The afflicted man's companion: or, A directory for families and persons afflicted with sickness or any other distress John Willison, 1821 The Afflicted Man's Companion: Or, a Directory for Families and Persons Afflicted with Sickness Or Any Other Distress. By the Reverend Mr. John Willison .. John Willison, 1744 Love, Power, and Knowledge Hilary Rose, 1994 Rose's passionately engaged book develops new terms for thinking about science and feminism. She locates the feminist criticism of science as integral to both the feminist movement and the radical science movement. She attends to the political economy of the production of knowledge and to what does and does not count as knowledge how women and minorities are affected by these processes is also explored. Because biology is destiny is both an old and oppressive claim made by science she examines at length the latest and massively resourced claimant the Human Genome program the so called Holy Grail of the new industrialized genetics. Rose's commitment to feminist resistance against the science and technology of oppression leads her to explore feminist science fiction as an ally of feminist science critics with its imaginative capacity to explore different futures with different sciences and technologies Work. Love. Body. Jamila Rizvi, Helen McCabe, 2021-09-15 In 2020 the lives of Australian women changed irrevocably. With insight, intelligence and empathy Jane Gilmore, Santilla Chingaipe and Emily J Brooks explore this through the lenses of work, love and body and ask: Will the Australia of tomorrow be more equal than the one we were born into? Or will women and girls remain left behind? While our country was shrouded in smoke in the early months of 2020 Australian women went about their daily business. They worked, studied, cleaned, did school runs, made meals. And they postponed looking after themselves because life got in the way. Then in March Australians were told to lock down. For all the talk of equality it was primarily women who held the health of our communities in their hands as they took on the essential jobs to care, to nurse and to teach despite an invisible danger. One year later women across the country would march on behalf of those who were not safe in workplaces and their own homes. Never before has change been thrust so abruptly on modern Australian women. 2020 impacted our working lives, relationships and our health and wellbeing. And as a growing number of women agitate for change it is time to demand what women want. So where do we go from here? One thing is very clear: the future is now and it is female Not-so-nuclear Families Karen V. Hansen, 2005 Annotation: How do working parents provide care and mobilize the help that they need?
