Frederic Louis Meyer

Falling Out Of Cars:

Falling Out of Cars Jeff Noon, 2013 IN A WORLD OVERFLOWING WITH IMAGES HOW CAN YOU TELL WHO YOU REALLY ARE Marlene Moore wasn't even sure why she accepted the job except that it gave her the chance to just get in her car and drive To escape from grief to keep moving to maybe find a destination for herself Now she's journeying around England a land that turns stranger and more dreamlike the further she travels Along the way she picks up various passengers each as lost as she is each on the run from troubles of their own Slowly day by day Marlene is falling prey to a sickness a disease that seems to change the world around her Only by recording her feelings in a notebook can she keep track of her life But now even her notebook seems to be turning against her And the job that started Marlene on this journey turns out to be far weirder and more dangerous than she ever imagined WHERE DO YOU COME FROM AND WHERE ARE YOU GOING A Road novel for the twenty first century Falling Out of Cars explores a country and a psyche falling off the edge of reality

The Literature of Exclusion Andrew C. Wenaus, 2021-05-05 In the early twentieth century the Dadaists protested against art nationalism the individual subject and technologized war With their automatic anti art and cultural disruptiveness Dadaists sought to signify no thing Today data also operates autonomously However rather than dismantling tradition data organizes selects combines quantifies and simplifies the complexity of actuality Like Dada data also signifies nothing While Dadaists protest with purpose data proceeds without intention The individual in the early twentieth century agonizes over the alienation from daily life and the fear of being converted into a cog in a machine Today however the individual in twenty first century supermodernity merges not with large industrial machinery but with the processual and procedural logic of programming with innocuous ease Both exclude human agency from self narration but to differing degrees of abstraction Examining the work of B R Yeager Samuel Beckett Jeff Noon Kenji Siratori Mike Bonsall Allison Parrish and narratives written by artificial intelligence Wenaus considers the threshold of sensible narration and the effects that the shift from a culture of language to a culture of digital code has on lived experience While data offers a closed system Dadaist literature of exclusion he suggests promises a future of open hyper contingent unprescribed alternatives for self narration
