Families Facing Death Elliott J. Rosen, 1990      Facing Death Averil Stedeford, 1994      Facing Death in Cambodia

Peter Maguire, 2005-03-30 The Khmer Rouge regime took control of Cambodia by force of arms then committed the most brazen crimes since the Third Reich at least 1 5 million people murdered between 1975 and 1979 Yet no individuals were ever tried or punished This book is the story of Peter Maguire s effort to learn how Cambodia s culture of impunity developed why it persists and the failures of the international community to confront the Cambodian genocide Written from a personal and historical perspective Facing Death in Cambodia recounts Maguire s growing anguish over the gap between theories of universal justice and political realities Maguire documents the atrocities and the aftermath through personal interviews with victims and perpetrators discussions with international and NGO officials journalistic accounts and government sources gathered during a ten year odyssey in search of answers The book includes a selection of haunting pictures from among the thousands taken at the now infamous Tuol Sleng prison also referred to as S 21 through which at least 14 000 men women and children passed and from which fewer than a dozen emerged alive What he discovered raises troubling questions Was the Cambodian genocide a preview of the genocidal civil wars that would follow in the wake of the Cold War Is international justice an attainable idea or a fiction superimposed over an unbearably dark reality Did issues of political expediency allow Cambodian leaders to escape prosecution The Khmer Rouge violated the Nuremberg Principles the United Nations Charter the laws of war and the UN Genocide Convention Yet in the decade after the regime s collapse the perpetrators were rescued and rehabilitated even rewarded by China Thailand the United States and the UN According to Peter Maguire Cambodia holds the key to understanding why recent UN interventions throughout the world have failed to prevent atrocities and to enforce treaties

Care of the Child Facing Death Lindy Burton, 2022-05-24 Originally published in 1974 and written by paediatricians social workers nurses and a parent who cared for her dying child this book is concerned with pinpointing the problems which exist for parents and those involved in the care of sick children both in terms of accepting the facts of a child s illness and in loving supporting and giving them maximum enjoyment within the limits of their condition The fears and anxieties of such children are examined separation from parents fear of pain an increasing sense of difference and in some cases a very real appreciation of their situation All these limit the child s happiness and ways of counteracting them are suggested Similarly the distress of parents and of medical advisers is discussed

Preparing the Children Kathy Nussbaum, 1998-12      Facing Death Christina L. Scott, Heidi M. Williams, Siri Wilder, 2022-06-16 Facing Death      Grief,

Loss, and Treatment for Death Row Families Sandra Joy, 2013-12-05 The families of death row inmates are rarely considered in public discourse regarding the death penalty They have largely been forgotten and their pain has not been acknowledged by the rest of society These families experience a unique grief process as they are confronted with the loss of their loved one to death row and brace themselves for the possibility of an execution Death row families are disenfranchised from their grief by the surrounding community and their mental health needs exacerbated as they struggle in isolation with the ambiguous loss that comes with the fear that the state will kill their loved one Grief Loss and Treatment for Death Row Families describes the grief that families experience from the time of their loved one's arrest through his or her execution In each chapter Sandra Joy guides the reader through the grief process experienced by the families offering clinical interventions that can be used by mental health professionals who are given the opportunity to work with these families at various stages of their grief The author conducted over seventy qualitative interviews with family members from Delaware who either currently have a loved one on death row or have survived the execution of their loved one Delaware was chosen because though it has a relatively small death row it is ranked third in the nation with its rate of per capita executions This book provides an in depth awareness of the grieving process of death row families as well as ways that professionals can intervene to assist them in healing With increased awareness and effective clinical treatment we can ensure that the families of death row inmates are forgotten no more

Facing Death Howard Margot Spiro, Mary G. McCrea Curnen, Lee Palmer Wandel, 1998-10-01 While technology for keeping death at bay has advanced greatly people are less well informed about how to face death and how to understand or articulate the emotional or spiritual need of the dying This work aims to help medical personnel and patients to view death as a defining part of life

Dying Right Daniel Hillyard, John Dombrink, 2002-06-01 Dying Right provides an overview of the Death With Dignity movement a history of how and why Oregon legalized physician assisted suicide and an analysis of the future of physician assisted suicide Engaging the question of how to balance a patient's sense about the right way to die a physician's role as a healer and the state's interest in preventing killing Dying Right captures the ethical legal moral and medical complexities involved in this ongoing debate

Death, Dying and Bereavement Cecilia Lai Wan Chan, Amy Yin Man Chow, 2006-01-01 Fear marks the boundary between the known and the unknown Some Chinese people believe that talking about death will increase the likelihood of occurrence Also by talking about death evil spirits will be attracted to haunt people In facing death individual response is inevitably moulded by the values attitudes and beliefs of one's culture Despite the large Chinese emigrant population in major cities in the world available material in English on death dying and bereavement among Chinese people is scarce As Hong Kong is a place where East meets West most professionals working in the field of death dying and bereavement adapt knowledge from the West to their practice with the Chinese population The intention of this volume is to consolidate and disseminate valuable practical wisdom with professionals in the local and international communities who serve Chinese patients and their family members Both Editors are from the Department of Social Work and Social Administration University of Hong Kong Professor Cecilia Lai Wan Chan has done extensive research in psychosocial oncology behavioral health grief loss and bereavement Amy Yin Man Chow an Honorary Clinical Associate in the department is a registered social worker specialized in

Moreman, 2018-03-29 Providing an overview of the myriad ways that we are touched by death and dying both as an individual and as a member of society this book will help readers understand our relationship with death Kastenbaum and Moreman show how various ways that individual and societal attitudes influence both how and when we die and how we live and deal with the knowledge of death and loss This landmark text draws on contributions from the social and behavioral sciences as well as the humanities such as history religion philosophy literature and the arts to provide thorough coverage of understanding death and the dying process Death Society and Human Experience was originally written by Robert Kastenbaum a renowned scholar who developed one of the world's first death education courses Christopher Moreman who has worked in the field of death studies for almost two decades specializing in afterlife beliefs and experiences has updated this edition      Care of the Dying John Ellershaw, Susie Wilkinson, 2011 This title provides professionals who care for the dying with a user friendly guide on how to render the best possible treatment      Hospice and Palliative Care Stephen R. Connor, 2009-04-02 In the past 35 years the hospice movement has undergone major changes and has grown enormously Palliative care is of growing importance to society as our culture struggles with how to provide compassionate end of life care to a growing segment of the population This book provides professionals with a comprehensive overview of the hospice practice as well as the challenges faced by and the future direction of the hospice movement Chapters address the fundamentals of hospice and palliative care including key topics such as the goals and importance of community involvement outcome measurement and the manner in which hospices address death grief and bereavement Also provided is a detailed analysis of the business side of hospice and offers strategies for proper management for those working in hospice programs that are growing and bringing in new staff and volunteers This book is being published in partnership with the National Hospice and Palliative Care Organization NHPCO      Handbook of World Families Bert N. Adams, Jan Trost, 2005 Praise for the Handbook of World Families At a time when we are moving more and more toward a global village this ambitious book provides evidence of world wide trends in families and family relations It also illustrates the resilience of local cultures seen in variations among nations in trends and responses to them This is a very useful resource for obtaining the kind of baseline information that is essential to comparative work As well a number of chapters contribute to our understanding of the complexities and politics of family life starting with what is meant by family This book will educate many about other parts of the world and the central place of families in them Ingrid Arnet Connidis University of Western Ontario In the Handbook of World Families Bert Adams and Jan Trost two of the leading scholars in the field of comparative family studies have masterfully edited a book that comparatively examines families from 25 nations located around the world The chapter contributors have both theoretical and research knowledge as well as lived experiences of respective nation's families The result is a well written highly informed and authoritative handbook that investigates an extensive range of family issues from local national and global perspectives Mark Hutter Rowan University What defines a family The term family is very complex with a vast range of meanings It can mean a married couple with children a single parent and child a married couple with no children even pets and close friends can be considered to some people as family The variety is enormous and this family diversity is present not just in the United States but around the world The Handbook of World Families provides a cross cultural perspective on the family by examining family life in 25 countries worldwide The countries included in this volume are organized by six world regions including Africa Asia South Pacific Europe Latin America the Middle East and North America offering readers the most thorough and balanced cross cultural examination of world families available Editors Bert N Adams and Jan Trost along with contributions by top family studies experts from around the world ensure reliable cutting edge research and perspectives While other books may provide a cross cultural perspective on the family this book offers a unique comparative view In doing so each chapter of the Handbook is organized in a parallel format beginning with an introduction to the region followed by coverage of mate selection fertility and socialization gender roles marriage stresses and violence divorce and remarriage kinship aging and death family and other institutions and special topics specific to the region The Handbook of World Families is an excellent addition to any academic library and an important resource for scholars and academics in the fields of Family Studies and Sociology It can also be used in graduate level courses on the family in cross cultural perspective comparative family organization and world families

Death, Society and Human Experience (1-download) Robert Kastenbaum, 2015-07-22 Providing an understanding of the relationship with death both as an individual and as a member of society This book is intended to contribute to your understanding of your relationship with death both as an individual and as a member of society Kastenbaum shows how individual and societal attitudes influence both how and when we die and how we live and deal with the knowledge of death and loss Robert Kastenbaum is a renowned scholar who developed one of the world's first death education courses and introduced the first text for this market This landmark text draws on contributions from the social and behavioral sciences as well as the humanities such as history religion philosophy literature and the arts to provide thorough coverage of understanding death and the dying process Learning Goals Upon completing this book readers should be able to Understand the relationship with death both as an individual and as a member of society See how social forces and events affect the length of our lives how we grieve and how we die Learn how dying people are perceived and treated in our society and what can be done to provide the best possible care Master an understanding of continuing developments and challenges to hospice palliative care Understand what is becoming of faith and doubt about an afterlife Grief Counseling and Grief Therapy, 3rd Edition J. William Worden, 2008

Living Beyond Loss Froma Walsh, Monica McGoldrick, 2004 Walsh and McGoldrick have fully revised and expanded this landmark work on the impact of death on the family system Families in Children's Literature Nancy LE Cecil, Patricia Roberts, 1998-02-15 Using quality children's literature that presents families positively and promotes appreciation of family diversity this book offers you a unique way to help students understand the common complexities of today's families. Books are grouped into four major categories: diverse family groups, family heritage and tradition, relationships within families, and family conflicts. Within these areas, books are chosen for specific topics ranging from Death in the Family to Homelessness. For each title, there are questions for reflection and discussion and a target activity that reinforces the concepts presented in the book.

Hidden Victims Susan F. Sharp, 2005. Annotation: In the US, murderers, particularly those sentenced to death, are usually considered as entirely different from the rest of us. Sociologist Susan F. Sharp challenges this perspective by reminding us that those facing a death sentence, in addition to being murderers, are brothers or sisters, mothers or fathers, daughters or sons.
