Family Homestead Reflections Emil Gunsch, 1985-08-01 Reflection On Life In Buffalo NY (1932-92) Thomas Murphy, 2006 Tom Murphy and his family lived in Buffalo NY At various times he was employed as a landscaper appliance salesman insurance agent real estate developer and civil servant He worked for and with some of Buffalo s most noted and controversial business and political figures including Joseph N Desmon Harold Farber Robert J Bradley Philip B Schwab Edward H Cottrell as well as Frank Sedita Stanley Makowski and Jimmy Griffin Murphy loved each and every job and yet he always found time to laugh and to play with friends and family To Cast a Reflection Oshawa Museum, 2018-03-15 The Thomas Henry Correspondence Collection was donated to the Archival Collection of the Oshawa Museum in the spring of 2013 The Collection of over 520 individual documents including personal letters receipts and business correspondence covering the period of 1850s to 1890s seemed to almost be the contents of Thomas Henry s desk Within the collection was a group of letters written to Thomas Henry from his children grandchildren and other family members These letters offer an intimate and personal view into the life of one of Oshawa s earliest settler families Michigan Family Farms and Farm Buildings Hemalata Dandekar, 2010-10-22 Thoughtfully documenting the voice and emotions of many who might otherwise remain unheard Hemalata Dandekar provides in depth accounts and insights underpinned by quietly rigorous analysis about family interactions and the perceptions understandings and memories of family members a tribute to the indomitability of the human spirit as an enduring force in sustaining farm life on the Michigan farms Anatole Senkevitch Jr Taubman College of Architecture and Urban Planning University of Michigan Michigan s family farms form the backbone of the state One need only see the Centennial Farm signs that dot the sides of the state s country roads to understand that Hemalata Dandekar shows in her new book just how connected those family farm buildings are to the families that inhabit them Eight family farm case studies display farm buildings relationship to the land they sit on their function on the farm the materials they re made with the farm enterprises themselves and the families who own them Photographs plans elevations and sections of typical exemplary traditional farm buildings show the aesthetic and architectural qualities of those types of buildings across the state The ways in which the buildings serve the productive activities of the farm shelter and nourish the people and livestock yield a living and enable the aspirations of farm people are shown in the words and photographs of the farmers themselves The buildings form a window into the lives of Michigan s family farms and into the hearts and minds of the people who have lived and worked in them their entire lives Hemalata C Dandekar is head of City and Regional Planning at California Polytechnic State University She specializes in urbanization urban rural linkages rural development and gender and housing She developed her love of Michigan farmers and farm architecture during her years as a student professor and then director at the Urban Planning program of the A Alfred Taubman College of Architecture and Urban Planning at the University of Michigan Reflections Spencer Geswein, 2021-05-21 It is admirable to be a man among men eager to listen calculated in speech proudly developing broad shoulders thick skin a robust spine and a love of God country and women as complementary equals It s okay to be strong courageous faithful chivalrous and full of virility and it s okay to develop one s position of leadership and authority With all my vices weaknesses and shortcomings this is who I strive to be It s who we want our daughters to marry and our sons to become Such is the man most capable of complementing his wife and encouraging her to become the woman she has every right to be The man you are becoming need not cower at the altar of groupthink and popular decadence This book is a great read often funny sometimes tragic always earnest always honest It demonstrates that idealism is not dead Follow on Spencer s ride from boyhood to mid life and you will encounter characters you wish you would have met in your own life people who either challenged or mentored Spencer or both and who helped mold him into the man he is today Andrea Brackett Spencer Geswein is a son of God before all else He is a devoted husband to one beautiful woman and a proud father engaged in the lives of their three great kids Spencer is also a grateful son and brother beholden to his father mother siblings and other treasured mentors who have helped him along Christian country kid from rural Indiana turned racecar driver real estate investor author and trainer of young men Spencer is an outspoken advocate for hard work homespun biblical values and durable manhood Spencer calls it like he sees it and is standing in the arena ready to take on whatever exciting new chapter the good Lord has in store for him Spencer and his family enjoy life at their home and farm in northwest Indiana

Reflection Richard Mousseau, 2016-11-15 Expectations of what was to be seen reflecting off of the smooth surface of the water trough was not to be Clear blue green water filled to the brim clearly showed an aged face of a man mystified by a personal image Hints of specific features were reminiscent of Father s the family s inherited nose dad s black eyes in furrowed brows and even Mother s hidden silent humour Where had the years gone Bits of recalled memories drift in and out of the mind s eye though not in chronicle order Dates and years as mixed up as the faces of people at various stages of life Faces were familiar though names were difficult to recall Dates years and ages were non existent The stories were most prevalent most vivid with minute details and background facts connected to others and their stories Farm animals their personalities and stories also intermingled in time frames of Ed s life maybe more affectionate than family and close friends Animals are funny serious and emotional

Stepping Twice Into the River Robert King, 2005 Robert King recounts his exploration of the almost unnoticeable along North Dakota s Sheyenne River from its headwaters to river s end With every experience along the way tracing a military campaign canoeing the river visiting a ghost town and even trying to sleep in an ancient Cheyenne village King delves deeper into the river s culture Each stop in his travels each chapter of his writing brings to light a different aspect of the plains focusing on Native American culture pioneer society religion war agriculture and nature In the hands of this gifted thinker and writer local facts yield universal metaphor An able guide King illuminates the ordinary from the perspectives of history science and literature Blending travel narrative interesting details and poetic reflection Stepping Twice Into the River takes readers on a journey through time revealing both stability and change and offering prairie wisdom Readers will find in Robert King an affable and delightful guide a painter of a vivid portrait of human endeavour on the northern plains
