Damned to Fame James Knowlson, 2004 Damned to Fame is the brilliant and insightful portrait of Nobel Prize winning author Samuel Beckett mysterious and reclusive master of twentieth century literature Professor James Knowlson Beckett's chosen biographer and a leading authority on Beckett vividly re-creates Beckett's life from his birth in a rural suburb of Dublin in 1906 to his death in Paris in 1989 revealing the real man behind the literary giant. Scrupulously researched and filled with previously unknown information garnered from interviews with the author and his friends, family and contemporaries, Knowlson's unparalleled work is the definitive Beckett biography of our time. Fame, 1902 Air Force Magazine, 2006-07 Our Famous Women, 1888 The Fame Lunches Daphne Merkin, 2014-09-02 A wide-ranging collection of essays by one of America's most perceptive critics of popular and literary culture. From one of America's most insightful and independent-minded critics comes a remarkable new collection of essays, her first in more than fifteen years. Daphne Merkin brings her signature combination of wit, candor and penetrating intelligence to a wide array of subjects that touch on every aspect of contemporary culture, from the high calling of the literary life to the poignant underside of celebrity to our collective fixation on fame. Sometimes it seems to me that the private life no longer suffices for many of us, she writes, that if we are not observed by others doing glamorous things we might as well not exist. Merkin's elegant, widely admired profiles go beneath the glossy facades of neon-lit personalities to consider their vulnerabilities and demons as well as their enduring hold on us. As her title essay explains, she writes in order to save myself through saving wounded icons. Famous people who required my intervention on their behalf because only I understood the desolation that drove them. Here one will encounter a gallery of complex, unforgettable women: Marilyn Monroe, Courtney Love, Diane Keaton and Cate Blanchett among others, as well as such intriguing male figures as Michael Jackson, Mike Tyson, Truman Capote and Richard Burton. Merkin reflects with empathy and discernment on what makes them run and what makes them stumble. Drawing upon her many years as a book critic, Merkin also offers reflections on writers as varied as Jean Rhys, W.G. Sebald, John Updike and Alice Munro. She considers the vexed legacy of feminism after Betty Friedan, Bruno Bettelheim's tarnished reputation as a healer and the reenvisioning of Freud by the elusive Adam Phillips. Most of all, though, Merkin is a writer who is not afraid to implicate herself as a participant in our consumerist and overstimulated culture. Whether ruminating upon the subtext of lip gloss, detailing the vicissitudes of a pre-Yom Kippur pedicure or arguing against our obsession with household pets, Merkin helps make sense of our collective impulses. From a brazenly honest and deeply empathic observer, The Fame Lunches shines a light on truths we often prefer to keep veiled and in doing so opens up the conversation for all of us. Our Famous Women Elizabeth Stuart Phelps, 1884 Famous American Statesmen & Orators, Past and Present Alexander Kelly McClure, 1902 Famous Speeches by Eminent American Statesmen Frederick Charles Hicks, 1929 Famous Actors and Their Homes Gustav Kobbé, 1905 Great Men and Famous Women Charles Francis Horne, 1894
