declared forfeit to the crown and were cleared for the plantation of Ulster which followed Books Ireland ,2007 *Current Contents.
