Falsche Bewegung:

Intertextualität als ethische Dimension Thomas Hennig, 1996 Wim Wenders Olivier Delers, Martin Sulzer-Reichel, 2020-01-23 Wim Wenders Making Films That Matter is the first book in 15 years to take a comprehensive look at Wim Wenders's extensive filmography. In addition to offering new insights into his cult masterpieces, the 10 essays in this volume highlight the thematic and aesthetic continuities between his early films and his latest productions. Wenders's films have much to contribute to current conversations on intermediality, whether it be through his adaptations of important literary works or his filmic reinventions of famous paintings by Edward Hopper or Andrew Wyeth. Wenders has also positioned himself as a decidedly transnational and translingual filmmaker, taking on the challenge of representing peripheral spaces without falling into the trap of a neo-colonial gaze. Making Films That Matter argues that Wenders remains a true innovator in both his experiments in 3D filmmaking and his attempts to define a visual poetics of peace. Mach dich locker! Rainer Werner Fassbinder declared aligning himself with the protagonist of his widely seen television adaptation of Berlin Alexanderplatz. The statement provoked an unprecedented national debate about what constituted an acceptable German artist and who has the power to determine art. More than any recent German director, Fassbinder embodied this debate, and Jane Shattuc shows us how much this can tell us not just about the man and his work but also about the state of culture in Germany. It is fascinating in itself that Fassbinder, a highly controversial public figure. Psychological Papers, 1893 Deleuze and Cinema Felicity Colman, 2011-06-01 Gilles Deleuze published two radical books on film: Cinema 1: The Movement Image and Cinema 2: The Time Image. Engaging with a wide range of film styles, histories, and theories, Deleuze's writings treat film as a new form of philosophy. This cinema philosophy offers a startling new way of understanding the complexities of the moving image, its technical concerns and constraints as well as its psychological and political outcomes. Deleuze and Cinema presents a step-by-step guide to the key concepts behind Deleuze's revolutionary theory of the cinema. Exploring ideas through key directors and genres, Deleuze's method is illustrated with examples drawn from American, British, continental European, Russian, and Asian cinema. Deleuze and Cinema provides the first introductory guide to Deleuze's radical methodology for screen analysis. It will be invaluable for students and teachers of Film, Media, and Philosophy. Das Szenenbild Im Film Heidi Lüdi, Toni Lüdi, 2000 This book uses familiar films and television series to portray the complex process leading to the design of film sets. It goes into detail over the pros and cons of filming on location or in the studio, takes a look at the problems of historical and contemporary settings, and clears up the linguistic muddle of names for particular jobs that has grown up as a result of different film production developments in Europe and America This illustrated volume is a must for everyone involved in film and also for everyone interested in the art film Swiss designers Heidi and Toni Ludi have designed countless film sets since studying art in London and Munich including such famous examples as The Magic Mountain Edith's Diary Wings of Desire The Bear Lindenstrasse and Die zweite Heimat Both are actively committed to their profession they pass their experience on to the younger generation in frequent lectures and seminars in Toni Ludi's case since 1989 as professor at the Fachhochschule Rosenheim BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved , Politics of the Self Richard W.

McCormick,2014-07-14 Richard McCormick examines the concepts of postmodernity and postmodernism as they apply to West Germany discussing them against the background of cultural and political upheaval in that country since the 1960s rather than exclusively in the more familiar setting of intellectual history Considering six literary and cinematic texts that are marked by a preoccupation with the self and subjectivity he underscores the crucial influence of feminism on writers and filmmakers and on the postmodern In a broad international context he describes the conflicting forces that affected the West German student movement the rationalistic tradition of the Weimar Left and more irrational influences such as French existentialism and surrealism as well as the American Beat movement and rock roll and shows how these forces played themselves out so that dogmatic Marxist Leninism was repudiated in favor of a New Subjectivity At the center of the discussion are the novels Lenz by Peter Schneider Class Love Klassenliebe by Karin Struck and Devotion by Botho Strauss and the films Wrong Move written by Peter Handke and directed by Wim Wenders Germany Pale Mother by Helma Sanders Brahm and The Subjective Factor by Helke Sander The author shows how ongoing attempts to attack the separation of emotion from reason life from art the private from the public and the personal from the political brought about changes in outlook from the 1960s to the early 1980s that are related to the rise of new political movements ecology nuclear disarmament and feminism Originally published in 1991 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Mignon's Afterlives

Terence Cave,2011-09-22 Terence Cave traces the afterlives of Mignon an apparently minor character in Goethe's novel Wilhelm Meisters Lehrjahre through the European cultures of the 19th and 20th centuries The enigmatic and fascinating Mignon reappears in wide range of different works mainly narrative fiction but also poetry song opera and film The History of German Literature on Film Christiane Schönfeld,2023-06-15 A 2024 CHOICE OUTSTANDING ACADEMIC TITLE This book tells the story of German language literature on film beginning with pioneering motion picture adaptations of Faust in 1897 and early debates focused on high art as mass culture It explores analyzes and contextualizes the so called golden age of silent cinema in the 1920s the impact of sound on adaptation practices the abuse of literary heritage by Nazi filmmakers and traces the role of German language literature in exile and postwar films across ideological boundaries in divided Germany in New German Cinema and in remakes and movies for cinema as well as television and streaming services in the 21st century Having provided the narrative core to thousands of films since the late 19th century many of German cinema s most influential masterpieces were inspired by canonical texts popular plays and even children s literature Not being restricted to German adaptations however this book also traces the role of literature originally written in German in international film productions which sheds light on the interrelation between cinema and key historical events It outlines how processes of adaptation are shaped by global catastrophes and the emergence of nations by materialist conditions liberal economies and capitalist imperatives political agendas the mobility of individuals and sometimes by the desire to create reflective surfaces and perhaps even art Commercial cinema s adaptation practices have foregrounded economic interest but numerous filmmakers throughout cinema history have turned to German language literature not simply to entertain but as a creative contribution to the public sphere marking adaptation practice at least potentially as a form of active citizenship
