Family Found in China JL Bowman,2014-11-25 Just as China is beginning to emerge from the clutches of the Cultural Revolution in 1976 a little girl is born But Ling Choy Chung does not bring joy to her peasant family The family needs boys who will grow up to be strong men to work on the farm Grandpa shows his disappointment by torturing the little girl Ling Choy s mother can no longer accept this abuse and leaves her at the Ping Chow Welfare Center hoping the child can survive and maybe even thrive Growing up in an orphanage presents a dark miserable life for Ling but she eventually learns that beauty and love can be found hidden in the nearby beautiful Tein Shen Mountains Family Found in China follows Ling Choy from a toddler to a young adult as she finds a new home through the good graces of missionaries and gains a surrogate family a future and God She didn t think she would get into much trouble for not answering when being called But one older nurse lay in wait for her to emerge from hiding She had been waiting just inside the bathroom thinking that eventually Ling Choy would need to relieve herself Upon entering the bathroom the woman made one quick grab and had Ling Choy by the arm and was dragging her back out the door toward a dirty pail of brown stuff Naughty children always had to take their punishment from the dirty water pail

Home and Family in Japan Richard Ronald,Allison Alexy,2017-12-04 In the Japanese language the word ie denotes both the materiality of homes and family relations within The traditional family and family house often portrayed in ideal terms as key foundations of Japanese culture and society have been subject to significant changes in recent years This book comprehensively addresses various aspects of family life and dwelling spaces exploring how homes household patterns and kin relations are reacting to contemporary social economic and urban transformations and the degree to which traditional patterns of both houses and households are changing The book contextualises the shift from the hegemonic post war image of standard family life to the nuclear family and to a situation now where Japanese homes are more likely to include unmarried singles childless couples divorcees unmarried adult children and elderly relatives either living alone or in nursing homes It discusses how these new patterns are both reinforcing and challenging typical understandings of Japanese family life

Vietnam War Refugees in Guam Nghia M. Vo,2022-04-06 More than 130 000 South Vietnamese fled their homeland at the end of the Vietnam War Tens of thousands landed on the island of Guam on their way to the U S Many remained there Guamanians and U S military personnel welcomed them Funded by a 405 million Congressional appropriation Operation New Life was among the most intensive humanitarian efforts ever accomplished by the U S government with the help of the people of Guam Without it many evacuees would have died somewhere in the Pacific Ocean This book chronicles a part of the first mass migration of Vietnamese boat people before and after the fall of Saigon in April 1975 a story still unfolding almost half a century later

Tales from Salome Volume II Craig Lansford,2006-02 As Dominique strolled across the enormous lobby of the Hotel stopping a moment to remove her shoes as the tiny pumps had left sweltering blisters upon her dainty feet

she took no notice of the man who sat silently in a high back leather chair observing her She had no way of knowing as she stepped on to that elevator with shoes in hand that she was the focal point of something sinister As the doors closed and she disappeared from his sight the man pulled a commlink from inside his jacket and quickly pressed the button that would contact his associate She just got into the elevator he said Is she alone Yes He dropped her off at the front entrance and left Good We don t have much time Get her

The Power of Witnessing Nancy R. Goodman, Marilyn B. Meyers,2012-08-21 Witnessing comes in as many forms as the trauma that gives birth to it The Holocaust undeniably one of the greatest traumatic events in recent human history still resonates into the twenty first century The echoes that haunt those who survived continue to reach their children and others who did not share the experience directly In what ways is this massive trauma processed and understood both for survivors and future generations The answer as deftly illustrated by Nancy Goodman and Marilyn Meyers lies in the power of witnessing the act of acknowledging that trauma took place coupled with the desire to share that knowledge with others to build a space in which to reveal confront and symbolize it As the contributors to this book demonstrate testimonial writing and memoir artwork poetry documentary theater and even the simple recollection of a memory are ways that honor and serve as forms of witnessing Each chapter is a fusion of narrative and metaphor that exists as evidence of the living mind that emerges amid the dead spaces produced by mass trauma creating a revelatory transformational space for the terror of knowing and the possibility for affirmation of hope courage and endurance in the face of almost unspeakable evil Additionally the power of witnessing is extended from the Holocaust to contemporary instances of mass trauma and to psychoanalytic treatments proving its efficacy in the dyadic relationship of everyday practice for both patient and analyst The Holocaust is not an easy subject to approach but the intimate and personal stories included here add up to an act of witnessing in and of itself combining the past and the present and placing the trauma in the realm of knowing sharing and understanding Contributors Harriet Basseches Elsa Blum Bridget Conley Zilkic Paula Ellman Susan Elmendorf George Halasz Geoffrey Hartman Renee Hartman Elaine Neumann Kulp Shabad Dori Laub Clemens Loew Gail Humphries Mardirosian Margit Meissner Henri Parens Arlene Kramer Richards Arnold Richards Sophia Richman Katalin Roth Nina Shapiro Perl Myra Sklarew Ervin Staub

the American Orchard William Kerrigan,2012-10-02 Johnny Appleseed and the American Orchard illuminates the meaning of Johnny Appleseed Chapman's life and the environmental and cultural significance of the plant he propagated. Creating a startling new portrait of the eccentric apple tree planter William Kerrigan carefully dissects the oral tradition of the Appleseed myth and draws upon material from archives and local historical societies across New England and the Midwest. The character of Johnny Appleseed stands apart from other frontier heroes like Davy Crockett and Daniel Boone who employed violence against Native Americans and nature to remake the West. His apple trees nonetheless were a central part of the agro-ecological revolution at the heart of that transformation. Yet men like Chapman who planted trees from seed rather than grafting ultimately came under assault from agricultural reformers who promoted commercial fruit stock and were determined to extend national markets into the West. Over the course of his life John Chapman was transformed from a colporteur of a new ecological world to a curious relic of a pre-market one. Weaving together the stories of the Old World apple in America and the life and myth of John Chapman, Johnny Appleseed and the American Orchard casts new light on both.

James Gilbert University of Maryland The Family in Asia Man Singh Das, Panos D. Bardis,2023-08-09 The institution of the family is by far the most important of all the societal networks in which the lives of men, women and children are involved. Nowhere is this more true than in the less developed countries of Asia. Originally published in 1979, The Family in Asia aimed to provide a series of comprehensive survey chapters which described traditional family patterns in a selection of Asian countries at different stages of economic development. These range from a rapidly expanding and highly developed industrial nation, Japan, through modernising and developing countries, India, Pakistan, Iran, China, South Korea and the Philippines, to more underdeveloped countries such as Thailand and Afghanistan. Each chapter is written by a senior country specialist and covers an integrated series of topics within a uniform framework in order to facilitate inter-country comparisons. Valuable description and statistical material is provided on the literature and on the effects of industrialisation, urbanisation and modernisation, but perhaps more important is a theoretical framework and the editors' review of some basic characteristics of social modernisation. These include the degree of equalitarian family relations and sexual divisions in society, emphasis on individualism and independence, the differentiation and specialised functioning of social institutions, urban life, birth control and family planning, social mobility, marital disruption and divorce, neglect and care of the elderly, formal education for children and government intervention and influence on family activities. Read in its historical context, this title will interest specialists in development and Asian studies, in demography, sociology and in anthropology. Students in particular will value the tight analytical framework in which the book has been written.
