Bookman's Manual Bessie Graham,1921 The Bookman's Manual Bessie Graham,1924 Quotology Willis Goth Regier,2010-10-01 Erasmus advised readers to learn quotations by heart and copy them everywhere write them in the front and back of books inscribe them on rings and cups paint them on doors and walls even on the glass of a window Emerson noted that in Europe every church is a kind of book or bible so covered is it with inscriptions and pictures In Arabic script as tall as a man the Koran is quoted on the walls and domes of mosques We quote to admire provoke commemorate dispute play and inspire Quotations signal class club clique and alma mater They animate wit relay prophecies guide meditation and accessorize fashion In Quotology Willis Goth Regier draws on world literature and contemporary events to show how vital quotations are how they are collected and organized and how deceptive they can be He probes all these aspects identifying fifty nine types of quotations including misquotations and anonymous sayings Following the logic of quotology Quotology concludes with famous last words Classified List Princeton University. This innovative guidebook presents a systematic in depth account of using corpora in sociolinguistics. It introduces and expands the application of corpora and corpus approaches and tools in sociolinguistic research, surveys the growing number of studies in corpus based sociolinguistics and provides instructions and options for designing and developing corpus based studies. Readers will find practical information on such contemporary topics as workplace registers, megacorpora and using the web as a corpus. Vignettes, case studies, discussion questions and activities throughout further enhance students' involvement with the material and provide opportunities for hands on practice of the methods discussed. Corpus Based Sociolinguistics is a comprehensive and accessible guide, a must read for any student or scholar interested in exploring this popular and promising approach to sociolinguistic research.

Writers of the American Renaissance Denise Knight, 2003-12-30 The American literary canon has undergone revision and expansion in recent years and our notions of the 19th century renaissance have been reevaluated. Mainstream anthologies have been revised to reflect the expanding literary canon yet resources for readers have remained widely scattered. This book expands earlier definitions of the 19th century American Renaissance as represented by canonical writers such as Emerson and Poe, covering writers who published popular fiction and dominated the literary marketplace of the day. Included is generous coverage of women writers and writers of color. The volume provides alphabetically arranged entries for more than 70 writers of the period including Louisa May Alcott, Emily Dickinson, Frederick Douglass, Margaret Fuller, Nathaniel Hawthorne, Herman Melville, Harriet Beecher Stowe, Henry David Thoreau, Walt Whitman and many more. Each entry was written by an expert contributor and includes a brief biography, a discussion of major works and themes, a survey of the writer's critical reception and primary and secondary bibliographies Guide to the Study and Use of Reference Books, 1917 River of Life Marilyn J.
