Modeling Mentoring Across Race/Ethnicity and Gender Caroline Sotello Viernes Turner, Juan Carlos González, 2023-07-03 While mentorship has been shown to be critical in helping graduate students persist and complete their studies and enter upon and succeed in their academic careers the under representation of faculty of color and women in higher education greatly reduces the opportunities for graduate students from these selfsame groups to find mentors of their race ethnicity or gender Recognizing that mentoring across gender race and ethnicity inserts levels of complexity to this important process this book both fills a major gap in the literature and provides an in depth look at successful mentorships between senior white and under represented scholars and emerging women scholars and scholars of color Following a comprehensive review of the literature this book presents chapters written by scholars who share in depth descriptions of their cross gender and or cross race ethnicity mentoring relationships Each article is co authored by mentors who are established senior scholars and their former prot g s with whom they have continuing collegial relationships Their descriptions provide rich insights into the importance of these relationships and for developing the academic pipeline for women scholars and scholars of color Drawing on a comparative analysis of the literature and of the narrative chapters the editors conclude by identifying the key characteristics and pathways for developing successful mentoring relationships across race ethnicity or gender and by offering recommendations for institutional policy and individual mentoring practice For administrators and faculty concerned about diversity in graduate programs and academic departments they offer clear models of how to nurture the productive scholars and teachers needed for tomorrow s demographic of students for under represented students they offer compelling narratives about the rewards and challenges of good mentorship to inform their expectations and the relationships they will develop as prot g s

Factors That Contribute to Successful Schools: A Caribbean Perspective Eulalie Daley Semper,2014-10-17 This book explores various factors that contribute to successful schools in the Caribbean Based on my own personal and professional experience I define successful schools as those schools where high quality teaching takes place in a supportive environment In these schools spiritual leaders seek to work with educational stakeholders to develop and facilitate a culture of excellence Therefore I have decided to examine teacher development community involvement spiritual leadership servant leadership and an established culture of success as additional factors that can contribute to successful schools in the Antiguan context. However, this study can yield valuable information that can be used to assess educational practices within different types of schools regionally and globally since one of its main aims is to explore stakeholders' perceptions on the contributing factors to schools' academic success. In this book, educational practitioners, policy makers, and institutional leaders will find principles of success that will affect principal leadership, classroom learning, and student achievement.

Educational Innovation in Developing Countries Keith M. Lewin, Janet S. Stuart, 2016-01-01. Because of the insights offered, the book under review should be compulsory reading for Ministers of Education and educational planners as well as for students of educational reform. They would find it readable, informative, and disturbing. This could well become a classic account of why innovations fail. Keith Watson, Department of Education Studies and Management, University of Reading. Educational investment is now back at the top of the development agenda. The World Conference on Education for All confirmed the commitment of national governments and donors to provide opportunities for all children to enrol in school and reach minimum levels of achievement. This book takes a new look at the problems that confront politicians, planners, curriculum developers, and teachers in implementing educational innovations in developing countries. The insights into theory and practice that emerge provide the intellectual yeast for the development of effective innovation strategies for the next decade.

Black Immigrant Literacies Patriann Smith, 2023. Learn how to center, affirm, and develop Black immigrant literacies in ways that allow all youth to engage with and honor their literacies. This book presents a framework to revolutionize teaching in ways that draw on students' assets for redesigning, rethinking, and reimagining literacy and the English Language Arts curriculum. This novel framework has five mechanisms through which Black immigrant literacies and languaging can be better understood: the struggle for justice, the myth of the model minority, transraciolinguistics, the local, global, and holistic literacies. Presenting authentic narratives of Afro Caribbean youth, the author describes how teachers and educators can: 1. teach the Black literate immigrant, 2. use literacy and English language arts curriculum as a vehicle for instructing Black immigrant youth, 3. foster relations among Black immigrants and their peers through literacy, and 4. connect parents, schools, and communities. The text includes lesson plans, instructional modules, and templates that range in their focus from K-12 to college. Book Features: Details how teachers, curriculum, and instruction can benefit from understanding the experiences of Black immigrant students and how that experience differs from other Black American students. Highlights authentic narratives that center the holistic voices of Afro Caribbean immigrant youth from Jamaica and the Bahamas. Demonstrates how students grapple with racialization, becoming immigrants, and the responses of others to their use of Englishes in the United States. Offers research-based methods for teaching all students to draw on their metalinguistic, metacultural, and metaracial understandings in literacy and ELA classrooms. Presents concrete strategies for supporting Black immigrant populations in establishing and sustaining a sense of community across linguistic, cultural, and racial contexts.

Early Childhood Theories Today Aaron Bradbury,Ruth Swailes,2025-07-12 If you work in the early years you have probably heard of Montessori and Bronfenbrenner but have you heard of Bavolek Fisher or Page Contemporary theorists and theories of early childhood learning have much to teach us It is often forgotten that this learning is still evolving and that new voices are joining the discussion every year With new chapters on Maslow Bowlby Piaget and Vygotsky this second edition introduces you to some contemporary theorists and explores their work alongside more well known thinkers It demonstrates how these theories relate to everyday practice in the early years and that discussion of them can support ongoing professional learning

Christian Theology in Practice Bonnie J. Miller-McLemore,2012-02-02 For the past fifty years scholars in both pastoral and practical theology have attempted to recapture human religious experience and practice as essential sites for theological engagement redefining in the process what theology is how it is done and who does it In this book Bonnie J Miller McLemore shows how this trend in scholarship has led to an expanded subject matter alternative ways of knowing and richer terms for analysis in doing Christian theology Tracing more than two decades of her own search for a more inclusive discipline one that truly grapples with theology in the midst of life Christian Theology in Practice shows not only where Miller McLemore herself has traveled in the field but also how pastoral and practical theology has developed during this time Looking forward Miller McLemore calls on the academy and Christian congregations to disrupt conventional theological boundaries and to acknowledge the multiplicity of shapes and places in which the wisdom of God appears

Play Among Books Miro Roman,Alice _ch3n81,2021-12-06 How does coding change the way we think about architecture This question opens up an important research perspective In this book

Miro Roman and his AI Alice_ch3n81 develop a playful scenario in which they propose coding as the new literacy of information. They convey knowledge in the form of a project model that links the fields of architecture and information through two interwoven narrative strands in an infinite flow of real books. Focusing on the intersection of information technology and architectural formulation, the authors create an evolving intellectual reflection on digital architecture and computer science.

International Encyclopedia of Education, 2009-04-17 The field of education has experienced extraordinary technological, societal and institutional change in recent years making it one of the most fascinating yet complex fields of study in social science. Unequalled in its combination of authoritative scholarship and comprehensive coverage, International Encyclopedia of Education Third Edition succeeds two highly successful previous editions (1985, 1994) in aiming to encapsulate research in this vibrant field for the twenty-first century reader. Under development for five years, this work encompasses over 1 000 articles across 24 individual areas of coverage and is expected to become the dominant resource in the field. Education is a multidisciplinary and international field drawing on a wide range of social sciences and humanities disciplines and this new edition comprehensively matches this diversity. The diverse background and multidisciplinary subject coverage of the Editorial Board ensure a balanced and objective academic framework with 1 500 contributors representing over 100 countries capturing a complete portrait of this evolving field. A totally new work revamped with a wholly new editorial board structure and brand new list of meta sections and articles. Developed by an international panel of editors and authors drawn from senior academia. Web enhanced with supplementary multimedia audio and video files hotlinked to relevant references and sources for further study. Incorporates ca 1 350 articles with timely coverage of such topics as technology and learning, demography and social change, globalization and adult learning to name a few. Offers two content delivery options: print and online, the latter of which provides anytime anywhere access for multiple users and superior search functionality via ScienceDirect as well as multimedia content including audio and video files.
