Sonia Harris-Short, Joanna Miles

Family Law:

Family Law in America Sanford N. Katz, 2003 This volume examines the state of family law in America Among its themes is the tension between individual autonomy and governmental regulation in all aspects of family law It examines both conventional and new definitions of formal and informal domestic relationships Family Law Sonia Harris-Short, Joanna Miles, 2011-05-19 Presented in an accessible format this text provides a detailed and authoritative exposition of the law illustrated by carefully selected materials and complemented by clear and engaging commentary drawing on a range of critical and theoretical perspectives Family Law Frances Burton, 2003-02-15 A reader friendly guide to the basic family law topics The book also includes indications of where the law may be going in practice for example following the implementation of the Human Rights Act Major academic and practitioner issues are flagged Routledge Handbook of International Family Law Barbara Stark, Jacqueline Heaton, 2019-01-30 Globalisation and the vast migrations of capital and labour that have accompanied it in recent decades has transformed family law in once unimaginable ways Families have been torn apart and new families have been created Borders have become more porous allowing adoptees and mail order brides to join new families and women fleeing domestic violence to escape from old ones People of different nationalities marry have children and divorce not necessarily in that order They file suits in their respective home states or third states demanding support custody and property Otherwise law abiding parents risk jail in desperate efforts to abduct their own children from foreign ex spouses The aim of this Handbook is to provide scholars postgraduate students judges and practitioners with a broad but authoritative review of current research in the area of International Family Law The contributors reflect on a range of jurisdictions and legal traditions and their approaches vary Each chapter has a distinct subject matter and was written by an author who was invited because of his or her expertise on that subject This volume provides a valuable contribution to emerging understandings of the subject Palestinian Women and Muslim Family Law in the Mandate Period Elizabeth Brownson, 2019-07-01 In this volume Brownson sheds new light on Palestinian Muslim women's agency in shari'a courts from the British Mandate period to the present Her extensive archival research on wife initiated maintenance claims divorce and child custody cases deepens our understanding of women's position in the courts demonstrating that Muslim women were and are active participants in their legal affairs Using court registers and interviews Brownson uncovers a variety of ways women have manipulated the system to their benefit despite its patriarchal bias She also finds that few reforms were implemented during the Mandate period The British were uninterested in improving colonized women's legal status and sought to avoid further antagonizing Palestinians At the same time Palestinians wished to uphold the one indigenous institution they still controlled while both British rule and Zionism threatened their nationalist aspirations Although Palestinian women have had few alternatives to using this male privileged system to redress grievances with their husbands and in laws they continue to resist its injustices every day Brownson finds that women's understanding of family law fundamentals has enabled some to deftly navigate the system however a unified reformed law reflecting society's current needs is required so women can have full access to their rights

Perspectives for the Unification and Harmonisation of Family Law in Europe Katharina Boele-Woelki, 2003 Is the unification and harmonisation of international family law in Europe necessary Is it feasible desirable and possible Reading the different contributions to this book may certainly inspire those who would like to find the right answers to these questions

Gender and Equality in Muslim Family Law Lena Larsen, Ziba Mir-Hosseini, Christian Moe, Kari Vogt, 2013-04-30 Gender equality is a modern ideal which has only recently with the expansion of human rights and feminist discourses become inherent to generally accepted conceptions of justice In Islam as in other religious traditions the idea of equality between men and women was neither central to notions of justice nor part of the juristic landscape and Muslim jurists did not begin to address it until the twentieth century The personal status of Muslim men women and children continues to be defined by understandings of Islamic law codified and adapted by modern nation states that assume authority to be the natural prerogative of men that disadvantage women and that are prone to abuse This volume argues that effective and sustainable reform of these laws and practices requires engagement with their religious rationales from within the tradition Gender and Equality in Muslim Family Law offers a groundbreaking analysis of family law based on fieldwork in family courts and illuminated by insights from distinguished clerics and scholars of Islam from Morocco Egypt Iran Pakistan and Indonesia as well as by the experience of human rights and women s rights activists It explores how male authority is sustained through law and court practice in different contexts the consequences for women and the family and the demands made by Muslim women s groups The book argues for women s full equality before the law by re examining the jurisprudential and theological arguments for male guardianship qiwama wilaya in Islamic legal tradition Using contemporary examples from various contexts from Morocco to Malaysia this volume presents an informative and vital analysis of these societies and gender relations within them It unpicks the complex and often contradictory attitudes towards Muslim family law and the ways in which justice and ethics are conceived in the Islamic tradition The book offers a new framework for rethinking old formulations so as to reflect contemporary realities and understandings of justice ethics and gender rights

Family Law, Sex and Society Peter De Cruz, 2010-02-25 Comparative in both approach and framework Family Law Sex and Society provides a critical exposition of key areas in family law exploring their evolution and development within their historical cultural political and legal context Cross referencing to English law throughout this comparative textbook pays particular attention to the transformation of marriage the development of divorce laws matrimonial property the legal recognition of unmarried heterosexual and same sex cohabitants the universal adoption of the best interests standard for children in domestic and international legislation and the impact of the Human Rights Act 1998 on family law in a variety of jurisdictions Divided into different sections Family Law Sex and Society includes coverage of a jurisdictional and historical survey of some of the main themes in Family Law as well as consideration of the evolution of the Western family the English law relating to divorce marital property and children and a comparison with the equivalent law in the civil law jurisdictions of France and Germany family law developments in other common law countries such as Australia and New Zealand selected American jurisdictions parts of Africa and some Far Eastern countries and hybrid jurisdictions like Japan and Russia an analysis of the law relating to unmarried cohabitation and domestic partnerships in civil law jurisdictions such as France Germany and Sweden in comparison to Anglo American law a comparative analysis of the laws relating to domestic violence Family Law Sex and Society offers valuable socio legal and socio cultural insights into the practice of family law and is the only textbook that provides a unified coherent and comparative approach to the study of family law as it operates in these particular jurisdictions Family Law Services Handbook Donald A. Family Law Ruth Lamont, 2022 This innovative textbook explores the compelling debates that bring family law alive offering a critical guide to the subject Under the expert editorship of Ruth Lamont each author has crafted a superbly clear guide to their specialist topic with a focus on areas of controversy and essential context Family Law in Practice The City Law School, 2012 Almost all junior barristers in civil practice are likely to encounter family law work in their first years of practice This manual therefore provides a detailed introduction to the key areas of the substantive family law of which the junior practitioner should have a good working knowledge Key aspects of family law covered include domestic violence care proceedings and pre nuptial agreements Adopting a highly pragmatic approach Family Law in Practice encourages students to build on their existing basic practitioner skills and highlights how to approach writing opinions and drafting documents specific to family law It provides invaluable practical advice on how to prepare for different types of hearing what factors to consider in relation to negotiation how to make persuasive submissions and how to handle witnesses effectively ensuring that the junior practitioner is fully prepared for his or her first steps in the family courts Key updates to this new edition include coverage of Yemshaw v London Borough of Hounslow 2011 UKSC 3 the Family Proceedings Rules 2010 and the Supreme Court decision in Radmacher v Granatino The authors have also included a short general introduction to the child support system Obligation and Commitment in Family Law Gillian Douglas, 2018-04-19 A tension lies at the heart of family law Expressed in the language of rights and duties it seeks to impose enforceable obligations on individuals linked to each other by ties that are usually regarded as based on love or blood Taking a contextual approach that draws on history sociology and social policy as well as law and legal theory this book examines the concept of obligation as it has been developed in family law and the difficulties the law has had in translating it from a theoretical and ideological concept into the basis of enforceable actions and duties Increasingly the idea of commitment has been offered as the key organising principle for the recognition of family relationships often as a means of rebutting claims that family ties are becoming attenuated but the meaning and scope of this concept have not been explored The book traces how the notion of commitment is understood and how far it has come to be used as a rationale for imposing the core legal obligations which underpin care and caring within families
