Violence Against Women Joan Nordquist,1992 Sourcebook on Violence Against Women Claire M. Renzetti,Jeffrey L. Edleson,Raquel Kennedy Bergen,2011 Jonathan Letterman was an outpost medical officer serving in Indian country in the years before the Civil War responsible for the care of just hundreds of men But when he was appointed the chief medical officer for the Army of the Potomac he revolutionized combat medicine over the course of four major battles Antietam Fredericksburg Chancellorsville and Gettysburg that produced unprecedented numbers of casualties He made battlefield survival possible by creating the first organized ambulance corps and a more effective field hospital system He imposed medical professionalism on a chaotic battlefield Where before 20 percent of the men were unfit to fight because of disease squalid conditions and poor nutrition he improved health and combat readiness by pioneering hygiene and diet standards Based on original research and with stirring accounts of battle and the struggle to invent and supply adequate care during impossible conditions this new biography recounts Letterman s life from his small town Pennsylvania beginnings to his trailblazing wartime years and his subsequent life as a wildcatter and the medical examiner of San Francisco At last here is the missing portrait of a key figure of Civil War history and military medicine His principles of battlefield care continue to be taught to military commanders and first responders Freedom from Violence Margaret Schuler,1992

Family Crimes Against the Elderly Patricia J. Brownell,2014-01-14 First Published in 1999 Family Crimes Against the Elderly A Study of Elder Abuse and the New York Police Department represents an important contribution to the available

knowledge on elder abuse as a criminal justice issue While most studies of elder abuse to date have examined this social problem from a health mental health or social service perspective few have focused on it from the perspective of law enforcement Encyclopedia of Legal Information Sources Brian L. Baker,Patrick J. Petit,1993 Over 19 000 live print and electronic information sources for 460 legal topics are quickly accessible in this guide to the US legal system The work is arranged alphabetically by subject from actions and defences to noteworthy trials and users can see at a glance what printed materials are available what organizations are active in that subject and whether any databases or other electronic information sources are available Understanding Child Sexual Abuse A. Jones,2013-01-29 This book is the first comprehensive study of child sexual abuse in the Caribbean exploring issues such as the ontology of childhood links between slavery colonialism and present day gender based violence the impact of child sexual abuse on the brain and child protection after natural disasters Battering States Madelaine Adelman,2017-03-28 Battering States explores the most personal part of people s lives as they intersect with a uniquely complex state system The book examines how statecraft shapes domestic violence how a state defines itself and determines what counts as a family how a state establishes sovereignty and defends its borders and how a state organizes its legal system and forges its economy The ethnography includes stories from people places and perspectives not commonly incorporated in domestic violence studies and in doing so reveals the transformation of intimate partner violence from a predictable form of marital trouble to a publicly recognized social problem The politics of domestic violence create novel entry points to understanding how although women may be vulnerable to gender based violence they do not necessarily share the same kind of belonging to the state This means that markers of identity and power such as gender nationality ethnicity religion and religiosity and socio economic and geographic location matter when it comes to safety and pathways to justice The study centers on Israel where a number of factors bring connections between the cultural politics of the state and domestic violence into stark relief the presence of a contentious multinational and multiethnic population competing and overlapping sets of religious and civil laws a growing gap between the wealthy and the poor and the dominant presence of a security state in people s everyday lives The exact combination of these factors is unique to Israel but they are typical of states with a diverse population in a time of globalization In this way the example of Israel offers insights wherever the political and personal impinge on one another Lethal Violence Harold V. Hall,2024-11-01 Lethal Violence A Sourcebook on Fatal Domestic Acquaintance and Stranger Aggression applies the lethal violence sequence analysis to a wide ranging array of fatal aggression resulting in a multitude of observations and principles of violence This sourcebook provides base rate information and cases for each type of fatal interaction then applies the knowledge to violence related situations and settings Research Review ,2002
