Healing Stories for Challenging Behaviour Susan,2012-12-07 Healing Stories for Challenging Behaviour brings together the fruits of Susan Perrow s work in storymaking It is richly illustrated with lively anecdotes drawn from parents and teachers who have discovered how the power of story can help resolve a range of common childhood behaviours and situations such as separation anxiety bullying sibling rivalry nightmares and grieving Toward Assessing Business Ethics Education Diane L. Swanson,Dann G. Fisher,2010-11-01 Toward Assessing Business Ethics Education edited by Diane L Swanson and Dann G Fisher of Kansas State University is a sequel to their book Advancing Business Ethics Education in the Ethics in Practice IAP book series The focus on assessment in this second book is a timely response to the urgent search among business schools for ways to teach and assess ethics at a time when the public s faith in corporations and business schools has been undermined greatly by the failure of both to respond to widespread corruption and scandals in the business sector Although no one expects business education alone to resolve these problems the distinguished scholars represented in this book advocate that business schools should at least do their part by exposing their students to decision models that incorporate ethical dimensions on behalf of corporate stakeholders and society at large As the book s title conveys it is then important to assess key learning objectives to insure that business students graduate knowing ethics fundamentals and armed with the ability to recognize ethical dilemmas and possible solutions during the course of their careers This book will speak to all who are interested in accountability for business ethics education especially business school deans university administrators faculty members students and prospective employers This audience will find that the enterprise of assessing business ethics education is advanced in three ways First the book functions as a venue for distinguished scholars to share the innovative ways that they are assessing ethics coverage in courses and degree programs Second these authors identify what needs to be assessed and the means for doing so Third the book serves not only as a guide to assessment but also as a platform for expanding and improving ethics coverage in business schools Moreover an important take away for readers is the provision of a simple formula first advocated by Diane L Swanson and William C Frederick University of Pittsburgh in 2005 for delivering ethics education that minimizes assessment errors By following this formula business schools can provide assurances that ethics will not be assessed as being sufficient when it is woefully inadequate or even missing in the curriculum and that it cannot be distorted diluted or trivialized by uninformed coverage and still pass inspection Avoiding these assessment errors is critical in an educational environment in which weak accrediting standards for ethics go hand in hand with spotty uniformed coverage that would not be tolerated for other business disciplines

Therapeutic Culture Donileen Loseke, 2017-07-05 For nearly half a century social scientists have made claims that there is a therapeutic ethos with extensive influence upon numerous aspects of American society In Therapeutic Culture twelve authors address the implications of this ethos and its effects on a wide range of social institutions extending from the family to schools and operating in religious behavior and within the legal system Has there been as the sociological theorist Philip Rieff argued in 1966 a triumph of the therapeutic If so in what kinds of institutions has it been most pervasive At the same time what aspects of modern culture has it replaced or defeated Therapeutic Culture addresses these questions and raises others Part 1 of this volume examines the emergence of the idea of authenticity as it defines the manipulation of emotions and behavior both in the United States and Great Britain Contributors include Elisabeth Lasch Quinn Frank Furedi Jonathan B Imber and Alan Woolfolk Part 2 illustrates specific cases of the effects of therapeutic culture within institutions including courts schools religious communities and the virtual community of the Internet Contributors include James L Nolan Jr John Steadman Rice Felicia Wu Song and James Tucker Part 3 extends the analyses of specific social institutions to the broader consequences that have resulted as a therapeutic ethos has taken root in contemporary life Contributors include Digby Anderson Ellen Herman and James Davison Hunter Part 4 is devoted to a previously unpublished essay by Philip Rieff whose significant influence can be seen in many of the contributions Rieff revisits the highly controversial confirmation hearings of Supreme Court Associate Justice Clarence Thomas in 1991 and offers ample evidence of the therapeutic uses of politics as well as the political manipulations available within a therapeutic culture to provide a fitting conclusion This volume establishes a benchmark for further

Even When No One is Looking Jan Habl, 2018-09-21 This book is not a list or an overview of various theories of ethics Nor is it a didactic manual for specific teaching units on moral education aimed at some group based on age or a particular theme although some educational frameworks will be proposed As the title suggests the book intends to seek the starting points or foundations without which no moral education would be possible The goal is to formulate and tackle the key questions that precede all moral education What makes good vs evil language possible and meaningful Can virtue be taught and learned What makes our actions good What is the condition of human nature Are we naturally good or evil What constitutes an educator's right to morally influence anyone else not just a child What is the goal of moral education What does a morally educated person look like And how can we ensure the coveted moral result Or in the words of Jan Amos Comenius the teacher of nations how to educate a person to not only know what is good but also to want what is good and to do what is good even when no one is looking
