Famine Secret:

The Famine Secret Cora Harrison, 1998 After their parents die during the great famine twins Deirdre and Fiona try to maintain contact with their brothers in the workhouse and dream of returning to their former home Eating People Is Wrong, and Other Essays on Famine, Its Past, and Its Future Cormac Ó Gráda, 2020-10-13 New perspectives on the history of famine and the possibility of a famine free world Famines are becoming smaller and rarer but optimism about the possibility of a famine free future must be tempered by the threat of global warming That is just one of the arguments that Cormac Gr da one of the world s leading authorities on the history and economics of famine develops in this wide ranging book which provides crucial new perspectives on key questions raised by famines around the globe between the seventeenth and twenty first centuries The book begins with a taboo topic Gr da argues that cannibalism while by no means a universal feature of famines and never responsible for more than a tiny proportion of famine deaths has probably been more common during very severe famines than previously thought The book goes on to offer new interpretations of two of the twentieth century s most notorious and controversial famines the Great Bengal Famine and the Chinese Great Leap Forward Famine Gr da questions the standard view of the Bengal Famine as a perfect example of market failure arguing instead that the primary cause was the unwillingness of colonial rulers to divert food from their war effort The book also addresses the role played by traders and speculators during famines more generally invoking evidence from famines in France Ireland Finland Malawi Niger and Somalia since the 1600s and overturning Adam Smith s claim that government attempts to solve food shortages always cause famines Thought provoking and important this is essential reading for historians economists demographers and anyone else who is interested in the history and possible future of famine The U.S. Response to East African Famines and the Future Outlook for Food Aid in Africa United States. Congress. House. Committee on International Relations, 2003

The Political Economy of African Famine R. E. Downs, Donna O. Kerner, Stephen P. Reyna, 2019-07-19 Originally published in 1991 This volume explores the combination of political and economic forces that influence different levels of food supply The book begins with a discussion of famine theories ranging from cultural ecology to neo Marxism Following this survey is a series of essays by anthropologists geographers economists and development practitioners that explores the role of Western institutions in African famine analyzes famine in particular countries and documents the relationship between famine and gender This book takes an unusually broad look at famine by including analyses of countries where hunger has rarely been studied and by examining African famine from both African and Western perspectives Its concluding proposals for eradicating famine make innovative and provocative contributions to current global debates on food and nutrition Mao Zedong's China, 2nd Edition Kathlyn Gay, 2012-08-01 In 1949 Mao Zedong came to power in China after a long and brutal civil war He and his Chinese Communist Party immediately set out to transform their nation into a Communist state They seized land from wealthy and middle class farmers and distributed it to poor peasant farmers The government also took over ownership of all industries Citizens who resisted these changes were branded counterrevolutionaries and thousands were imprisoned or executed Within a few years Mao had turned China into a totalitarian state controlling all aspects of his citizens daily lives In the 1960s he sought to wipe out what remained of traditional Chinese society by launching the Cultural Revolution Millions died as the country erupted into spasms of mob violence Yet despite the tumult Chairman Mao remained a revered almost godlike figure worshiped by his people How did he do it Learn more about one of the most powerful and controversial figures of the 20th century

An Economic History of Famine Resilience Jessica Dijkman, Bas van Leeuwen, 2019-09-18 Food crises have always tested societies This volume discusses societal resilience to food crises examining the responses and strategies at the societal level that effectively helped individuals and groups to cope with drops in food supply in various parts of the world over the past two millennia Societal responses can be coordinated by the state the market or civil society Here it is shown that it was often a combined effort but that there were significant variations between regions and periods The long term comparative perspective of the volume brings out these variations explains them and discusses their effects on societal resilience This book will be of interest to advanced students and researchers across economic history institutional economics social history and development studies

Tapestry of Light Yiju Huang, 2014-12-22 Tapestry of Light offers an account of the psychic intellectual and cultural aftermath of the Chinese Cultural Revolution Drawing on a wide range of works including essay fiction memoir painting and film the book explores links between history trauma and haunting Challenging the leftist currents in Cultural Revolution scholarship the tone pervading the book is a rhythm of melancholia indeterminacy but also hope Huang demonstrates that aesthetic afterlives resist both the conservative nostalgia for China's revolutionary past as well as China's elated false confidence in the market driven future Huang engages with prominent Chinese intellectuals writers artists and filmmakers including Ba Jin Han Shaogong Hong Ying Zhang Xiaogang Jiang Wen and Ann Hui

Literary Images of Self and Other in Irish and Ukrainian Famine Fiction Tatiana Krol, 2025-07-10 This book is a comparative imagological study of novelistic representations of the Irish and Ukrainian Great Famines It examines the formation of stereotypical perceptions between nations in Irish and Ukrainian fiction Focusing on the novels The Silent People 1962 by Walter Macken The Hungry Land 1986 by Michael Mullen Maria A Chronicle of a Life 1934 by Ulas Samchuk and Sweet Snow 2013 by Alexander J Motyl the author compares and contrasts images of the Self and the Other created in Irish and Ukrainian novels about famine and investigates ways in which stereotypical perceptions between nations are forged and disseminated The author argues that negative attitudes between people and or nations largely depend on power relations

Revolution and Terror Graeme Gill, 2024 This book is a study of the relationship between revolution and terror Graeme Gill uses a detailed analysis of the French Russian and Chinese revolutions to show that in order to understand that relationship it is necessary to distinguish between different types of terror revolutionary transformational and inverted

Of Memory and the

Misplaced Sarah O'Brien, 2024-01-02 What can the life writing of post famine Irish immigrants tell us about Irish diasporic memory Of Memory and the Misplaced considers the endurance and nature of Irish American memory across the twentieth century Guided by 30 memoirs written between 1900 and 1970 Sarah O'Brien shows the prevalence of intimate and taboo themes in ordinary immigrants writing such as domestic violence same sex love and famine induced trauma Importantly Of Memory and the Misplaced critiques the role of the Irish landscape as a site of memory and shows how the interiority of the domestic world has provided Irish women with the language needed to reclaim their own lives Combining literary and historical theory Of Memory and the Misplaced highlights voices that have traditionally been silenced and offers a rare and unexplored collection of primary source autobiographical texts to better understand the experiences of Irish immigrants in the United States Critical Approaches to Food in Children's Literature Kara K. Keeling, Scott T. Pollard, 2012-03-20

Critical Approaches to Food in Children's Literature is the first scholarly volume on the topic connecting children's literature to the burgeoning discipline of food studies Following the lead of historians like Mark Kurlansky Jeffrey Pilcher and Massimo Montanari who use food as a fundamental node for understanding history the essays in this volume present food as a multivalent signifier in children's literature and make a strong argument for its central place in literature and literary theory Written by some of the most respected scholars in the field the essays between these covers tackle texts from the nineteenth century Rudyard Kipling's Kim to the contemporary Dave Pilkey's Captain Underpants series the U.S. multicultural Asian American to the international Ireland Brazil Mexico Spanning genres such as picture books chapter books popular media and children's cookbooks contributors utilize a variety of approaches including archival research cultural studies formalism gender studies post colonialism post structuralism race studies structuralism and theology Innovative and wide ranging Critical Approaches to Food in Children's Literature provides us with a critical opportunity to puzzle out the significance of food in children's literature The Social History of Agriculture Christopher Isett, Stephen Miller, 2016-11-09 This innovative text provides a compelling narrative world history through the lens of food and farmers Tracing the history of agriculture from earliest times to the present Christopher Isett and Stephen Miller argue that people rather than markets have been the primary agents of agricultural change Exploring the actions taken by individuals and groups over time and analyzing their activities in the wider contexts of markets states wars the environment population increase and similar factors the authors emphasize how larger social and political forces inform decisions and lead to different technological outcomes Both farmers and elites responded in ways that impeded economic development Farmers when able to trade with towns used the revenue to gain more land and security Elites used commercial opportunities to accumulate military power and slaves The book explores these tendencies through rich case studies of ancient China precolonial South America early modern France England and Japan New World slavery colonial Taiwan socialist Cuba and many other periods and places Readers will understand how the promises and problems of contemporary agriculture are not simply technologically derived but are the outcomes of decisions and choices people have made and continue to make

The 1981 Irish Hunger Strike Michael C. Mentel, 2024-02-01 The hunger strike of 1981 is regarded as one of the most tragic events in Irish history Ten men died over a period of 217 days in the H Blocks of Long Kesh Maze prison while exercising the most extreme form of civil disobedience available to them The Troubles that gave rise to the hunger strike had roots in the centuries of socio economic subjugation and religious persecution in Ireland In 1971 the British government began internment without trial for persons suspected of belonging to paramilitary organizations Eventually the British government granted Special Category Status to these prisoners before later stripping it from the prisons by 1976 leading to a five year prisoner protest that culminated in the 1981 hunger strike This book critically examines declassified British government documents that detail how the government's policies led to the 1981 hunger strike how Margaret Thatcher exacerbated the strike by refusing steps to end it and how the hunger strike eventually led to peace in the north Analysis also illustrates how the 1981 hunger strike and the ten men who died on it forced a revolutionary change in the political and governmental structure of the north and paved a road to peace that concluded with the signing of the 1998 Good Friday Agreement
