Famines And Relief Administration A Case Study Of Coastal Andhra 18581901:

Famines and Relief Administration N. Neelakanteswara Rao,1997 Late Victorian Holocausts Mike Davis,2002-06-17 This global environmental and political history will redefine the way we think about the European colonial project Observer sets the triumph of the late 19th century Western imperialism in the context of catastrophic El Niño weather patterns at that time groundbreaking mind stretching The Independent Examining a series of El Niño induced droughts and the famines that they spawned around the globe in the last third of the 19th century Mike Davis discloses the intimate baleful relationship between imperial arrogance and natural incident that combined to produce some of the worst tragedies in human history Late Victorian Holocausts focuses on three zones of drought and subsequent famine India Northern China and Northeastern Brazil All were affected by the same global climatic factors that caused massive crop failures and all experienced brutal famines that decimated local populations But the effects of drought were magnified in each case because of singularly destructive policies promulgated by different ruling elites Davis argues that the seeds of underdevelopment in what later became known as the Third World were sown in this era of High Imperialism as the price for capitalist modernization was paid in the currency of millions of peasants lives Hunger James Vernon,2007-11-30 This book draws together social cultural and political history to show us how we came to have a moral political and social responsibility toward the hungry Vernon forcefully reminds us how many perished from hunger in the empire and reveals how their history was intricately connected with the precarious achievements of Britain's welfare state Tensions of Social History Alessandro Stanziani,2022-12-15 This book seeks to overcome the tension between western and non western categories and tools in the study of global history showing how most western approaches to the social sciences and history have developed through transnational and colonial interactions Offering a transnational and global history of the main tools we have to understand the word and its transformations over the last three centuries Tensions of Social History explores the construction of archives and historical memory the making of statistics and their use in politics the identification of social actors and the emergence of key social theories Providing key insights into how to write history and develop social sciences in the global era while avoiding eurocentrism and cultural exceptionalism this ambitious book shows how global history is made of encounters rather than confrontations between civilizations Indian Books in Print ,2003 Los holocaustos de la Era Victoriana tardía Mike Davis,2006 Mike Davis examina una serie de sequías inducidas por el fenómeno El Niño y las hambrunas que estas provocaron por todo el globo terraqueo en el último tercio del siglo XIX Davis revela que hubo una relación íntima y funesta entre la arrogancia imperial y los fenómenos naturales que causó varias de las peores tragedias de la historia de la humanidad y plantó las semillas del subdesarrollo en lo que después se ha llamado el Tercer Mundo Davis nos ha dado un libro muy relevante para el período contemporáneo y de gran interés histórico Amartya Sen Una crónica magistral de la historia climática económica y colonial New Scientist Muchas generaciones de historiadores han ignorado en gran medida las implicaciones de las grandes hambrunas de finales del siglo XIX y hasta hace poco las desestimaban por considerarlas accidentes climáticos. Los holocaustos de la era victoriana también les muestra cuán equivocados estaban. Mejor libro del año 2001 del Los Angeles Times. Davis, un investigador brillante e independiente, sitúa el triunfo del imperialismo occidental de finales del siglo XIX en el contexto de los catastróficos patrones climáticos de El Niño de la época. Es completamente innovador y ensancha nuestras fronteras mentales. The Independent Convince e informa ampliamente un logro extraordinario. The Times Literary Supplement

Seasons of Hunger Stephen Devereux, Bapu Vaitla, Samuel Hauenstein Swan, 2008-09-20 Every year millions of the rural poor suffer from predictable and preventable seasonal hunger. This hunger is less dramatic but no less damaging than the starvation associated with famines, wars and natural disasters. Seasons of Hunger explores why the world does not react to a crisis that we know will continue year after year. Seasonal hunger is caused by annual cycles of shrinking food stocks, rising prices and lack of income. This hidden hunger pushes millions of children to the brink of starvation every year, permanently stunting their physical and cognitive development, weakening their immune systems and opening the door for killer diseases. Action Against Hunger argues that ending seasonal hunger could save millions of young lives and is key to achieving the Millennium Development Goals. This book documents seasonal hunger in four countries: India, Malawi, Mali and Myanmar, including personal stories and country-wide data which shows the magnitude of the problem. The authors also find encouraging examples of interventions designed to address seasonality, initiatives led by governments, donors and NGOs, and poor people themselves, and propose a package of advocacy messages that could contribute to the global eradication of seasonal hunger. This book will be a valuable resource for journalists, policy makers, NGO members and students of development studies.
