Isabel Schon, 1988 The books listed are intended to provide students in kindergarten through high school with an understanding and appreciation of the people history and art and political social and economic problems of Argentina Bolivia Chile Colombia Costa Rica Cuba Ecuador El Salvador Guatemala Honduras Mexico Nicaragua Panama Peru Puerto Rico Spain Venezuela and the Hispanic heritage people of the US Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR A Naturalist's Guide to the Tropics Marco Lambertini, 2000-05-15 Beautifully illustrated throughout with color plates photographs and drawings this volume is a comprehensive introduction to the natural history of the tropics worldwide 59 color photos 21 maps Global Family Capitalism Paloma Fernández Pérez, 2024-12-23 Emphasizing the diversity of regional and national models this book explores the history of transformation of family businesses around the world during the twentieth and early twenty first centuries Expert contributors explore place based family capitalism and the local embeddedness of family businesses looking at how and why this family capitalism was transformed during the globalization and de globalization periods in the last century It explores the variation in the adaptations and transformation undertaken by family businesses in response to changes in technology globalization ideology and institutions as well as world wars pandemics and economic crises The book also evaluates the relationship between changes in the internal organization and strategies of family businesses with external forces such as the political ideologies changing ideas about the very nature of what constitutes a family and changes in how the State has perceived families and family businesses in the world The book also shows that despite all profound transformations in family capitalism these businesses have remained resilient entrepreneurial forces and strong creators of wealth and employment This book will be of great interest to readers in business and economic history family business and entrepreneurship The New Orleans Sisters of the Holy Family Edward T. Brett, 2012-04-15 The Sisters of the Holy Family founded in New Orleans in 1842 were the first African American Catholics to serve as missionaries This story of their little known missionary efforts in Belize from 1898 to 2008 builds upon their already distinguished work through the Archdiocese of New Orleans of teaching slaves and free people of color caring for orphans and the elderly and tending to the poor and needy Utilizing previously unpublished archival documents along with extensive personal correspondence and interviews Edward T Brett has produced a fascinating account of the 110 year mission of the Sisters of the Holy Family to the Garifuna people of Belize Brett discusses the foundation and growth of the struggling order in New Orleans up to the sisters decision in 1898 to accept a teaching commitment in the Stann Creek District of what was then British Honduras The early history of the British Honduras mission concentrates especially on Mother Austin Jones the superior responsible for expanding the order s work into the mission field In examining the Belizean mission from the eve of the Second Vatican Council through the post Vatican II years Brett sensitively chronicles the sisters efforts to conform to the spirit of the council and describes the creative innovations that the Holy Family community introduced into the Belizean educational system In the final chapter he looks at the congregation s efforts to sustain its missionary work in the face of the shortage of new religious vocations Brett s study is more than just a chronicle of the Holy Family Sisters accomplishments in Belize He treats the issues of racism and gender discrimination that the African American congregation encountered both within the church and in society demonstrating how the sisters survived and even thrived by learning how to skillfully negotiate with the white dominant power structure
