Families and Households Catherine Marsh, Sara Arber, 1992
Arber, 1992-01-27      The History of Families and Households: Comparative European Dimensions Silvia Sovic, Pat Thane, Pierpaolo Viazzo, 2015-11-30 The history of family and households has been the subject of intensive research for over a generation In the 1970s Peter Laslett and others set the agenda with a strong emphasis on geographical differences between northern and southern eastern and western Europe Others have challenged this view pioneering different approaches This volume takes stock of the field focussing particularly on family history in South East Europe in comparison with the rest of Europe The authors consider what European families have in common their regional and local differences and changes over time using the rich and fascinating variety of sources and methods used by family historians today Contributors include Guido Alfani Judit Ambrus Mirjana V Bobi Siegfried Gruber Peter Guzowski Violetta Hionidou Daniela Lombardi Beatrice Moring Silvia Sovi Pat Thane Alice Velkov Marta Verginella and Pier Paolo Viazzo      Families in society McKie, Linda, Cunningham-Burley, Sarah, 2005-09-21 Acknowledging the increasing diversity and complexity of families this innovative book proposes a new conceptual framework for understanding families and other relationships that both challenges and attempts to reconcile traditional and contemporary approaches Using the notion of boundaries the book shifts thinking from families as entities to families as relationship processes Emphasising the processes that underlie boundary construction and reconstruction suggests that the key to understanding family life is the process of relationship formation The ideas of entity boundary margins and hybridity provide a framework for understanding the diverse and often contradictory ways in which families contribute to society Families in society makes a significant contribution to the academic literature on families and is essential reading for social science students social researchers policy makers and practitioners interested in families and relationships      Gender, Power and the Household L. McKie, S. Bowlby, S. Gregory, 1999-05-17 The chapters in this book illustrate from a number of different perspectives the ways in which power is located and articulated through gendered negotiations and acted out within the changing and differing setting of the household The book is divided into four sections The first section provides a theoretical historical and philosophical setting whilst the following three sections provide empirical contributions which examine aspects of Gendered Care dimensions of Gendered Time and Space and straddling work and home Gendered Work Income and Power      Household Divisions of Labour E. Birch, A. Le, P. W. Miller, 2009-11-18 This book investigates the extent of gender inequality in the division of labour in the modern household Through comparisons of the time allocations of single couple families without children couple families with children and lone parents a comprehensive account of the evolution of gender inequality over a typical lifecourse is presented      Lone Parent Families Karen Rowlingson, Stephen McKay, 2014-02-04 Appropriate as supplemental reading for courses in Social Policy and Social Studies that examine the role of parenting in society The subject of lone mothers is a controversial and highly topical social and political issue This unique core text examines the key issues in the debate and assesses their impact on the UK and other countries in a comprehensive and accessible way Broad in scope it covers a wide range of issues including gender roles the relationship of the family and the state and the relationship between social policy and labour market policy
