Familiar Stranger:

The Familiar Stranger Christina Berry, 2009-08-25 Craig Littleton's decision to end his marriage would shock his wife Denise if she only knew what he was up to. When an accident lands Craig in the ICU with fuzzy memories of his own life and plans, Denise rushes to his side ready to care for him. They embark on a quest to help Craig remember who he is and in the process they discover dark secrets. An affair. An emptied bank account. A hidden identity. An illegitimate child. But what will she do when she realizes he's not the man she thought he was? Is this trauma a blessing in disguise, a chance for a fresh start? Or will his secrets destroy the life they built together.

Tourist Behaviour Philip L. Pearce, 2005-09-27 Tourism is an inherently social phenomenon. Tourists travel with others and experience places and cultures through interacting with both familiar and unfamiliar others. This volume presents a thorough tour of the social psychological processes which underpin contemporary travel. The fascinating phenomenon of tourist behaviour deals with topics such as motivation, destination choice, travellers on site, experiences, satisfaction and learning. This book uses an array of developing and recently constructed conceptual frameworks to both synthesise what is established and to create new insights and directions for further analysis and ultimately management action.

Leadershift Emmanuel Gobillot, 2011-05-03 Leadershift is about adapting and changing traditional models of leadership in response to the influence of mass collaboration. Mass collaboration is a form of collective action which occurs when large numbers of people work independently on a single project, exemplified by websites such as YouTube, Facebook and Second Life. As the traditional models of working are radically altered, those in leadership roles need to understand their place in this new hierarchy and how to respond. Mass collaboration requires a form of leadership that is prepared to let go of the experience, expertise and control it holds precious and be able to see mass participation as an opportunity to create value rather than a threat to its existence.

Lonely at the Top Thomas Joiner, 2011-10-25 Men appear to enjoy many advantages in society on average they make more money have more power and enjoy a greater degree of social freedom than women But many men pay a high price for the pursuit of success and power Taking family and friends for granted men will often let relationships take a back seat to their professional ambitions only to ultimately find themselves with few real friends they can rely on in hard times As a result they turn to affairs alcohol and other self destructive behaviors Sadly millions of men suffer untreated depression In this groundbreaking and provocative book award winning clinical psychologist Thomas Joiner makes an impassioned call for society to recognize the harmful effects that solitude can have on men Drawing on original research done for the National Institute of Mental Health he focuses on the particular situations that leave men rudderless He offers advice on support systems that are most useful to men and he offers prescriptive advice on how men can improve their lives The Many Worlds of Anglophone Literature Silvia Anastasijevic, Magdalena Pfalzgraf, Hanna Teichler, 2024-01-11 On what terms and concepts can we ground the comparative study of Anglophone literatures and cultures around the world today What if anything unites the novels of Witi Ihimaera the speculative fiction of Nnedi Okorafor the life writings by Stuart Hall and the emerging Anglophone Arab literature by writers like Omar Robert Hamilton This volume explores the globality of Anglophone fiction both as a conceptual framing and as a literary imaginary It highlights the diversity of lives and worlds represented in Anglophone writing as well as the diverse imaginations of transnational connections articulated in it Featuring a variety of internationally renowned scholars this book thinks through Anglophone literature not as a problematic legacy of colonial rule or as exoticizing commodity in a global literary marketplace but examines it as an inherently transcultural literary medium Contributors provide new insights into how it facilitates the articulation of divergent experiences of modernity and the critique of hierarchies and inequalities within among and beyond post colonial societies The Man Who Shocked The World Thomas Blass, 2009-02-24 The creator of the famous Obedience Experiments carried out at Yale in the 1960s and originator of the six degrees of separation concept Stanley Milgram was one of the most innovative scientists of our time In this sparkling biography the first in depth portrait of Milgram Thomas Blass captures the colorful personality and pioneering work of a social psychologist who profoundly altered the way we think about human nature Born in the Bronx in 1933 Stanley Milgram was the son of Eastern European Jews and his powerful Obedience Experiments had obvious intellectual roots in the Holocaust The experiments which confirmed that normal people would readily inflict pain on innocent victims at the behest of an authority figure generated a firestorm of public interest and outrage proving as they did that moral beliefs were far more malleable than previously thought But Milgram also explored other aspects of social psychology from information overload to television violence to the notion that we live in a small world Although he died suddenly at the height of his career his work continues to shape the way we live and think today Blass offers a brilliant portrait of an eccentric visionary scientist who revealed the hidden workings of our very social world The Deepest Dye Aisha Khan, 2021-07-13 How colonial categories of race and religion together created identities and hierarchies that today are vehicles for multicultural nationalism and social critique in the Caribbean and its diasporas When the British Empire abolished slavery Caribbean sugar plantation owners faced a labor shortage To solve the problem they imported indentured coolie laborers Hindus and a minority Muslim population from the Indian subcontinent Indentureship continued from 1838 until its official end in 1917 The Deepest Dye begins on post emancipation plantations in the West Indies where Europeans Indians and Africans intermingled for work and worship and ranges to present day England North America and Trinidad where colonial era legacies endure in identities and hierarchies that still shape the post independence Caribbean and its contemporary diasporas Aisha Khan focuses on the contested religious practices of obeah and Hosay which are racialized as African and Indian despite the diversity of their participants Obeah a catch all Caribbean term for sub Saharan healing and divination traditions was associated in colonial society with magic slave insurrection and fraud This led to anti obeah laws some of which still remain in place Hosay developed in the West Indies from Indian commemorations of the Islamic mourning ritual of Muharram Although it received certain legal protections Hosay s mass gatherings processions and mock battles provoked fears of economic disruption and labor unrest that lead to criminalization by colonial powers The proper observance of Hosay was debated among some historical Muslim communities and continues to be debated now In a nuanced study of these two practices Aisha Khan sheds light on power dynamics through religious and racial identities formed in the context of colonialism in the Atlantic world and shows how today these identities reiterate inequalities as well as reinforce demands for justice and recognition Colonized by Humanity Rob Waters,2023-09-05

Colonization through a process of affection wrote the London based Barbadian novelist George Lamming in 1960 was the worst form of colonization Lamming s London was marked by the violent currents of racism some seen many disavowed But the operations of race the putting in place of its hierarchies the destructions of the self that its logics entailed exceeded only expressions of violence and hatred It was in affection too that colonialism s racial visions operated It was not only among the illiberals but among the liberals that colonization continued its hold on metropolitan culture This was colonization as Lamming would also put it by humanity Colonized by Humanity is a study of racial liberalism at the end of empire It uncovers the projects to cultivate racial integration developed in the two decades between the arrival of the Empire Windrush and the passage of the first Race Relations Act These were the years that integrationism took hold as a social phenomenon its reflexes lodged deep in an English culture that took the idea of tolerance as its watchword It was a culture that re inscribed race even as it aimed at overcoming its discriminations Caribbean London is at the heart of this story It was in the capital that integration projects multiplied fastest and it was the multicultural capital that provided integrationism s imaginative geographies Viewing integrationism through the eyes of Caribbean Londoners Colonized by Humanity allows us to see it as they did with its colonial and racial dynamics up close Next Generation of Data Mining Hillol Kargupta,Jiawei Han,Philip S. Yu,Rajeev Motwani,Vipin Kumar,2008-12-24 Drawn from the US National Science Foundation s Symposium on Next Generation of Data Mining and Cyber Enabled Discovery for Innovation NGDM 07 Next Generation of Data Mining explores emerging technologies and applications in data mining as well as potential challenges faced by the field Gathering perspectives from top experts across different di Tensions in Diversity Felicity Hwee-Hwa Chan,2022-11-01 Urban landscapes are complex spaces of sociocultural diversity characterized by narratives of both conviviality and conflict As people with multiple ethnicities and nationalities find their common destinies in thriving globalizing cities social cohesiveness becomes more precarious as different beliefs practices ambitions values and affiliations intersect in close proximity producing social tensions Tensions in Diversity presents a multi method comparative study that draws on the experiences of 140 residents of native and immigrant origin community organizers and municipal officers in three culturally diverse neighbourhoods of varying income levels in Los Angeles County Using cognitive mapping analysis combined with data from interviews surveys and participant observation this book explores how exactly coexistence is socio spatially experienced and negotiated in daily life Tensions in Diversity identifies the planning and design considerations that enable intercultural learning in the public places within diverse cities In doing so this book foregrounds urban space as an active force in shaping coexistence and convivial public environments

Diversities Old and New S. Vertovec, 2015-03-23 Diversities Old and New provides comparative analyses of new urban patterns that arise under conditions of rapid migration driven diversification including transformations of social categories social relations and public spaces Ethnographic findings in neighbourhoods of New York Singapore and Johannesburg are presented

Revisiting Value Co-creation and Co-destruction in Tourism Elina (Eleni) Michopoulou, Nikolaos Pappas, Elena Cavagnaro, 2021-12-19 This book assists the better understanding of value co creation and co destruction in tourism development by bringing together different perspectives and disciplines It provides some examples of how value can be co created or co destroyed within the context of tourism Tourism is susceptible to uncertainty and incidents that can directly impact the supply and demand of its discretionary products and services Consensus has been reached among practitioners and academics that consumer experience is more important than ever for enterprises as well as destinations as the sector has become globalized reached maturity and become highly competitive Still the pathway to success or failure lies within the overall satisfaction of visitors and tourists which heavily depends on perceived value a concept that can be co created or co destroyed by the very interaction between all social actors and stakeholders involved Value creation or destruction is critical not just for traditional supply and demand but also for an array of actors across value and distribution chains including for example staff and intermediaries across the networks The book will be of great value to scholars students and policymakers interested in tourism studies and practices and service management as well as professionals in the field of tourism management The chapters were originally published as a special issue of the journal Tourism Planning Development

Social Trust and Human Communities Trudy Govier, 1997 Govier offers a general account of trust in a variety of social contexts and explores the negative effects of distrust on society For example she examines the role of trust in relationships between doctors and patients and between politicians and constituents With well chosen examples ranging from the Oka crisis to Meech Lake Govier points out that distrust in politics has been especially prevalent and while it may be well founded can have pernicious effects Social Trust and Human Communities will be of great interest to students and scholars in the areas of applied ethics social theory and politics
