Here are recipes that were inspired by old French family specialties found in her mother's and grandmother's well-thumbed notebooks; recipes that grew out of Beck's life in the provinces, particularly Normandy, Alsace, and Provence, where she has gardened, cooked, dined out, and entertained simple delights and fabulous concoctions all set down with a beautiful French clarity. Skillfully adapting her French ways to American needs, she presents over 100 recipes in 31 alluring menus designed for every sort of occasion: a warming dinner after a winter walk in the woods; a feast to dazzle your friends; a buffet for winter and one for summer; even an elegant picnic. For each menu, Beck has written a charming, altogether personal introduction filled with nuggets of useful information like what can be cooked ahead of time or how long last-minute preparations will take. Specific wines are always suggested with the menus, along with specific cheeses when called for. In addition, this volume features a small collection of other favorite dishes that did not fit into the menus but were simply too good to leave out.
