Family, Political Economy, and Demographic Change David I. Kertzer, Dennis P. Hogan, 1989 Family Political Economy and Demographic Change represents an unprecedented interdisciplinary effort to discover how changes in family life and demographic behavior actually occurred in this crucial period and how people s lives were affected The book takes issue with a number of the most influential demographic and sociological theories dealing with the evolution of the Western family and the factors responsible for fertility decline As in so many other parts of Europe the northern Italian community of Casalecchio experienced massive social and economic changes in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Characterized by sharecropping agriculture and large complex family households the community faced the effects of industrialization urbanization and dramatic political change Making use of unusually rich archival sources to reconstruct the lives of 19 000 people who lived in Casalecchio during this period Kertzer and Hogan challenge many current generalizations regarding the emergence of modern European society

Portrait of the Family Within the Total Economy Graeme Donald Snooks, 1994-07-18 The household sector is the forgotten economy of the Western world Yet it is an institution that has always played a central role in the operation of economic systems and in the way these systems have changed through time This book which focuses on the Australian case looks at the role of the household economy in the process of economic change It considers the household within the context of the total economy and also identifies and analyses longrun dynamic processes in Western society since the Industrial Revolution This is the first attempt to analyse the dynamics of the total economy over such a long period of time Soundly based on new estimates of household and market economic activity for Australia the book challenges accepted theoretical and empirical notions in this area Professor Snooks' pioneering book makes an important contribution to economics economic measurement and economic history

Gender, Family and Work in Naples Victoria A. Goddard, 2020-08-18 Breaking new ground in Mediterranean anthropology this book rejects the discipline's traditional focus on honour and shame in small face to face communities and suggests instead that gender and sexuality interact with material processes in the constitution of personal and social identities In this ethnographic account of the labour market in Naples the author shows how cultural definitions of gender can be used to investigate broad social processes Scarce stable employment in the area means that household members are forced to diversify their economic activities in order to survive Petty entrepreneurship is an option which is almost exclusively available to men Women who are either unable or unwilling to obtain factory work are generally confined to the status of outworkers The author emphasises that individual choices cannot be attributed solely to economic opportunities but that concepts of selfhood gender identity and the symbolic value of female sexuality are also important

The Cambridge World History: Volume 7, Production, Destruction and Connection, 1750-Present, Part 2, Shared Transformations? J. R. McNeill, Kenneth Pomeroy, 2015-04-16 Since 1750 the world has become ever more connected with processes of production and destruction no longer limited by land or water based modes of transport and communication Volume 7 of the Cambridge World History series divided into two books offers a variety of angles of vision on the increasingly interconnected history of humankind The second book questions the extent to which the transformations of the modern world have been shared focusing on social developments such as urbanization migration and changes in family and sexuality cultural connections through religion science music and sport ligaments of globalization including rubber drugs and the automobile and moments of particular importance from the Atlantic Revolutions to 1989

Sociology of the Business Family Heiko Kleve,Tobias Koellner,2023-09-19 The entrepreneurial family has hardly been a topic of family sociology so far Precisely because more than two thirds of all companies are family run it is surprising that sociology has not yet discovered the entrepreneurial family as a field of research With this book it is made the content of systematic family sociological reflections A central point of departure for theorizing and research on entrepreneurial families is that this form of family has to deal with special social challenges because it structurally combines mixes and couples two social spheres that are generally pulled apart in the course of the modernization of society namely families as part of the private life world and companies as the formal organization of the economic system This book is a translation of an original German edition The translation was done with the help of artificial intelligence machine translation by the service DeepL com A subsequent human revision was also carried out by the authors and a native speaker Social Problems Anna Leon-Guerrero,2024-12-16 In Social Problems Anna Leon Guerrero provides a thorough exploration of the social problems that permeate our world today and provides readers with the tools to contribute toward real solutions The Eighth Edition offers a blend of sociological analysis policy review and stories of social action making it an essential read for anyone seeking to make a difference in their community The Resilience of Christianity in the Modern World Joseph B. Tamney,1992-01-01 Develops a theoretical framework for understanding the popularity of religion in its particular social contexts The author provides analyses of examples of religious renaissance such as the relation of the Catholic Church to Poland s Solidarity Movement and the counterculture and Protestant theology He appraises the appeal of the Christian Right in contemporary American culture and the relationship between the Political Right and the Christian Right Paper edition unseen 16 95 Annotation c by Book News Inc Portland Or Ethnicity and the New Family Economy Frances K. Goldscheider,2019-03-19 This book focuses on the way the family economy is being shaped both by changes in living arrangements and in intergenerational financial flows It addresses issues of variations in the processes in the United States particularly differences among ethnic racial and religious communities
