Marie Lall,Tania Saeed,2019-11-28 The role of the security establishment in Pakistan has been strengthened in a post Musharraf era as social institutions are increasingly drawn into the security agenda Pakistan s problems are often explained through the lens of ethnic or religious differences the tense relationship between democracy and the Pakistan military or geopolitics and terrorism without taking into account young citizens role in questioning the state and the role of the education system Based on new research and interviews with more than 1900 Pakistanis aged 16-28 the authors examine young people s understanding of citizenship political participation the state and terrorism in post Musharraf Pakistan The authors explore the relationship between the youth and the security state highlighting how the educational institutions social media political activism and the entire nature of the social contract in Pakistan has been increasingly securitized The focus is on the voices of young Pakistanis their views on state accountability or lack thereof political literacy and participation and the continued problem of terrorism that is transforming their views of both their country and the world today With 67% of the country s population under the age of 30 this book is a unique window into how Pakistan is likely to evolve in the next couple of decades The Jews in America Arthur Hertzberg,1997 A brilliant challenging revisionist history of the Jewish experience in America by Arthur Hertzberg political leader rabbi social historian and one of America s most eminent Jewish thinkers The Psychology of Media and Politics George Comstock,Erica Scharrer,2005-05-31 Research indicates that people discount their own opinions and experiences in favor of those of experts as espoused in the media The framing of news coverage thus has a profound impact on public opinion and political decision making as a response to public outcry However the choice of how to frame the news is typically made to solicit viewership and high ratings rather than to convey accurate and meaningful information The Psychology of Media and Politics discusses why people discount their own opinions how the media shapes the news when this drives political decision making and what the effect is on the future of society Issues addressed include How powerful are the media in shaping political beliefs judgment How has this power changed in recent years How does media influence voting behavior To what extent do media opinions affect political decision making Demonstrates the ways in which the media both constrain and facilitate democratic participation Provides insight into why individuals have varying levels of attention to and interest in politics Discusses such issues as political advertising polls debates and journalists pursuit of scandal Describes why only some Americans turn out to vote in prominent elections Offers

Friedman, 2023-10-13 Woody Allen Mel Brooks Sidney Lumet and Paul Mazursky all sons of East European Jews remain among the most prominent contemporary American film directors In this revised updated second edition of American Jewish Filmmakers David Desser and Lester D Friedman demonstrate how the Jewish experience gives rise to an intimately linked series of issues in the films of these and other significant Jewish directors The effects of the Holocaust linger both in gripping dramatic form Mazursky's Enemies a Love Story and in black comedy Brooks's The Producers In his trilogy consisting of Serpico Prince of the City and Q A Lumet focuses on the failure of society's institutions to deliver social justice Woody Allen portrays urban life and family relationships Manhattan and Hannah and Her Sisters sometimes with a nostalgic twist Radio Days This edition concludes with a newly written discussion of the careers of other prominent Jewish filmmakers such as Steven Spielberg Barry Levinson Brian Singer and Darren Aronofsky College Student Personnel Abstracts ,1975 The Moral Sense James Q. Wilson, 1997-11-06 Are human beings naturally endowed with a conscience Or is morality artificially acquired through social pressure and instruction Most people assume that modern science proves the latter Further most of our current social policies are based upon this scientific view of the sources of morality In this book however James Q Wilson seeks to reconcile traditional ideas with a range of important empirical research into the sources of human behavior over the last fifty years Marshalling evidence drawn from diverse scientific disciplines including animal behavior anthropology evolutionary theory biology endocrinology brain science genetics primatology education and psychology Wilson shows that the facts about the origin and development of moral reasoning are not at odds with traditional views predating Freud Darwin and Marx Our basic sense of right and wrong actually does have a biological and behavioral origin This moral sense arises from the infant's innate sociability though it must also be nurtured by parental influence Thus this book revives ancient traditions of moral and ethical argument that go back to Aristotle and reunifies the separate streams of philosophical and scientific knowledge that for so long were regarded as unbridgeable Earth First: Anti-Road Movement Derek Wall, 2013-10-28 First published in 1999 Detailed accounts of major anti road campaigns both in the UK and internationally are included describing confrontations at Twyford Newbury Glasgow and the Autobahn in Germany as well as information on the globalisation of Earth First with details of protests in Australia Ireland Germany France Holland Eastern Europe and North America Earth First and the Anti Roads Movement traces the origins of the movement and the history of anti roads activism in Britain since the 1880s Showing how green social and political theory can be linked to practical struggles for environmental and social change Derek Wall investigates key topics of political and sociological interest Documentation Politique Internationale ,1972 Has supplements Discrete Multivariate Analysis Yvonne M.
