Famine Social Crisis And Historical Change:

Famine David Arnold,1991-01-08 In this original and timely work David Arnold draws upon the history of Asia Africa Latin America and Europe to explain the origins and characteristics of famine He considers whether some societies are more vulnerable to famine than others and contests the assumption that those affected by famine are simply passive victims He compares the ways in which individuals and states have responded to the threat of mass starvation and the relation of famine to political and social power

Famine David Arnold,1988 Whose Hunger? Jenny Edkins,2000 We see famine and look for the likely causes poor food distribution unstable regimes caprices of weather A technical problem we tell ourselves one that modern social and natural science will someday resolve To the contrary Jenny Edkins responds in this book Famine in the contemporary world is not the antithesis of modernity but its symptom A critical investigation of hunger famine and aid practices in international politics Whose Hunger shows how the forms and ideas of modernity frame our understanding of famine and consequently shape our responses

The Soviet Famine of 1946-47 in Global and Historical Perspective N. Ganson,2009-04-27 This book illuminates a little known but tremendously significant twentieth century crisis in the Soviet Union Drawing on archival materials declassified since the fall of communism Nicholas Ganson situates the famine of 1946 47 at the crossroads of Soviet social and political history World War II the Cold War ideology and famine in the modern world He sheds light on the perspectives of Soviet elites and gives voice to the famine s victims In revealing the multi causality of the postwar hunger this ambitious work challenges the received wisdom about the relationship between politics and famine

Famine and Disease in Ireland, vol 1 Leslie Clarkson,E Margaret Crawford,2018-05-08 The Great Famine of 1845 9 remains the great climacteric in Irish history This title contains the first volume in a set of five of reprints of contemporary works relating to the Great Famine including writings on the medical conditions in Ireland at the time gathered from the Dublin Journal of Medical Science and similar publications

Famines in European Economic History Declan Curran,Lubomyr Luciuk,Andrew G. Newby,2015-04-24 This volume explores economic social and political dimensions of three catastrophic famines which struck mid nineteenth and early twentieth century Europe the Irish Famine An Gorta M r of 1845 1850 the Finnish Famine Suuret N lk vuodet of the 1860s and the Ukrainian Famine Holodomor of 1932 1933 In addition to providing new insights into these events on international national and regional scales this volume contributes to an increased comparative historiography in historical famine studies The parallel studies presented in this book challenge and enhance established understandings of famine tragedies including famine causation and culpability social and regional famine vulnerabilities core periphery relationships between nations and regions degrees of national autonomy and self sufficiency as well as famine memory and identity Famines in European Economic History advocates that the impact and long term consequences of famine for a nation should be understood in the context of evolving geopolitical relations that extend beyond its borders Furthermore regional structures within a nation can lead to unevenness in both the severity of the immediate famine crisis and the post famine recovery This book will be of interest to those in the fields of economic history European history and economic geography Famine Cormac Ó Gráda, 2021-06-08 Famine remains one of the worst calamities that can befall a society Mass starvation whether it is inflicted by drought or engineered by misguided or genocidal economic policies devastates families weakens the social fabric and undermines political stability Cormac Ó Gráda the acclaimed author who chronicled the tragic Irish famine in books like Black '47 and Beyond here traces the complete history of famine from the earliest records to today Combining powerful storytelling with the latest evidence from economics and history Ó Gráda explores the causes and profound consequences of famine over the past five millennia from ancient Egypt to the killing fields of 1970s Cambodia from the Great Famine of fourteenth century Europe to the famine in Niger in 2005 He enriches our understanding of the most crucial and far reaching aspects of famine including the roles that population pressure public policy and human agency play in causing famine how food markets can mitigate famine or make it worse famine's long term demographic consequences and the successes and failures of globalized disaster relief Ó Gráda demonstrates the central role famine has played in the economic and political histories of places as different as Ukraine under Stalin 1940s Bengal and Mao's China And he examines the prospects of a world free of famine This is the most comprehensive history of famine available and is required reading for anyone concerned with issues of economic development and world poverty The Stakes of Regulation Steven L. Kaplan, 2015-08-15 Scholars have long regarded Bread Politics and Political Economy in the Reign of Louis XV 1976 as marking an important moment in the study of the social political and cultural history of eighteenth century France The Stakes of Regulation is the companion volume to a new edition of this landmark study revealing how Kaplan's thinking has evolved in reaction both to the changing intellectual epistemological historiographical and socio political environment and to the significant scholarship that has been accomplished during the past forty years Kaplan remains faithful to his original premise that the subsistence question is at the core of eighteenth century history and that the issues joined by the struggle over liberalization continue to shape our destiny today through the bristling tension between liberty and equality and the debate over the necessity legitimacy and character of regulation Encountering Crises of the Mind, 2018-09-24 Mental health and madness have been challenging topics for historians The field has been marked by tension between the study of power expertise and institutional control of insanity and the study of patient experiences This collection contributes to the ongoing discussion on how historians encounter mental crises It deals with diagnoses treatments experiences and institutions largely outside the mainstream historiography of madness in what might be described as its peripheries and borderlands from medieval Europe to Cold War Hungary from the Atlantic slave coasts to Indian princely states and to the Nordic countries The chapters highlight many contests and multiple stakeholders involved in dealing with mental suffering and the importance of religion lay perceptions and emotions in crises of mind Contributors are Jari Eilola Waltraud Ernst Anssi Halmesvirta Markku Hokkanen Kalle

Kananoja Tuomas Laine Frigr n Susanna Niiranen Anu Rissanen Kirsi Tuohela and Jesper Vaczy Kragh Cultural Politics of Hygiene in India, 1890-1940 Srirupa Prasad,2015-09-08 This book examines genealogies of contagion in between contagion as microbe and contagion as affect It analyzes how and why hygiene became authoritative and succeeded in becoming a part of the broader social and cultural vocabulary within the colonialist anti colonial as well as modernist discourses

Alimentary Tracts Parama Roy,2010-11-08 Examines the cultural politics and poetics of appetite and food in post colonial South Asia Green Imperialism Richard H. Grove,1996-03-29 The first book to document the origins and early history of environmentalism especially its colonial and global aspects Anglophone Indian Women Writers, 1870-1920 Ellen Brinks,2016-04-15 The result of extensive archival recovery work Ellen Brinks s study fills a significant gap in our understanding of women s literary history of the South Asian subcontinent under colonialism and of Indian women s contributions and responses to developing cultural and political nationalism As Brinks shows the invisibility of Anglophone Indian women writers cannot be explained simply as a matter of colonial marginalization or as a function of dominant theoretical approaches that reduce Indian women to the status of figures or tropes The received narrative that British imperialism in India was perpetuated with little cultural contact between the colonizers and the colonized population is complicated by writers such as Toru Dutt Krupabai Satthianadhan Pandita Ramabai Cornelia Sorabji and Sarojini Naidu All five women found large audiences for their literary works in India and in Great Britain and all five were also deeply rooted in and connected to both South Asian and Western cultures Their works created new zones of cultural contact and exchange that challenge postcolonial theory s tendencies towards abstract notions of the colonized women as passive and of English as a de facto instrument of cultural domination Brinks s close readings of these texts suggest new ways of reading a range of issues central to postcolonial studies the relationship of colonized women to the metropolitan literary culture Indian and English women s separate and joint engagements in reformist and nationalist struggles the translatability of culture the articulation strategies and complex negotiations of self identification of Anglophone Indian women writers and the significance and place of cultural difference Environment, Health and History V. Berridge,M. Gorsky,2011-12-02 The environment is currently a matter of international public and academic concern but is often considered separately from health issues This book brings together work from environmental and health historians to conceptualise the connection between environment and health at different times and in different geographical locations Asian Population History Ts'ui-jung Liu,James Lee,David Sven Reher,Osamu Saito,Wang Feng,2001-05-10 The study of Asian historical demography has lagged behind that of its European and American counterparts for some time This volume serves to narrow the gap by drawing together material from scholars specializing in demography across the spectrum of Asian countries The collection divides into four parts and contains nineteen chapters covering issues on comparative perspective fertility disease and mortality and marriage and family The geographic coverage of the chapters is also wide extending from East Asia to South

Asia with specific emphasis on Japan China Taiwan Indonesia India and Sri Lanka Authors focus on a whole range of social groups discussing how demographic issues affect and have affected both urban and rural dwellers from the seventeenth to the twentieth century This volume which is perhaps the first to bring together a number of in depth specialist studies on Asian population history should prove a useful and engaging tool for both students and academics in the fields of demography history and Asian studies

Finland's Great Famine, 1856-68 Andrew G. Newby, 2023-05-17 This book will provide a thematic overview of one of European history's most devastating famines the Great Finnish Famine of the 1860s In 1868 the nadir of several years of worsening economic conditions 137 000 people approximately 8% of the Finnish population perished as the result of hunger and disease The attitudes and policies enacted by Finland's devolved administration tended to follow European norms and therefore were often similar to the colonial practices seen in other famines at the time What is distinctive about this catastrophe in a mid nineteenth century context is that despite Finland being a part of the Russian Empire it was largely responsible for its own governance and indeed was developing its economic political and cultural autonomy at the time of the famine Finland's Great Famine 1856 68 examines key themes such as the use of emergency foods domestic and overseas charity vagrancy and crime emergency relief works and emigration
