Family Bureaucracy And The Elderly:

Family, Bureaucracy, and the Elderly Ethel Shanas, Marvin B. Sussman, 1977 The 1981 White House Conference on Aging, 1981 The Family, 1980 Handbook of Social Support and the Family Gregory R. Pierce, I.G. Sarason, 2013-06-29 While insights sometimes are slow in coming they often seem obvious when they finally arrive This handbook is an outcome of the insight that the topics of social support and the family are very closely linked Obvious as this might seem the fact remains that the literatures dealing with social support and the family have been deceptively separate and distinct For example work on social support began in the 1970s with the accumulation of evidence that social ties and social integration play important roles in health and personal adjustment Even though family members are often the key social supporters of individuals relatively little research of social support was targeted on family interactions as a path to specifying supporter processes It is now recognized that one of the most important features of the family is its role in providing the individual with a source of support and acceptance Fortunately in recent years the distinctness and separateness of the fields of social support and the family have blurred This handbook provides the first collation and integration of social support and family research This integration calls for specifying processes such as the cognitions associated with poor support availability and unrewarding family constellations and factors such as cultural differences in family life and support provision that are pertinent to integration Annual Review of Gerontology and Geriatrics, Volume 1, 1980, 1980-01-15 The second volume in this long running series presents the usual critical and intensive review chapters divided into five sections but also addresses particular topics of special interest including drugs and their use and misuse among the aged the nonmedication orientation to treatment of various disorders the immune system and clinical procedures in the management of urinary incontinence As with all the volumes the contributors represent an international array of leading experts Public Policy and the Frail Elderly Federal Council on the Aging (U.S.), 1979 Aging, 1982

American Families Past and Present Susan M. Ross, 2006 Bringing together essays by twenty one distinguished scholars who have helped shape the field of family sociology in the last decade this interdisciplinary anthology examines variation within family experience especially as it has evolved across racial ethnic social gender and generational lines The essays place historical and institutional frameworks at the center of the discussion In depth chapter introductions along with critical questions to spark class discussion make this an ideal text for courses focusing on family composition trends and controversies in the United States Parenting Across the Life Span Jane Beckman Lancaster, Research on parenting through the life course has developed around two separate approaches Evolutionary biology provides fresh perspectives from life history theory using behavioral ecology and parental investment theory At the same time the social and behavioral sciences integrates research from long term studies of individual development and from the collection of life histories This path breaking book advances evolutionary life history research by integrating perspectives of these two approaches into a biosocial science of the life course It examines parenthood as a commitment extending throughout life and focuses on the impact on parental and child behavior of changes in the timing distribution and intensity of parental investment This perspective is particularly appropriate for research on parenting since the family is the universal human institution within which the bearing and rearing of children has been based and which transmits traditions beliefs and values to the young

Confused Minds, Burdened Families ,1990 The New American Grandparent Andrew CHERLIN, Frank F.

Furstenberg, Jr.,2009-06-30 Two leading sociologists of the family examine the changing role of American grandparents how they strive for both independence and family ties Old Age from Antiquity to Post-Modernity Paul Johnson, Pat

Thane,2002-11-01 Based on themes such as status and welfare Old Age from Antiquity to Post Modernity examines the role of the elderly in history This empirical study represents a substantial contribution to both the historical understanding of old age in past societies as well as the discussion of the contribution of post modernism to historical scholarship Aging in

, Aging and the Aged Linna Funk Place,2019-03-13 This book introduces undergraduates to library research in the field of gerontology and focuses on the wide variety of sources available for research It covers physiological and psychological aspects of aging social aspects of aging and environmental aspects of aging Growing Old in America Beth

Hess,2020-03-02 Modern industrial societies are characterized by long term declines in fertility and steady increases in life expectancy Together these trends result in an aging population The United States is no exception since 1969 the median age has risen from 29 4 to a projected 36 4 in the year 2000 This fourth edition of the standard reader on the sociology of aging has been completely revised with 90 percent new material to reflect new information and new issues in this rapidly developing field Students and practicing professionals will find it a lively accessible overview Mental Health and the Elderly Francis J. Turner,2010-06-15 The demographic shift to a much older population is having a large impact on social work professionals who have traditionally been the primary caretakers of the elderly As more people are living into advanced old age it is becoming increasingly important to understand and treat the wide range of psychological disorders which may affect them rather than simply attributing the disorders to senescence as was frequently done in the past Mental Health and Birren,James E. Lubben,Janice Cichowlas Rowe,Donna E.
