Family Affair When School Troubles Come Home:

A Family Affair Curt Dudley-Marling, 2000 Drawing on a series of interviews with parents A Family Affair provides an insider's view of what happens at home when school goes wrong Resources in Education, 2001-10 Transforming Troubled Lives John Visser, 2015-02-24 All cultures have children and young people whose emotional wellbeing requires attention and whose behaviours give them their peers and those who care for them challenges in how to meet their needs Developing good practice across work with children and young people with social emotional and behavioural difficulties relies on both professional practice and theory The chapters in this book are taken from those presented at the International Conference organised by SEBDA in 2010 around the theme Transforming Troubled Lives with each contributor addressing issues of policy practice or provision whilst exploring an essential question is what we are doing effective This critical reflective question is essential if interventions be they in provision policy or practice are to lead to positive outcomes for the children and young people concerned This book was originally published as a special issue of Emotional and Behavioural Difficulties A Family Affair Shanay M Piggee, 2018-05-16 In life there is a beginning middle and an end We never know what comes lurking behind closed doors The people you grow up with are no longer the same The person you call brother is not the person you looked up to This emotionally charged crime drama novel will take you on twists and turns as it is the prequel to I Love You The Cheyenne Thompson Chronicle It takes a deep dark twist in the life of her family prior to her and how they all learned to survive in a new world filled with hate and compromise At the end they all learn that family is an essential part of life Or is it From Exclusivity to Exclusion: The LD Experience of Privileged Parents Chris Hale, 2011-11-12 What is lived experience at the intersection of privilege and disability More specifically what are the experiences of privileged parents of a child with disability How does their child's disability impact their efforts to reproduce their advantage These and other questions inspired the research on which this book is based The plight of poor and marginalized parents of children with disabilities has received considerable scholarly attention yet the experiences of their counterparts at the opposite end of the socioeconomic spectrum have garnered scant notice For parents at the bottom rung of society their child's disability becomes yet another compounding marker of oppression For parents of means and influence disability represents an ontological contradiction While they are oppressors in that they reap the benefits of inequitable and oppressive social structures they are also oppressed by ableism and other systems of societal bias The product of an ethnographic case study this book trains a phenomenological lens on the lived experience of this contradiction The participants in this research are privileged urban parents of a 14 year old boy with dyslexia Their account of the struggles they faced over the three years their son spent in a mainstream private school is the focus of analysis and discussion Despite their efforts including lavish expenditures of economic and cultural capital the school community's responses to the child's disability and subsequent academic failure resulted in iterated enactments of symbolic and physical segregation and eventual banishment Their son's dyslexia threatened the collective investment in normality his academic failure threatened the underlying assumptions of schooling and his parents advocacy challenged the symbolic authority of school professionals

Crossing Literacy Bridges Jennifer Tuten, Deborah Ann Jensen, Charlene Klassen Endrizzi, 2018-09-30 It has been well established that schools and families must work together to ensure academic and literacy success for all children Educators understand the importance of creating a learning connection between families and schools Families provide teachers with increased knowledge of students Teachers also recognize the importance of building on the learning events occurring in students homes and communities However in practice partnerships are not easily established Often teachers are not prepared to effectively reach out to families nor are families and schools prepared to effectively work together There are many constraints in forming home school partnerships and the added challenges of creating partnerships with families of children struggling with literacy development are even more difficult Often teachers and families find themselves on opposite sides facing similar challenges looking for a way to connect Families of children struggling to acquire literacy skills are often faced with many challenges other families never experience For teachers trying to reach out to these families and form partnerships is equally challenging Bridges enable connections to be made between people and ideas and allow passage from one side to another This book describes five principles to guide teachers in working with families of struggling readers With examples from the field tools to put into practice and extensive resources lists teachers will expand their understanding of family engagement This book is an important resource for pre service and in service teachers who are eager to engage more sensitively and effectively with families particularly those whose children have struggled with literacy
