Family Mediation Cooperative Divorce Settlement:

Family Mediation Joan Blades,1985 Family Mediation Howard H. Irving,Michael Benjamin,1995-07-19 As divorce rates rise family mediation represents an alternative way of making settlements without involving an already overburdened judicial system This book presents a discussion of the current North American trends in the burgeoning field of family mediation by featuring both a review of the literature and a model for family mediation practice The practice model presented here Therapeutic Family Mediation stresses an ecological perspective and considers the feminist critique of the mediation process The authors also address mediation s role in the important issues of joint custody ethnicity and child protection Future directions in family mediation are examined in the final part Divorce Without Court Katherine Stoner,2021-05-25 Can you really have a civilized divorce without an expensive and stressful court battle Ending a marriage is always difficult but it doesn t need to be fraught with financial or emotional conflict This book guides you through a negotiated divorce using alternatives to court such as divorce mediation or a new approach called collaborative divorce

Resolving Family Conflicts Jane Murphy,2017-03-02 Over the past two decades virtually all areas of family law have undergone major doctrinal and theoretical changes from the definition of marriage to the financial and parenting consequences of divorce to the legal construction of parenthood An equally important set of changes has transformed the resolution of family disputes This paradigm shift in family conflict resolution has reshaped the practice of family law and has fundamentally altered the way in which disputing families interact with the legal system Moreover the changes have important implications for the way that family law is understood and taught This volume examines the contours of this paradigm shift in family conflict resolution and explores its implications for family law scholarship and practice The interdisciplinary compilation includes contributions from lawyers legal academics social scientists and mental health professionals As the articles in the volume demonstrate the transformation in family conflict resolution holds considerable promise for disputing families but it also raises a number of challenges These challenges include concerns about the institutional competence of courts the surrender of fact finding and decision making to individuals without legal training the loss of autonomy and privacy for family members subject to continuing court oversight and the disjunction between problem solving justice and authoritative legal norms By exploring both the promise of the new paradigm and its potential pitfalls this volume engages family law scholars and offers insights to judges practitioners and policy makers responsible for serving families in conflict How Mediation Works Angela Cora Garcia,2019-08-15 An original study of the language of mediation which uses excerpts from real mediation sessions to illustrate how mediation works and how mediators can best help disputants make claims present evidence and propose solutions It will interest researchers and students of sociolinguistics conversation analysis and the sociology of law Mending Broken Families Emily M. Douglas,2006-06-29 Since the 1970s policy makers and advocates for mothers fathers and children have attempted to remedy some of the inherent problems of divorce through public policy This legislation has taken the form of mandated mediation legal presumptions for particular custodial arrang

Communication and Disenfranchisement Eileen Berlin Ray, 2013-12-02

This volume and its companion case studies book deal with some of the people groups and classes who are living a disenfranchised existence in the United States Whether through birth life events or unfortunate circumstances they are denied full privileges rights and power within the existing societal structure Centered around societal health problems as they relate to socioeconomic status family abuse and health concerns these volumes examine salient issues from several theoretical frameworks including feminist theory and the social construction of reality Communication and Disenfranchisement provides theory based essays on topics such as the homeless adult survivors of sexual assault battered women persons with disabilities impoverished women the indigent living in the inner city persons with HIV AIDS the terminally ill and the elderly Case Studies in Communication and Disenfranchisement provides parallel case studies applying the issues and concepts discussed in the essays Used together these books provide theoretically based applications of social health issues within a communication framework Traditionally health communication research has emphasized the communication physical health relationship Inadvertently this primary focus has restricted what information has been included under the domain of health communication These books expand that domain by examining how the communication disenfranchisement relationship is accomplished managed and overcome and by recognizing the significance of the pragmatic and theoretic implications of this inquiry
