The Fallacy of the Silver Age in Twentieth-century Russian Literature Omry Ronen,1997 First Published in 2004
Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company The Fallacy Of The Silver Age Omry Ronen,2013-10-31
First Published in 2004 In this original study Omry Ronen critically examines the term Silver Age which over the years has gained such wide currency among historians and connoisseurs of twentieth century Russian culture His latest research deals with metahistorical and metaliterary value of influential poetic locutions such as the image of Russia as the sphinx or the concept of the Silver Age in Russian cultural history Image and Concept Olga Freidenberg,2006-03-07 First published in 1997 Image and Concept Mythopoetic Roots of Literature here finally available in English is devoted to the origins of Greek tragedy In it Freidenberg develops the notion that it was the very transition from thinking based on mythological images to the kind of thinking that makes use of formal logical concepts that resulted in the appearance of literature With the transition from mythological thinking to conceptual thought the content of mythological images became the texture of the new concepts The inherited mythological forms now were reinterpreted conceptually causalized ethicized generalized abstracted This reinterpretation in turn brought about poetic figurality Folkloric material began to be differentiated from the mythological images of the past into various disciplines such as religion philosophy ethics literature and art Yet differentiated and reinterpreted as it was the folkloric material remained formally preserved in poetic image structure and plot Gender and Sexuality in Russian Civilization Peter I. Barta,2001 Considers gender and sexuality in Russia in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Chapters examine gender and sexuality through history art folklore philosophy or literature and are also grouped according to the arguments they develop Gender and Sexuality in Russian Civilisation Peter I. Barta,2013-06-17 Gender and Sexuality in Russian Civilisation considers gender and sexuality in modern Russia in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Chapters look individually at gender and sexuality through history art folklore philosophy or literature but are also arranged into sections according to the arguments they develop A number of chapters also consider Russia in the Soviet and post Soviet periods Thematic sections include Gender and Power Gender and National Identity Sexual Identity and Artistic Impression Literary Discourse of Male and Female Sexualities Sexuality and Literature in Contemporary Russian Society Funeral Games in Honor of Arthur Vincent Lourié Klara Moricz,Simon Morrison,2014-05-08 Funeral Games in Honor of Arthur Vincent Louri explores the varied aesthetic impulses and ever evolving personal motivations of Russian composer Arthur Louri A St Petersburg native allied with the Futurist movement and profoundly sympathetic to Silver Age decadence Louri was swept away by the Revolution he surfaced as a Communist commissar of music before landing in Europe and America where his career foundered Making his way by serving others he became Stravinsky's right hand man Serge Koussevitsky's ghostwriter and philosopher Jacques Maritain's muse Louri left his mark on the poems of Anna Akhmatova on the neoclassical aesthetics of Stravinsky on Eurasianism and on Maritain's

NeoThomist musings about music Louri serves as a flawless lens through which aspects of Silver Age Russia early Bolshevik rule and the cultural space of exile come into sharper focus But this interdisciplinary collection of essays edited by musicologists Klara Mricz and Simon Morrison also looks at Louri himself as an artist and intellectual in his own right Much of the aesthetic and technical discussion concerns his grandly eulogistic opera The Blackamoor of Peter the Great understood as both a belated Symbolist work and as a NeoThomist exercise Despite the importance Louri attached to the opera as his masterwork Blackamoor has never been performed its fate thus serving as an emblem of Louri's own Yet even if Louri seems to have been destined to be but a footnote in the pages of music history he looms large in studies of emigration and cultural memory Here Louri's life like his last opera is presented as a meditation on the circumstances and psychology of exile Ultimately these essays recover a lost realm of musical and aesthetic possibilities a Russia that Louri and the world saw disappear

Literature Redeemed Nicolas Dreyer,2020-07-13 In the post Soviet period discussions of postmodernism in Russian literature have proliferated Based on close literary analysis of representative works of fiction by three post Soviet Russian writers Vladimir Sorokin Vladimir Tuchkov and Aleksandr Khurgin this book investigates the usefulness and accuracy of the notion of postmodernism in the post Soviet context Classic Russian literature renowned for its pursuit of aesthetic moral and social values and the modernism that succeeded it have often been seen as antipodes to postmodernist principles The author wishes to dispute this polarity and proposes post Soviet neo modernism as an alternative concept Neo modernism embodies the notion that post Soviet writers have redeemed the tendency of earlier literature to seek the meaning of human existence in a transcendent realm as well as in the treasures of Russia's cultural past

Literature,1996 In this study Ronen critically examines the term Silver Age which over the years has gained such wide currency among historians and connoisseurs of 20th century Russian culture The author traces the origin and the controversial development of what he condemns as an influential misnomer Ronen sets out to debunk the myth that attributes invention of the term to Nikolai Berdiaev and in turn traces this widely used catchword in the critical idiom from an obscure avant-garde manifesto to the present day He lays to rest the use of the term which he sees as the most misleading constituent of Russia's contemporary cultural self awareness and self assessment
