Perspectives on the Novels of Rohinton Mistry Jaydipsinh Dodiya, 2006 Rohinton Mistry b 1952 Indo English novelist Family Matters Father John Catoir, 1984 The Indian English Novel Priyamvada Gopal, 2009 The Oxford Studies in Postcolonial Literatures series offers stimulating and accessible introductions to definitive topics and key genres and regions within the rapidly diversifying field of postcolonial literary studies in English It is often claimed that unlike the British novel or the novel in indigenous Indian languages Anglophone fiction in India has no genealogy of its own Interrogating this received idea Priyamvada Gopal shows how the English language or Anglophone Indian novel is a heterogeneous body of fiction in which certain dominant trends and recurrent themes are nevertheless discernible It is a genre that has been distinguished from its inception by a preoccupation with both history and nation as these come together to shape what scholars have termed the idea of India Structured around themes such as Gandhi and Fiction The Bombay Novel and The Novel of Partition this study traces lines of influence across significant literary works and situates individual writers and texts in their historical context Its emergence out of the colonial encounter and nation formation has impelled the Anglophone novel to return repeatedly to the question What is India In the most significant works of Anglophone fiction India emerges not just as a theme but as a point of debate reflection and contestation Writers whose works are considered in their context include Rabindranath Tagore Mulk Raj Anand RK Narayan Salman Rushdie Nayantara Sahgal Amitav Ghosh Arundhati Roy and Vikram Seth Realism:

Aesthetics, Experiments, Politics Jens Elze, 2022-04-07 Realism seems to be everywhere both as a trending critical term and as a revitalized aesthetic practice This volume brings together for the first time three aspects that are pertinent for a proper understanding of realism its 19th century aesthetics committed to making reality into an object of serious art the experiments with and against realism by 20th century modernist postmodernist or magical realist writing and the politics of realism especially its ambitions to map the complex realities produced by global capitalism and climate catastrophe This juxtaposition of aesthetics experiments and politics unsettles the entrenched opposition between realism and experimental literature that tends to ignore the fact that realism by virtue of its commitment to a changing material and social world cannot be but continuously experimenting The innovative chapters of this book address some of the pressing questions of literary and cultural studies today like the complex relation between historical materialism and new materialisms between science and art or the different aesthetic and political affordances of making systemic analyses against depicting the specificity of the local Some of the chapters deal with classically realist authors such as George Eliot mile Zola and Joseph Conrad to gauge the aesthetic radicalism of their diverse realist projects Others investigate the experimental engagements with realism by authors such as B S Johnson J M Coetzee or Rachel Cusk Yet others analyze the politics of realism found in contemporary anglophone novels by writers like Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie David Mitchell or Rohinton Mistry The readings assembled here are a testament to the diversity of literary realism s from the 19th 20th and 21st centuries and to the ongoing controversies surrounding definitions and deployments of realism CONTEMPORARY INDIAN ENGLISH NOVELISTS:

Secularism and the Crisis of Minority Identity in Postcolonial Literature Roger McNamara, 2018-06-06 Secularism and the Crisis of Minority Identity in Postcolonial Literature examines how writers from religious and ethnic minority communities Anglo Indians Burghers Dalits Muslims and Parsis in India and Sri Lanka engage secularism through novels short stories and autobiographies Given the rise of Hindu nationalism in India and Sinhala Buddhist nationalism in Sri Lanka it would seem obvious that minorities would rally around secularism the separation of church and state However this book argues that the relationship between minorities and secularism is extremely ambivalent On the one hand it shows how writers belonging to oppressed communities can deploy secularism as a mode of critique secular criticism to challenge the ideologies of dominant groups the nation upper castes and religious hierarchies On the other hand it examines how these writers reveal that other aspects of secularism secularization and secular time are responsible for creating essentialized identities that have not only exacerbated relationships between majorities and minorities and between minority groups but have also created tension within minority groups themselves Turning to aesthetics and religious faith these writers attempt to undermine secular social and cultural structures that are responsible for this crisis of minority identity

Prizing Literature Gillian Roberts, 2011-01-01 When Canadian authors win prestigious literary prizes from the Governor General's Literary Award to the Man Booker Prize they are celebrated not only for their achievements but also for contributing to this country's cultural capital Discussions about culture national identity and citizenship are particularly complicated when the honorees are immigrants like Michael Ondaatje Carol Shields or Rohinton Mistry Then there is the case of Yann Martel who is identified both as Canadian and as rootlessly cosmopolitan How have these writers' identities been recalibrated in order to claim them as representative Canadians Prizing Literature is the first extended study of contemporary award winning Canadian literature and the ways in which we celebrate its authors Gillian Roberts uses theories of hospitality to examine how prize winning authors are variously received and honoured depending on their citizenship and the extent to which they represent Canadianness Prizing Literature sheds light on popular and media understandings of what it means to be part of a multicultural nation

ROHINTON MISTRY'S FICTION: A SOCIO-CULTURAL STUDY Dr. Umar Farooque, 2019-10-10 Rohinton Mistry is an important Indian English fiction writer. He is a Parsi writer of Indian Diaspora in Canada. There are two factors which entitle him to be called Indian writer in English and his works to be studied as Indian literature in English despite the fact that he migrated to Canada in 1975 much before the publication of his first book, a short story collection Tales from Firozsha Baag in 1987. The fact that Mistry being born brought up and educated in India, his novels and most of his short stories are thoroughly Indian in theme and language are these factors which make him an Indian writer in English

Encyclopedic Dictionary of Diasporic Indian English Writing Manju Jaidka, Tej N. Dhar, Natasha Vashisht, 2025-05-15 The Handbook of Diasporic Indian Writing in English is an essential reference to Indian literature. It features alphabetical entries of Indian writers who have bridged the gap between cultures and redefined language boundaries. As the field of diasporic writing continues to expand and intersect with various branches of English and Cultural studies, it anticipates a growing market. It offers a unique and compelling perspective on the global tapestry of literature. It draws on various interdisciplinary approaches including postcolonial theory, cultural studies, and digital humanities to offer fresh and innovative perspectives on the literature. It is an indispensable resource for research scholars of literary studies and related disciplines like cultural studies and postcolonial studies

Postcolonial Realism and the Concept of the Political Eli Park Sorensen, 2021-04-28 As the scholarly world attunes itself once again to the specifically political, this book rethinks the political significance of literary realism within a postcolonial context. Generally, postcolonial studies has either ignored realism or criticized it as being naïve, anachronistic, deceptive, or complicit with colonial discourse. In other words, incongruous with the postcolonial. This book argues that postcolonial realism is intimately connected to the specifically political in the sense that realist form is premised on the idea of a collective reality. Discussing a range of literary and theoretical works, Dr. Sorensen exemplifies that many postcolonial writers were often faced with the realities of an unstable state, a divided community inhabiting a contested social space, the challenges of constructing a notion of the people out of a myriad of local communities with different traditions and languages brought together arbitrarily through colonization. The book demonstrates that the political context of realism is the sphere or possibility of civil war, divided societies, and unstable communities. Postcolonial realism is prompted by disturbing political circumstances and it gestures toward a commonly imagined world precisely because such a notion is under pressure or absent

How to be Well Read John Sutherland, 2014-05-08 Generous, enjoyable, and well-informed. Observer 500 expertly potted plots and personal comments on a wide range of pop and proper prose fiction. The Times

Ranging all the way from Aaron's Rod to Zuleika Dobson via The Devil Rides Out and Middlemarch, literary connoisseur and sleuth John Sutherland offers his very personal guide to the most rewarding most remarkable and on occasion most shamelessly enjoyable works of fiction ever written He brilliantly captures the flavour of each work and assesses its relative merits and demerits He shows how it fits into a broader context and he offers endless snippets of intriguing information did you know for example that the Nazis banned Bambi or that William Faulkner wrote As I Lay Dying on an upturned wheelbarrow that Voltaire completed Candide in three days or that Anna Sewall was paid 20 for Black Beauty It is also effectively a history of the novel in 500 or so wittily informative bite sized pieces Encyclopaedic and entertaining by turns this is a wonderful dip in book whose opinions will inform and on occasion no doubt infuriate _____ Anyone hooked on fiction should be warned this book will feed your addiction Mail on Sunday A dazzling array of genres periods styles and tastes chatty insightful unprejudiced but not uncritical and wise Times Literary Supplement Reconsidering the Postmodern Thomas Vaessens, Yra Dijk, 2025-10-01 From Michel Houellebecq to Zadie Smith from Javier Marías to Arnon Grunberg this timely study takes its reader on a tour of European literature and the critical discussion around it Despite recent declarations of postmodernism's demise contemporary literature turns out to be entangled in a discussion with postmodernism It is time to critically evaluate this legacy Twelve specialists in the national literatures sketch the outlines of the debate Turning to literature itself they find it to be searching for new values after the relativizing force of postmodernism Vikram Seth's Poetics of Pastiche Mélanie Heydari, 2024-09-21 Vikram Seth is a critical enigma He is recognized as one of the most important Indian Anglophone authors of his generation his individual works have been widely reviewed yet his work has rarely been approached as a whole and remains surprisingly understudied Perhaps the chief reason for the paucity of critical response to the full compass of Seth's work is his disregard for intellectual fashion Indeed Seth is at once very popular and deliberately unfashionable His literary affiliations are conservative seemingly uninterested in any revisionary narrative he is equally unconcerned by the interpenetration of cultures in our globalized world representing assimilation rather than cultural difference He defies the expectations of both postcolonial and world literature therefore to discuss his critical neglect is to shed light on the limitations of these labels As the most thorough attempt to map a general poetics in Seth's work this study the first of its kind on this writer develops a new critical methodology to capture the nuances of Seth's literary strategies It provides scholars and students insight into the key features of Seth's work and uncovers a consistent authorial strategy running through his seemingly disconnected body of work namely a systematic use of intertextual practices From Book to Screen Keiko I. McDonald, 2016-09-16 Of all the world's cinemas Japan's is perhaps unique in its closeness to the nation's literature past and contemporary The Western world became aware of this when Akira Kurosawa's Rashomon was awarded the Grand Prize at the Venice film festival in 1951 and the Oscar for best foreign film in 1952 More recent examples include Shohei Imamura's Eel which won the Palm d'Or Best Picture at Cannes in 1997 From Book to Screen breaks new ground by exploring important connections between Japan's modern literary tradition and its national cinema The first part offers an historical and cultural overview of the working relationship that developed between pure literature and film It deals with three important periods in which filmmakers relied most heavily on literary works for enriching and developing cinematic art The second part provides detailed analyses of a dozen literary works and their screen adoptions
