Dad's Best Memories and Recollections Charles J. Humber,2016-01-20 DAD S BEST MEMORIES AND RECOLLECTIONS is Chazzz Humber s epitaph casting a very long and sentimental shadow across North America and beyond This 230 page volume is his granite monument well polished It lavishly records 125 of his best memories over a life span of nearly eighty years The vignettes are serenaded with more than 400 illustrations Those discovering this volume likely will find themselves wanting to record in their own sunset years their personal memories and recollections And when they do they are apt to recall what it was like to live in their fluctuating world dominated by a variety of personalities and cascading events Mr Humber vividly describes what it was like in 1945 to travel in a 1930 Model A Ford from Toronto to Boston With lively enthusiasm he reports what it was like to live in post World War II Boston to cook a lobster for a former President of the United States or to sell a pair of elevator shoes to one of Hollywood s shortest celebrities or to shine the shoes of a Derby hatted father of a future President of the United States It is not a remarkable achievement to reflect to recall or to have memories that are treasured But to tell them with literary aplomb to recall the events that happened nearly seventy five years ago with utmost clarity is definitely an admirable achievement and should be cherished not only by the kin who follow Mr Humber but by those who might like to imitate what he has monumentally achieved in Dad s Best Memories and Recollections Laptop Bride Cathy Lynn,2004 With the explosion of the World Wide Web planning a wedding has never been more fun or filled with so many choices The Internet allows you to personalize your wedding find great ideas prices items you want and sometimes items you never knew existed Best of all you can shop anytime of day 24 7 in any type of weather any kind of dress and you don t have to worry about parking or salespeople Laptop Bride s focus is to help you find what you are looking for quickly while saving aggravation and money For example who would have thought that you could rent a chocolate fountain over the internet Well you can Perhaps the groom wants to forego the tux and wear an Elvis jumpsuit instead Want to surprise your groom Have a U S Flag flown over the capitol on your wedding day Simply go to HomeofHeroes com and order your flag in advance of course to fly at the exact time of your wedding Need a recipe and directions to make the groom an armadillo cake We have the links We have links for designer gowns veils favors and more Let s face it shopping on line is the ultimate in convenience opportunity and fun Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,1999

Grief After Suicide John R. Jordan,John L. McIntosh,2011-01-19 here are over 38 000 suicide deaths each year in the United States alone and the numbers in other countries suggest that suicide is a major public health problem around the world. A suicide leaves behind more victims than just the individual as family, friends, co-workers, and the community can be impacted in many different and unique ways following a suicide. And yet there are very few professional resources that provide the necessary background, research, and tools to effectively work with the survivors of a suicide. This edited volume addresses the need for an up-to-date professionally oriented summary of the clinical and research literature on the impact of suicide bereavement on survivors. It is geared towards mental health professionals, grief counselors, clergy, and others who work with survivors in a professional capacity. Topics covered include the impact of suicide on survivors, interventions to provide bereavement care for survivors, examples of promising support programs for survivors, and developing a research, clinical, and programmatic agenda for survivors over the next 5 years and beyond. American Book Publishing Record, 1999.

The Local History of Bennington, 1860-1883 Hiland Hall, 1900. Song Lyrics and Literary History Gunilla Hermansson, 2025-06-12. Paving new paths for the study of the history of literature, this study explores the intricate networks of one single poem across two centuries: the Vrvindar friska, a poem meant to be sung. The Swedish song Vrvindar friska (Fresh Spring Breezes) started its public life in 1828 between the covers of a book as a poem written to a traditional melody. Since then, it has been reprinted, translated, performed, and used in the most surprising contexts in different corners of the world. This particular case may be rather exceptional, but Gunilla Hermansson argues that the underlying dynamics are not, and yet they have been underexposed in studies of literary history. This exploration of Vrvindar friska reveals the rich and intricate network of one text and uncovers new facets of how people have engaged with word art in their everyday lives in the modern era. This network includes untraditional yet widespread uses of poetry and lyrics in lonely hearts columns and railway work and seemingly strange bedfellows such as a constellation of Nordic folk songs and American plantation songs. The afterlives of this song evoke questions concerning class, gender, race, citizenship, technology, and modernity from new angles as well as theoretical and methodological questions of circulation, textual instability, canonization, paradigmatic turns, uses, and misuses. Song Lyrics and Literary History demonstrates how poetry is transformed when shared across time, borders, media, and social and ideological divides. Being attentive to poetry meant to be sung, Hermansson argues, opens to a fuller and more representative picture of the cultural history of literature. The Thomas Lamont Family Corliss Lamont, 1962.
