outside playing in the snow It seemed hard that not even one among them was their very own But alas there was no hope for such a blessing now Never would they see a little fur cap hanging on the corner of the mantelpiece nor two little shoes drying by the fire The old husband brought in a bundle of wood and set it down Then as he heard the children laughing and clapping their hands outside he looked out at the window There they were dancing with glee round a snow man they had made He smiled as he saw that it was evidently meant to look like the Mayor of the village it was so fat and pompous Look Marusha he cried to the old wife Come and see the snow man they ve made As they stood together at the window they laughed to see what fun the children got out of it Suddenly the old man turned to her with a bright idea Let s go out and see if we can t make a little snow man But Marusha laughed at him What would the neighbours say They would poke fun at us it d be the joke of the village Besides we re too old to play like children But only a little one Marusha only a teeny weeny little snow man and I ll manage it that nobody sees us Well well she said laughing have your own way as you always did Youshko With this she took the pot from the fire put on her bonnet and they went out together As they passed the children they stopped to play with them a while for they now felt almost like children themselves Then they trudged on through the snow till they came to a clump of trees and behind this where the snow was nice and white and nobody could see them they set to work to make their little man The old husband insisted that it must be very small and the old wife agreed that it should be almost as small as a new born babe Kneeling down in the snow they fashioned the little body in next to no time Now there remained only the head to finish Two fat handfuls of snow for the cheeks and face and a big one on top for the head Then they put on a wee dab for the nose and poked two holes one on each side for the eyes

The Brontës in the World of the Arts Sandra Hagan,Juliette Wells,2016-12-05 Although previous scholarship has acknowledged the importance of the visual arts to the Bront s relatively little attention has been paid to the influence of music theatre and material culture on the siblings lives and literature This interdisciplinary collection presents new research on the Bront s relationship to the wider world of the arts including their relationship to the visual arts The contributors examine the siblings' artistic ambitions, productions, and literary representations of creative work in both amateur and professional realms.
