Family Forming Center:

Family the Forming Center Marjorie J. Thompson, 1996 The first place most of us experience God and learn the values that shape our lives is within the family Is it any wonder then that all manner of current social ills are blamed on the disintegration of family life Children need to see that the spiritual life is significant to their parents at home as well as at church If your home life differs from the image you present at church your kids will see faith as contrived and irrelevant In this revised and expanded edition Thompson suggests models rituals and celebrations that will inspire your children to grow spiritually and will help center your family on God Family the Forming Center will help you as parents develop close family relationships filled with God s love trust and values
