Knapp, 2018-10-30 For the nature lover with a sense of humor SIERRA MAGAZINE Eli Knapp takes readers from a leaky dugout canoe in Tanzania and the mating grounds of Ecuador's cock of the rock to a juniper titmouse's perch at the Grand Canyon and the migration of hooded mergansers in a New York swamp exploring life's deepest questions all along the way In this collection of essays Knapp intentionally flies away from the flock reveling in insights gleaned from birds his students and the wide-eyed wonder his children experience The Delightful Horror of Family Birding navigates the world in hopes that appreciation of nature will burn intensely for generations to come not peter out in merely a flicker Whether traveling solo or with his students or children Knapp levels his gaze on the birds that share our skies showing that birds can be a portal to deeper relationships ecological understanding and newfound joy ELI J KNAPP PhD is professor of intercultural studies and biology at Houghton College and director of the Houghton in Tanzania program Knapp is a regular contributor to Bird Watcher's Digest New York State Conservationist and other publications An avid birdwatcher hiker and kayaker he lives in Fillmore New York with his wife and children A Short Treatise on Family Settlements and Devises, Etc Thomas Keatinge, 1810 Law, Land, and Family Eileen Spring, 2000-11-09 Eileen Spring presents a fresh interpretation of the history of inheritance among the English gentry and aristocracy In a work that recasts both the history of real property law and the history of the family she finds that one of the principal and determinative features of upper class real property inheritance was the exclusion of females This exclusion was accomplished by a series of legal devices designed to nullify the common law rules of inheritance under which had they prevailed 40 percent of English land would have been inherited or held by women Current ideas of family development portray female inheritance as increasing in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries but Spring argues that this is a misperception resulting from an incomplete consideration of the common law rules Female rights actually declined reaching their nadir in the eighteenth century Spring shows that there was a centuries-long conflict between male and female heirs a conflict that has not been adequately recognized until now
