Family Law Jonathan Herring, 2012-12-06 This book provides a stimulating carefully planned introduction to the key issues and debates within family law from some of the leading authorities within their field It is designed both as a self standing book focusing on the key issues in the subject and as a supplement to more detailed textbooks on the subject It is essential reading for anybody studying or practising in the field of family law Each chapter is concerned with one of the main areas of family law such as adoption domestic violence marriage and divorce and covers a range of themes including the public private divide balancing the interests of family members moral values and family law cost and the legal system and the enforcement of family law The book reflects the interdisciplinary nature of the debates on family law and the difficult social and political issues which these have raised

Children and Their Families Andrew Bainham, Bridget Lindley, Martin Richards, Liz Trinder, 2003-09-07 This book is concerned with the regulation of family relationships in particular the issue of openness and contact in the many different family situations in which it may arise The shift towards a presumption of contact and its articulation within diverse fields of family law and practice raises a whole series of questions which this book seeks to explore For example Why has the contact presumption emerged What is meant by contact and with whom What is the value and purpose of it What makes it work or not work What is the role of law and other forms of external intervention in promoting regulating or facilitating contact and to what extent should familial relationships be subject to state regulation More broadly what can we infer about current conceptualisations of family parenting and the relative importance of social and biological parenthood and childhood from policy and practice towards contact These and other questions were explored in a series of seminars organised by the Cambridge Socio Legal Group in 2002 The book is the product of these seminars Andrew Bainham Belinda Brooks Gordon Ann Buchanan Shelley Day Sclater Judy Dunn John Eekelaar Bob Geldof Jonathan Herring Claire Hughes Joan Hunt Adrian James Julie Jessop Felicity Kaganas Bridget Lindley Mavis Maclean Joanna Miles Katrin Mueller Johnson Elsbeth Neil Jan Pryor Martin Richards Bob Simpson Donna Smith Liz Trinder

Finding Legal Information David Pester, 2003-09-30 Given the vast amount of legal information available it is sometimes very difficult and certainly very time consuming to know where to start looking for the specific information you require This book covering the most up to date information sources printed and electronic helps guide the reader towards the information they need It is an accessible and easy to use directory of legal information sources for librarians lawyers students and anyone needing legal information The book covers mainly British and European Union law and includes general material and the main subject areas including online and internet sources It also lists reference material such as legal dictionaries and directories The book is essentially a directory of information sources with publishing details including ISBN and short comments where useful Electronic sources are mentioned where relevant with details of scope and any limitations of coverage Comprehensive and up to date covering electronic sources and important legal developments including civil procedure and human rights Covers the massive expansion of information on the web and online services Based on the author s considerable experience thus he has gained a detailed and wide ranging understanding and appreciation of users needs and areas of interest      Family Law Polly Morgan,2024      Adoption and Law Lisamarie Deblasio,2020-07-23 Using a socio legal framework this book explores the experiences that birth mothers face in state sanctioned adoption proceedings in the UK Featuring personal in depth interviews and conversations with 32 birth mothers the book highlights perspectives and voices that are seldom the focus in leading discourses of professional practice in this area of law The book also demands that the statutory rights support and care of birth mothers are recognised and strengthened This book delivers a comprehensive insight into many aspects and controversies of legal child adoption including the development and reform of adoption law over history giving the reader insight into the deep rooted political and social tensions around the use of adoption The uniqueness of birth mothers subjective stories of adoption contrasts powerfully with the legal theory providing the reader with an intimate paradigm of adoption The book includes discussion of obiter dicta and authoritative guidance on adoption practice from the Supreme Court and Court of Appeal in Re B A Child Care Proceedings Appeal 2013 UKSC 33 and Re B S Children Adoption Leave to Oppose 2013 EWCA Civ 1146 It also considers Court of Appeal s recent ruling on post adoption contact in Re B A Child Post Adoption Contact 2019 EWCA Civ 29 the first case to come before the court since section 9 of the Children and Families Act 2014 amended the Adoption and Children Act 2002 with the new insertion of section 51A and 51B providing for court ordered post adoption contact This book is ideally suited to undergraduate students as well as a more multi disciplinary audience      Family Law Sonia Harris-Short,Joanna Miles,Rob George,Robert Henry George,2015 Family Law Text Cases and Materials presents everything the undergraduate student needs in one volume The authors offer a detailed and authoritative exposition of family law illustrated by materials carefully selected from a wide range of sources      Family Law Joanna Miles,Rob George,Sonia Harris-Short,2019 Placing key judgments and expert commentary at your fingertips Family Law Text Cases and Materials presents everything the undergraduate student needs in one volume Drawing on their extensive experience the authors offer a detailed and authoritative exposition of family law illustrated by materials carefully selected from a wide range of sources The book has two principal aims to provide readers with a thorough understanding of the law relating to the family and to stimulate critical reflection on that law Readers are encouraged to consider how and why the law has developed as it has what policies it is seeking to pursue whether it achieves the right balance between the rights and interests of individual family members and the wider public interest and how it operates in practice Online Resources The text is supported by substantial online resources which features regular updates on the law further reading suggestions and revision questions to accompany each chapter      Land Law Louise Tee,2013-01-10 This book analyses the key debates and policy issues within the area of land law The chapters cover proprietary and non proprietary rights registration easements leases co ownership and trusts mortgages and land law and human rights It is essential reading for students and practitioner alike Hayes & Williams' Family Law Stephen Gilmore, Lisa Glennon, 2020 Provides a comprehensive critical and case focused introduction to family law Hayes Williams Family Law helps students to gain a firm understanding of family law principles the developing law and key reform debates A Failure of Proportion Samantha M Davey, 2020-06-11 This book explores non consensual adoption an area of law which has sparked considerable debate amongst academics practitioners and the judiciary nationally and internationally The emphasis of this book is on the circumstances in which non consensual adoption may be regarded as a proportionate measure and when less severe forms of intervention such as long term foster care or kinship care may also meet children s needs while providing protection to children s rights under the European Convention on Human Rights The book builds on existing literature on adoption law but takes the discussion in new directions placing an emphasis on the need to closely scrutinise children s and parents rights at all stages of the adoption process not simply when parents appeal against the making of an adoption order A unique feature of this book is its emphasis on routinely incorporating key provisions from the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child into analysis when determining whether an adoption order is a proportionate measure Bromley's Family Law Nigel V. Lowe, Gillian Douglas, 2015 Bromley s Family Law is a well established and popular textbook with students and practitioners alike This edition has been updated to take into account recent developments in family law Criminal Justice Responses to Domestic Abuse in Northern Ireland Ronagh J.A. McQuigg, 2022-08-29 This book provides a detailed exploration of the responses of the criminal justice system to domestic abuse in Northern Ireland The book s primary focus is on developments which have taken place since around 2010 and in particular since the restoration of the Northern Ireland Assembly in January 2020 after a three year suspension The book includes discussion of the increased levels of domestic abuse in Northern Ireland in the context of the COVID 19 pandemic and analyses the ways in which the criminal justice system responded In addition the book includes in depth discussion of the Domestic Abuse and Civil Proceedings Act Northern Ireland 2021 which had the effect of criminalising coercive control and the implications of this legislation for Northern Ireland s response to domestic abuse The book will be of great interest to academics and researchers from a wide variety of disciplines such as criminal law criminology social policy human rights family law gender studies and sociology as well as practitioners and those in the voluntary sector who are working in the area of combating domestic abuse It can also be used on courses at both undergraduate and postgraduate levels which incorporate the topic of domestic abuse Caring and the Law Jonathan Herring, 2013-04-12 Caring and the Law considers the law s response to caring It explores how care is valued and recognised how it is regulated and restricted and how the values of caring are reflected in the law It does this by examining the law s interaction with caring in a wide range of fields including family medical welfare criminal and tort law At the heart of the book is the claim that the law has failed to recognise the importance of caring in many areas and in doing so has led to the costs and burdens of care falling on those who provide it primarily women It has also meant that the law has failed to protect those who receive care from the abuse that can take place in a caring context The book promotes an ethic of care as providing an ethical and conceptual framework for the law to respond to caring relationships International Human Rights Law and Domestic Violence Ronagh J.A. McQuigg, 2011-04-06 This innovative book examines the effectiveness of international human rights law through the case study of domestic violence Domestic violence is an issue that affects vast numbers of women throughout all nations of the world but as it takes place between private individuals it does not come within the ambit of the traditional interpretation of human rights law Ronagh J A McQuigg questions whether international human rights law can only be effective in a traditional case of human rights abuse or whether it can rise to the challenge of being used in relation to issues such as domestic violence The book focuses primarily on the question of how international human rights law could be used in relation to domestic violence in the United Kingdom McQuigg considers recent case law from the European Court of Human Rights on domestic violence and whether the UK courts could use the Human Rights Act 1998 to assist victims of domestic violence The book goes on to look in detail at the statements of the international human rights bodies on domestic violence with particular focus on those made by the United Nations Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination against Women and the Special Rapporteur on Violence against Women The book explores the impact that the statements have had so far on the UK government's policy in relation to domestic violence and discusses how the statements made by the international human rights bodies could be used more effectively by non governmental organisations such as human rights groups and women's groups

Parents and Children Andrew Bainham, 2017-03-02 This volume brings together some of the best journal articles of the last twenty years which deal with various aspects of the relationship between parents and children Adopting an inter disciplinary and comparative approach the book reproduces articles from a variety of journals in law and the social sciences The book is divided into eight parts dealing respectively with becoming a parent the status and obligations of parenthood issues of upbringing adolescence child support parental separation divorce and children child abuse and state intervention social parenthood and adoption The volume includes a substantial introduction by the editor

Domestic Abuse and Child Contact Rosemary Hunter, Adrienne Barnett, Felicity Kaganas, Shazia Choudhry, 2020-12-30 This book presents papers from an International Symposium on Contact Disputes and Allegations of Domestic Violence Identifying Best Practices held in London in May 2017 The editors invited a group of international experts to explain the approaches taken in their jurisdictions to allegations of domestic violence in child contact cases with a view to identifying international best practices in such cases The book includes contributions from England and Wales Scotland Ireland Canada Sweden and Spain as well as information presented at the symposium from New Zealand and Australia The chapters include attention to particular issues such as specialist domestic violence courts judicial training and hearing children's voices Collectively the chapters identify a set of common problems experienced across all of the jurisdictions including an overwhelming emphasis on the value of children's ongoing contact with non resident parents and the consequent minimisation of domestic violence and the muting of the voices of children who do not wish to have contact with abusive parents Best practices in taking domestic violence seriously and providing adequate protection from further abuse for children and non abusive parents were less in evidence However the concluding chapter draws together details of several initiatives and approaches which offer promising ways forward The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Social Welfare and Family Law
