Contesting Aging and Loss Janice Graham, Peter Stephenson, 2010-04-26 Disease and death are a part of life but so too is being well The lively voices found in this book are not shy about stating the ways in which the widely held notion that they are in decline has been a far larger problem than many other features of their lives For students scholars and policy makers the message is to attend to these voices and to design and build better programs that address the social determinants of healthy aging and social inclusion throughout the life course      Physical Abusers and Sexual Offenders Scott Allen Johnson, 2006-07-13 Until recently professionals in both investigation and treatment have considered the fields of sexual violence and domestic abuse as separate and distinct Numerous studies have shown however that these fields may not be so neatly pigeonholed as once believed Statistics indicate that there is an overlap in both the level and type of violence exp      Connections Between
