Parke,1994-06-24 Each generation of American children across the tumultuous twentieth century has come of age in the different world How do major historical events such as war or the depression influence children s development Children in Time and Place brings together social historians and developmental psychologists to explore the implications of a changing society for children s growth and life chances transitions provide a central theme for historical transitions to the social transitions of children and their developmental experiences Masters Theses in the Pure and Applied Sciences Wade H. Shafer,2012-12-06 Masters Theses in the Pure and Applied Sciences was first conceived published and disseminated by the Center for Information and Numerical Oata Analysis and Synthesis CINOAS at Purdue University in 1957 starting its coverage of theses with the academic year 1955 Beginning with Volume 13 the printing and dissemination phases of the activity were transferred to University Microfilms Xerox of Ann Arbor Michigan with the thought that such an arrangement would be more beneficial to the academic and general scientific and technical community After five years of this joint undertaking we had concluded that it was in the interest of all con cerned if the printing and distribution of the volumes were handled by an interna tional publishing house to assure improved service and broader dissemination Hence starting with Volume 18 Masters Theses in the Pure and Applied Sciences has been disseminated on a worldwide basis by Plenum Publishing Cor poration of New York and in the same year the coverage was broadened to include Canadian universities All back issues can also be ordered from Plenum We have reported in Volume 33 thesis year 1988 a total of 13 273 theses titles from 23 Canadian and 1 85 United States universities We are sure that this broader base for these titles reported will greatly enhance the value of this important annual reference work While Volume 33 reports theses submitted in 1988 on occasion certain univer sities do report theses submitted in previous years but not reported at the time Beyond The Amber Waves Of Grain Paul Lasley,2021-11-28 This book explores the large scale impacts of economic restructuring in the Midwest in response to the 1980s farm crisis Drawing upon detailed surveys from twelve north central states the authors offer a comprehensive view of farm restructuring and its social economic and political consequences The study goes beyond the farm gate to look at the broader implications of those changes for agriculture policy related industries and areas still dependent upon farming contributing to the literature on economic restructuring Like the factory closings in the Rust Belt the dramatic failure of agricultural industries in the Farm Belt has caused fundamental changes in the organization and control of production The impact of job losses and economic depression and the shattering of a way of life have shaken public complacency about the stability of many fundamental American myths Beyond the Amber Waves of Grain looks at the farm crisis not as a purely agricultural nonurban issue but as one that adds to our understanding of the overall social impacts of economic change The book takes up the story of Midwestern farm enterprises in the wake of the farm crisis of the 1980s Using data drawn from detailed surveys of 3 940 farm households in twelve north central states the authors offer a comprehensive view of the social and economic restructuring of agriculture and explore the consequences for farm enterprises farm households and farming communities The study goes beyond the farm gate to look at the broader implications for related industries and communities dependent upon farming for agricultural and rural policies and for farm women and men contributing to the literature on economic restructuring and its outcomes Cumulated Index Medicus ,1989 Quality of life in the military United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations. Gottfried,2013-06-29 Families are undergoing dramatic changes in our society Our traditional views are being challenged by new family arrangements These new family arrangements are forcing redefinitions of what constitutes a family and raising significant issues regarding the potential developmental consequences for children in these families if such exist Moreover the ramifications of redefined families and their bearing on children's development extend into the legal political and societal arenas This book focuses on the relationships between diverse family arrangements and children's development as well as on legal and social implications Our interest in this area emanates from our experience in directing the Fullerton Longitudinal Study In the course of this investigation we observed families undergoing transformation most commonly in maternal employment and marital status Our initial research on the role of maternal employment in children's development provided the scientific foundation for our interest Just as we feel that maternal employment and dual earner families should be comprehensively researched regarding their relationships to children's development we also believe that other contemporary family arrangements should receive extensive attention in the developmental literature Hence the idea for this book emerged Military Construction Appropriations United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Appropriations,1985 Current Estimates from the National Health Interview Survey, United States ,1996 Homelessness in America--the Need for Permanent Housing United States. Congress. House. Committee on Banking, Finance, and Urban Affairs. Subcommittee on Housing and Community Development,1989 Justification of the budget estimates, Navy, defense agencies, and NATO United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on Military Construction Appropriations,1987 Essays on Saving, Bequests, Altruism, and Life-cycle Planning Laurence J. Kotlikoff,2001-06-22 This collection of essays coauthored with other distinguished economists offers new perspectives on saving intergenerational economic ties retirement planning and the distribution of wealth The book links life cycle microeconomic behavior to important macroeconomic outcomes including the roughly 50 percent postwar decline in America's rate of saving and its increasing wealth inequality. The book traces these outcomes to the government's five decade long policy of transferring in the form of annuities ever larger sums from young savers to old spenders. The book presents new theoretical and empirical analyses of altruism that rule out the possibility that private intergenerational transfers have offset those by the government. While rational life cycle behavior can explain broad economic outcomes, the book also shows that a significant minority of households fail to make coherent life cycle saving and insurance decisions. These mistakes are compounded by reliance on conventional financial planning tools which the book compares with Economic Security Planner (ESPlanner), a new life cycle financial planning software program. The application of ESPlanner to U.S. data indicates that most Americans approaching retirement age are saving at much lower rates than they should be given potential major cuts in Social Security benefits.
