My Family and Other Strangers Jeremy Hardy, 2010-03-04 When Jeremy Hardy decided to explore his ancestry it was in part to get to the bottom of his grandmother Rebecca's dubious claims that the family descended from a certain 17th century architect and that more recently Jeremy's great grandfather was a Royal bodyguard Other legends ranged from the great aunt who ran illegal hooch during Prohibition to the wronged Victorian servant girl who bore an illegitimate Hardy not forgetting the family's rightful claim to a large country estate Wild stories aside Jeremy sets out to such diverse locations as the Croydon one way system and the hostile waters around Malta in order to find traces of recognisable family traits and a sense of how he came to be With wry humour and a keen eye for the absurd and the frustrating Jeremy takes us on a by turns funny and moving journey into the world of family ancestry My Family and Other Strangers will be enjoyed by anyone who has tried to decipher the 1901 census records or simply wishes they too had asked their grandparents more about their lives

Mixed Family Life in the UK M. Nakamura Lopez,2017-09-03 This book offers a nuanced picture of mixed family life in the UK Specifically the book explores how parents from different backgrounds create a place of belonging for their children while also negotiating difference and attempting to transmit various aspects of their cultures including religion hobbies language and food to their mixed children Based on data collected from 26 months of fieldwork the author concludes that the intergenerational transmission of culture instead of being tied to the idea of national culture is actually more organic and fluid allowing individuals to share their cultures from traditions and customs to preferences and habits with the next generation As mixedness increasingly becomes the norm in our global society the book will be of interest to students and scholars of race ethnicity and family studies as well as social workers school teachers counsellors and parents and kin of mixed children The Family Monitor John Angell James,1830 Displacements Angelika Bammer,1994-12-22 Cultural displacement physical dislocation from one's native culture or the colonizing imposition of a foreign culture is one of the most formative experiences of our century These essays examine the impact of this experience on contemporary notions of cultural identity from the perspectives of anthropology history philosophy literature and psychology The Churchman's family magazine , Ada, or Ardor: A Family Chronicle Vladimir Nabokov,2024-02-17 Published two weeks after his seventieth birthday Ada or Ardor is one of Nabokov's greatest masterpieces the glorious culmination of his career as a novelist It tells a love story troubled by incest But more it is also at once a fairy tale epic philosophical treatise on the nature of time parody of the history of the novel and erotic catalogue Ada or Ardor is no less than the superb work of an imagination at white heat This is the first American edition to include the extensive and ingeniously sardonic appendix by the author written under the anagrammatic pseudonym Vivian Darkbloom Harper's Family Library ,1830 Handbook of Marriage and the Family Marvin B. Sussman,Suzanne K. Steinmetz,Gary W. Peterson,2013-06-29 To know where we are going as scholars educators and practitioners in the field of marriage and family life we first need to know where we have been A perusal of early texts on marriage and family life provides some thought provoking insights into the accuracy of the saying what goes around comes around It is interesting to note who has been considered to be in a position to provide information on marriage and family life Included in the eclectic collection of texts we reviewed were ministers whose focus was on spirituality doctors who emphasized medical aspects of child and adult health and public health professionals and home economists concerned with fighting disease who emphasized cleanliness order fighting germs and eliminating rodents and insects There are also philosophers who drew from ancient texts when discussing family life and a count who assembled a group of German intellectual elites to address various topics An insightful essay of this type is by Marta Karlweis 1926 in which she notes There is no other fetish that society holds to so firmly as the conception woman with all its usual associations of infantilism and dependence The child requires protection is a minor and consequently a serf but above all it possesses no spiritual existence Neither doctorates or other distinctions nor the right to vote have as yet been able to dispel this sweet idea of the childishness of woman which man cherishes p

Disciplines of a Godly Family (Trade Paper Edition) R. Kent Hughes, Barbara Hughes, 2004-01-09 Disciplines of a Godly Family covers such topics as establishing a solid family heritage promoting affection between family members encouraging godliness in children using appropriate discipline and helping children cultivate enriching lifelong habits The Hugheses also offer tips for fun and affordable family vacations creating family traditions and starting a prayer notebook They even give us a suggested list of books and videos that should be in every family's library For those struggling to parent their own children or to equip other parents for this task a more practical honest and common sense guide will be hard to find The family monitor, or, A help to domestic happiness John Angell James, 1828 A guide to family life with seven chapters three of which have to do with the duties of husbands and wives to each other and the other four concern parents children masters and servants

Integrating Strangers in Society Jos D. M. Platenkamp, Almut Schneider, 2019-05-15 This book provides a uniquely positioned contribution to the current debates on the integration of immigrants in Europe Twelve social anthropologists strangers by vocation reflect upon how they were taken in by those they studied over the course of their long term fieldwork The societies concerned are Sinti northern Italy Inuit Canadian Arctic Kanak New Caledonia Mori New Zealand Lanten Laos Tobelo and Tanebar Evav Indonesia Banyoro Uganda Gwari and Siassi Papua New Guinea and a township in Odisha India A comparative analysis of these reflexive ethnographic accounts reveals as yet underrepresented non European perspectives on the issue of integrating strangers enabling the reader to identify and reflect upon the uniquely Western ideals and values that currently dominate such discourse

How to Rethink Mental Illness Bernard Guerin, 2017-03-16 The world of mental illness is typically framed around symptoms and cures where every client is given a label In this challenging new book Professor Bernard Guerin provides a fresh alternative to considering these issues based in interdisciplinary social sciences and discourse analysis rather than medical studies or cognitive metaphors A timely and articulate challenge to mainstream approaches Guerin asks the reader to observe the ecological contexts for behavior rather than diagnose symptoms to find new ways to understand and help those experiencing mental distress This book shows the reader how we attribute mental illness to someone s behavior why we call some forms of suffering mental but not others what Western diagnoses look like when you strip away the theory and categories why psychiatry and psychology appeared for the first time at the start of modernity the relationship between capitalism and modern ideas of mental illness why it seems that women the poor and people of Indigenous and non Western backgrounds have worse mental health how we can rethink the hearing of voices more ecologically how self identity has evolved historically how thinking arises from our social contexts rather than from inside our heads Offering solutions rather than theory to develop a new post internal psychology How to Rethink Mental Illness will be essential reading for every mental health professional as well as anyone who has either experienced a mental illness themselves or helped a friend or family member who has
