The History of the Gaelic Athletic Association in Canada Ainsley Baldwin, John O'Flynn, 2008-07-04 The history of Gaelic games in Canada before the founding of the Gaelic Athletic Association in Ireland in 1884 and in the years since proves a determination by Irish immigrants who have arrived in numerous provinces of Canada Through their dedication the flag of Irish sports has flown strong and will continue to fly in the years to come The sporting traditions include the oldest European field game of hurling a masterful art and the fastest game in the world in which players use an ash wood stick and a hard ball Many argue with some conviction and no small amount of fact to support their case that Canada s national sport ice hockey has its origins in hurling The word puck is derived from the Irish word poc which is the action of striking the ball with a hurley In 1845 the civic fathers of Quebec City banned the playing of hurling in their narrow streets while in St John s Newfoundland hurling was being played as early as 1788 at the Barrens of the city The ladies version of hurling Camogie has had its presence on occasion in some Canadian communities The skilful play of Gaelic Football which has dominated the sporting scene across the country in many Canadian cities continues to be the greatest strength in modern times Along with two other Irish sports of handball and rounders many wonderful memories for the Canadian Irish community are celebrated in this book that captures an exciting facet of Irish culture Left History ,2006 Blood Is Thicker than War Martin King,2022-09-06 From the author of Triage and Searching for Augusta comes a history of love hate jealousy and revenge between brothers and sisters during times of war through the ages Journey back through time to discover remarkable accounts of parents who waved off their sons and daughters never knowing if they would ever see them again One mother saw no less than ten of her sons between the ages of eighteen and thirty seven dispatched to the frontline in the First World War The biggest real band of brothers that ever served their country but to discover how many made it back and who this dear lady was you will have to read the rest War is completely indiscriminate when it comes to inflicting suffering and heartbreak on families particularly when one s own blood takes up arms to fight with and in some cases against their own kin These stories recount some of the prime examples of families divided and united in some of the direst conflict When British police discovered the body of a dead woman who locals knew as the Crazy Cat Lady they found a small bundle of possessions that revealed a truly incredible story of two amazing sisters who served behind enemy lines as elite Special Operations Agents SOE during World War II Enemies Within Franca Iacovetta,Roberto Perin,Angelo Principe,2000-01-01 Enemies Within is the first study of its kind to examine not only the formulation and uneven implementation of internment policy but the social and gender history of internment It brings together national and international perspectives Mothers of the Nations: Indigenous Mothering as Global Resistance, Reclaiming and Recovery Lavell Memee. Harvard,2014-10-01 The voices of Indigenous women world wide have long been silenced by colonial oppression and institutions of patriarchal dominance Recent generations of powerful Indigenous women have begun speaking out so that their positions of respect within their families and communities might be reclaimed The book explores issues surrounding and impacting Indigenous mothering family and community in a variety of contexts internationally The book addresses diverse subjects including child welfare Indigenous mothering in curriculum mothers and traditional foods intergenerational mothering in the wake of residential schooling mothering and HIV urban Indigenous mothering mothers working the sex trade adoptive and other mothers Indigenous midwifery and more In addressing these diverse subjects and peoples living in North America Central America Sub Saharan Africa the Philippines and Oceania the authors provide a forum to understand the shared interests of Indigenous women across the globe

Working People in Alberta Alvin Finkel, 2012 A political and economic analysis of the history of working people in Alberta

Compelled to Act Sarah Carter, Nanci Langford, 2020-10-02 Compelled to Act showcases fresh historical perspectives on the diversity of women s contributions to social and political change in prairie Canada in the twentieth century including but looking beyond the era of suffrage activism In our current time of revitalized activism against racism colonialism violence and misogyny this volume reminds us of the myriad ways women have challenged and confronted injustices and inequalities The women and their activities shared in Compelled to Act are diverse in time place and purpose but there are some common threads In their attempts to correct wrongs achieve just solutions and create change women experienced multiple sites of resistance both formal and informal The acts of speaking out of organizing of picketing and protesting were characterized as unnatural for women as violations of gender and societal norms and as dangerous to the state and to family stability Still as these accounts demonstrate prairie women felt compelled to respond to women s needs to challenges to family security both health and economic and to the need for community They reacted with the resources at hand and beyond to support effective action joining the ranks of women all over the world seeking political and social agency to create a society more responsive to the needs of women and their children

The Other Quiet Revolution José E. Igartua, 2011-11-01 In the twenty years following the Second World War representations of national identity in anglophone Canada underwent a deep transformation Ethnic definitions of Canadian identity gave way to a rights based concept of citizenship The Other Quiet Revolution traces this under examined cultural transformation woven through key developments in the formation of Canadian nationhood from the 1946 Citizenship Act and the 1956 Suez crisis to the Royal Commission on Bilingualism and Biculturalism 1963 1970 and the adoption of the federal multiculturalism policy in 1971 In this elegant work Jos Igartua analyzes editorial opinion political rhetoric history textbooks and public opinion polls to show how Canada s self conception as a British country extended into the 1950s In the decade that followed however the British definition of Canada dissolved Struggles with bilingualism and biculturalism as well as Quebec s constitutional demands helped to fashion new representations of national identity in English speaking Canada based on the civic principle of equality With its sophisticated conceptual framework and systematic approach to understanding the discourse of Canadian collective identity The Other Quiet Revolution will appeal to readers interested in Canadian identity and nationalism and to general readers of Canadian history

The Little Third Reich on Lake Superior Ernest Robert Zimmermann, 2015-12-15 An in depth history of one of Canada's World War II internment camps that held both Nazis and anti Nazis alike For eighteen months during the Second World War the Canadian military interned 1 145 prisoners of war in Red Rock Ontario about 100 kilometres northeast of Thunder Bay Camp R interned friend and foe alike Nazis anti Nazis Jews soldiers merchant seamen and refugees whom Britain feared might comprise Hitler's rumoured fifth column of alien enemies residing within the Commonwealth For the first time and in riveting detail the author illuminates the conditions in one of Canada's forgotten POW camps Backed by interviews and meticulous archival research Zimmermann fleshes out this rich history in an accessible lively manner The Little Third Reich on Lake Superior will captivate military and political historians as well as non specialists interested in the history of POWs and internment in Canada Most of us have an image of what prisoner of war camps looked like either from documentary footage about Nazi POW camps or feature films about World War II or television situation comedies The Little Third Reich on Lake Superior shatters all of those stereotypes and through diligent assembly of public records multiple library archives and personal interviews gives us an in depth picture of a Canadian internment camp All of this is skillfully organized in a reader friendly chronological way Michael Sabota Chronicle Journal The study shines light on the lesser known Canadian prisoner of war POW camps in World War II In this well researched study Zimmermann describes not only Camp R but the inmates guards military command structure politicians and general political environment in Canada and Britain The work is easy to read and deftly supported by a broad array of sources Zimmermann's analysis encompasses Canadian and British history The Little Third Reich on Lake Superior sets a high standard for future research into civilian internment camps Anna Marie Anderson The Journal of Military History

Darkness Descends : A.D. 350 to 565, the Fall of the Western Roman Empire Ted Byfield, Christian History Project, 2003 The Christians is the history of Christianity told chronologically epoch by epoch century by century beginning at Pentecost and concluding with Christians as we find ourselves in the twenty first century It will consist of approximately twelve volumes produced over a 10 year period at the beginning of the third Christian millennium It is written and edited by Christians for Christians of all denominations Its purpose is to tell the story of the Christian family so that we may be knowledgeable of our origins may well know and wisely profit from the experiences of our past both good and bad and may find strength and inspiration to face the challenges of our era from the magnificent examples set for us by those who went before Back cover

Museums, Heritage and Indigenous Voice Bryony Onciul, 2015-07-03 Current discourse on Indigenous engagement in museum studies is often dominated by curatorial and academic perspectives in which community voice viewpoints and reflections on their collaborations can be under represented This book provides a unique look at Indigenous perspectives on museum community engagement and the process of self representation specifically how the First Nations Elders of the Blackfoot Confederacy have worked with museums and heritage sites in Alberta Canada to represent their own culture and history Situated in a post colonial context the case study sites are places of contention a politicized environment that highlights commonly hidden issues and naturalized inequalities built into current approaches to community engagement Data from participant observation archives and in depth interviewing with participants brings Blackfoot community voice into the text and provides an alternative understanding of self and cross cultural representation Focusing on the experiences of museum professionals and Blackfoot Elders who have worked with a number of museums and heritage sites Indigenous Voices in Cultural Institutions unpicks the power and politics of engagement on a micro level and how it can be applied more broadly by exposing the limits and challenges of cross cultural engagement and community self representation The result is a volume that provides readers with an in depth understanding of the nuances of self representation and decolonization
