Edmonton Exhibition : the First Hundred Years Tony Cashman, Edmonton Exhibition Association, 1979

Edmonton's Urban Villages Ron Kuban, 2005-07-08 How did a collection of neighborhood volunteer organizations come to influence the development of a major Canadian city Few other North American cities have embraced the community league movement with the vigor of Edmonton For 87 years tens of thousands of volunteers from the Edmonton Federation of Community Leagues EFCL have often acted as a counterweight to large private and institutional interests shaping municipal development by providing a voice and a training ground for grassroots civic participation In its wake the EFCL has left a host of sports cultural and civic initiatives for the improvement of Edmonton and an important lesson on how to create community

Edmonton In Our Own Words Linda Goyette, Carolina Jakeway Roemmich, 2005-04-18 Linda Goyette and Carolina Roemmich have tapped Edmonton's collective memoir through the written record the spoken stories and the vast silences All of the people who ever lived at this bend in the North Saskatchewan took part in creating the city we know as Edmonton Through traditional Indigenous stories about the earliest travellers along the bend in the river diaries archival records and letters of 19th century inhabitants and the recollections of living residents who talk about the emerging city Edmonton's history is told using the words and stories of the people who have called this city home Citizens with diverse viewpoints speak for themselves describing important events in Edmonton's social political and economic development Foreword by Keith Turnbull The official publication of the City of Edmonton's Centennial Edmonton In Our Own Words includes many never seen before photographs from private collections historic maps and a timeline of Edmonton's history Imagine a conversation between Edmonton's past inhabitants and its living citizens What would we tell the rest of the world about our place on the map What stories would we tell with tears in our eyes or laughter or pride In Edmonton In Our Own Words experience the personal stories of eyewitnesses and descendants explaining arguing crying scolding laughing and interrupting one another in a city's evolving conversation with itself as Edmonton celebrates its past and future The authors tap Edmonton's collective memoir through written records and spoken stories All those who ever lived at this bend in the North Saskatchewan took part in creating the city we know as Edmonton Citizens with diverse viewpoints speak for themselves describing important events in the city's social political and economic development Why Grow Here Kathryn Chase Merrett, 2015-06-18 A collection of nine essays about Edmonton's diverse gardening history Power Play Jay Scherer, David Mills, Linda Sloan McCulloch, 2019-11-06 When the Rogers Place arena opened in downtown Edmonton in September 2016 no amount of buzz could drown out the rumours of manipulation secret deals and corporate greed undergirding the project Working with documentary evidence and original interviews the authors present an absorbing account of the machinations that got the arena and the adjacent Ice District built with a price tag of more than 600 million The arena deal they argue established a costly public financing precedent that people across North America should watch closely as many cities consider building sports facilities for professional teams or international competitions Their analysis brings clarity and nuance to a case shrouded in secrecy and understood by few besides political and business insiders Power Play tells a dramatic story about clashing priorities where sports money and municipal power meet Foreword by Richard Gruneau

Prairie Warships Gordon Errett Tolton, 2007 Richly illustrated and thoroughly researched Prairie Warships takes readers to an era when the frontier was under siege when prairie towns were ports of call when a region's lifeblood depended on transport and when the mood of the river determined the fate of a nation
