Familys Affairs:

Law, Family, and Women Thomas Kuehn, 1994-06-15 Focusing on Florence Thomas Kuehn demonstrates the formative influence of law on Italian society during the Renaissance especially in the spheres of family and women Kuehn s use of legal sources along with letters diaries and contemporary accounts allows him to present a compelling image of the social processes that affected the shape and function of the law The numerous law courts of Italian city states constantly devised and revised statutes Kuehn traces the permutations of these laws then examines their use by Florentines to arbitrate conflict and regulate social behavior regarding such issues as kinship marriage business inheritance illegitimacy and gender Ranging from one man s embittered denunciation of his father to another s reaction to his kinsmen s rejection of him as illegitimate Law Family and Women provides fascinating evidence of the tensions riddling family life in Renaissance Florence Kuehn shows how these same tensions often articulated in and through the law affected women He examines the role of the mundualdus a male legal guardian for women in Florence the control of fathers over their married daughters and issues of inheritance by and through women An ambitious attempt to reformulate the agenda of Renaissance social history Kuehn s work will be of value to both legal anthropologists and social historians Thomas Kuehn is professor of history at Clemson University

An East Texas Family's Civil War John T. Whatley, 2019-04-17 During six months in 1862 William Jefferson Whatley and his wife Nancy Falkaday Watkins Whatley exchanged a series of letters that vividly demonstrate the quickly changing roles of women whose husbands left home to fight in the Civil War When William Whatley enlisted with the Confederate Army in 1862 he left his young wife Nancy in charge of their cotton farm in East Texas near the village of Caledonia in Rusk County In letters to her husband Nancy describes in elaborate detail how she dealt with and felt about her new role which thrust her into an array of unfamiliar duties including dealing with increasingly unruly slaves overseeing the harvest of the cotton crop and negotiating business transactions with unscrupulous neighbors At the same time she carried on her traditional family duties and tended to their four young children during frequent epidemics of measles and diphtheria Stationed hundreds of miles away her husband could only offer her advice sympathy and shared frustration In An East Texas Family's Civil War the Whatleys great grandson John T Whatley transcribes and annotates these letters for the first time Notable for their descriptions of the unraveling of the local slave labor system and accounts of rural southern life Nancy's letters offer a rare window on the hardships faced by women on the home front taking on unprecedented responsibilities and filling unfamiliar roles

The Patient in the Family Hilde Lindemann Nelson, James Lindemann Nelson, 2014-05-22 The Patient in the Family diagnoses the ways in which the worlds of home and hospital misunderstand each other The authors explore how medicine through its new reproductive technologies is altering the structure of families how families can participate more fully in medical decision making and how to understand the impact on families when medical advances extend life but not vitality

Footbinding Shirley See Yan Ma, 2009-12-04 In this book Shirley See Yan Ma provides a Jungian perspective on the Chinese tradition of footbinding and considers how it can be used as a metaphor for the suffering of women and the repression of the feminine as well as a symbol for hope creativity and spiritual transformation Drawing on personal history popular myths literature and work with clients Footbinding discusses how modern women still symbolically find their feet bound through this ancient practice Detailed case studies from Western and Asian women demonstrate how Jungian analysis can loosen these psychological bindings allowing the client to reconnect with the feminine archetype discover their own identity and take control of their own destiny This original book will be of great interest to Jungian analysts looking for a new perspective It will also be of interest to anyone studying Chinese culture and psychology

Women's Roles in Sub-Saharan Africa Toyin Falola,Nana Akua Amponsah,2012-01-06 This exhaustive exploration of the sociocultural political and economic roles of African women through history demonstrates how African women have shaped and continue to shape their societies Women play essential critical roles in every society African women south of the Sahara are certainly no different Women s Roles in Sub Saharan Africa adds significantly to our understanding of the ways in which women contribute to the fabric of human civilization This book provides an in depth exploration of African women s roles in society from precolonial periods to the contemporary era Topical sections describe the roles that women play in family courtship and marriage religion work literature and arts and government Each of the six chapters has been structured to elucidate women s roles and functions in society as partners as active participants as defenders of their status and occupations and as agents of change Authors Nana Akua Amponsah and Toyin Falola present a thought provoking work that looks at the complicated victimhood powerful female paradigm in women and gender studies in Africa and challenge ideological interest in African historiography that privilege male representation

The Lahu Minority in Southwest China Jianxiong Ma,2013-05-07 The Lahu with a population of around 470 000 inhabit the mountainous country in Yunnan Province bordering on Burma Laos and northern Thailand Buddhists with a long history of resistance to the Chinese Han majority the Lahu are currently facing a serious collapse of their traditional social system with the highest suicide rate in the world large scale human trafficking of their women alcoholism and poverty This book based on extensive original research including long term anthropological research among the Lahu provides an overview of the traditional way of life of the Lahu their social system culture and beliefs and discusses the ways in which these are changing It shows how the Lahu are especially vulnerable because of their lack of political representatives and a state educated elite which can engage with and be part of the government administrative system The Lahu are one of many relatively small ethnic minorities in China overall the book provides an example of how the Chinese government approaches these relatively small ethnic minorities The World Turned John D'Emilio,2002-10-08 Essays political and historical by a leading gay activist and historian Lebanon: A House Divided Sandra Mackey,2006-07-17 A beautifully written often profound account Chicago Sun Times With a new introduction by the author a seminal study of Lebanon s past present and future Covering Lebanon s history through the Civil War of 1975 89 Sandra Mackey lays the groundwork needed to comprehend this often ill understood country offering insight into its role as the gateway between West and East and bringing a clarity of focus to the schisms that serve to divide and define Lebanon Arising from Bondage Ron Ramdin,2000-04 Arising from Bondage is an epic story of the struggle of the Indo Caribbean people From the 1830 s through World War I hundreds of thousands of indentured laborers were shipped from India to the Caribbean and settled in the former British Dutch French and Spanish colonies Like their predecessors the African slaves they labored on the sugar estates Unlike the Africans their status was ambiguous not actually enslaved yet not entirely free they fought mightily to achieve power in their new home Today in the English speaking Caribbean alone there are one million people of Indian descent and they form the majority in Guyana and Trinidad and Tobago This study based on official documents and archives as well as previously unpublished material from British Indian and Caribbean sources fills a major gap in the history of the Caribbean India Britain and European colonialism It also contributes powerfully to the history of diaspora and migration

Ten Again to Fight against Her Fate Liu Yuan,2020-05-19 In my previous life I was bullied and trampled by others and in the end I unknowingly took the little life in my womb with me and left God pity I have the luck to return back to being ten years old I must live clearly what my parents lives are what my fate is I only believe in people surpassing the heavens Life was rough a beautiful woman was weak whose life was not turbulent He did not seek for the peace and quiet of the years but was willing to have a clear conscience Join Collection International Case Studies in Mental Health Senel Poyrazli,Chalmer E. Thompson,2012-04-30 Senel Poyrazli s and Chalmer Thompson s International Case Studies in Mental Health presents a variety of global cases from both developed and developing countries detailing descriptions of the people who are seeking help to eliminate their distress and of the exceptional practitioners who provide the help In most of the cases the practitioner is someone who shares a similar heritage with her or his help seeker and who is influenced at least partly by Western psychotherapy traditions Each chapter also is a showcase of how scholars pair up with mental health practitioners to create a work that weaves together contextual and individual qualities to inform an understanding of the help seeker and the intervention This book aims to help prepare both mental health trainees and practicing professionals to be effective in the provision of healing in their work with people in different regions of the world Consequently the authors hope to offer practitioners a glimpse of what can be achieved in these regions by people whose reputations within the respective communities are strong Reflecting the Sky S. J. Rozan,2002-01-07 It s a great honor when Grandfather Gao a family friend and elder in New York s Chinatown community asks Lydia Chin and her partner Bill Smith to go to Hong Kong to deliver the ashes of an old friend for burial a letter from that friend to his brother and a valuable jade figurine for the friend s seven year old grandson Marriage with the Wild CEO Gong Ziyue,2019-12-01 In order to save her family she had no choice but to marry a fool But at night she was pressed down by the brother in law After everything was settled she could have left as well Who knew that he would never think of letting her go Mo Yehan Don t forget the transaction between us has ended In the middle of the night he pushed her against the door and she said while gnashing her teeth An Jianjian The transaction is over but you have violated the terms of our contract The man s handsome long eyebrows twitched While she was distracted Mo Yehan broke through the door and pushed her against the wall How dare you steal my child So we have to continue the trade Transmigrate to 1976 , Gaoping,2020-07-04 Gu Min qian An Accident Crossing to the 1970s The condition be very hard not enough to eat not enough to sleep But with a loved one by my side When a family was together no matter how bitter their life was they could still live a sweet life Lives of Mississippi Authors, 1817-1967 James B.
