Steinmetz,Marvin B. Sussman,2013-11-11 The lucid straightforward Preface of this Handbook by the two editors and the comprehensive perspectives offered in the Introduction by one of them leave little for a Foreword to add It is therefore limited to two relevant but not intrinsically related points vis a vis research on marriage and the family in the interval since the first Handbook Christensen 1964 appeared namely the impact on this research of the politicization of the New Right and of the Feminist Enlightenment beginning in the mid sixties about the time of the first Handbook In the late 1930s Willard Waller noted Fifty years or more ago about 1890 most people had the greatest respect for the institution called the family and wished to learn nothing whatever about it Everything that concerned the life of men and women and their children was shrouded from the light Today much of that has been changed Gone is the concealment of the way in which life begins gone the irrational sanctity of the home The aura of sentiment which once protected the family from discussion clings to it no more We want to learn as much about it as we can and to understand it as thoroughly as possible for there is a rising recognition in America that vast numbers of its families are sick from internal frustrations and from external buffeting We are engaged in the process of reconstructing our family institutions through criticism and discussion 1938 pp 3 4 The State of Social Progress of Islamic Societies Habib Tiliouine,Richard J. Estes,2016-04-08 This handbook addresses the historical background of the Islamic world and reviews its basic past intellectual achievements It studies social progress of these regions and sub regions in comparison with other parts of the world It uses large data sets and well established statistically weighted Indexes in order to assess the nature and pace of the multiple facets of social change in member states of the Organization of Islamic Cooperation OIC The handbook extensively discusses the main challenges confronting the Islamic nations in the social economic political and ideological fields Though it is recognizable that social change in the Islamic World is generally positive it remains highly variable in pace and there is room to speed it up to the benefit of millions of deprived Muslim people Hence the book studies the different propositions and programs of action such as the United Nations Millennium Development Campaign and the OIC s Ten Year Programme of Action to present an integrated and comprehensive agenda of action to help improve the situation in the Islamic World
