Collections of Painting in Madrid, 1601-1755 (Parts 1 and 2) Marcus B. Burke, Peter Cherry, 1997-01-01 This two part book on collections of paintings in Madrid is part of the series Documents for the History of Collecting Spanish Inventories 1 which presents volumes of art historical information based on archival records One hundred forty inventories of noble and middle class collections of art in Madrid are accompanied by two essays describing the taste and cultural atmosphere of Madrid in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries Diego Velázquez's Early Paintings and the Culture of Seventeenth-century Seville Tanya J. Tiffany, 2012 Explores the early works of seventeenth century Spanish painter Diego Velázquez Focuses on works from 1617 to 1623 examining the painter's critical engagement with the artistic religious and social practices of his native Seville Provided by publisher A Palace for a King Jonathan Brown, John Huxtable Elliott, 2003-01-01 The Buen Retiro a royal retreat and pleasure palace was built for Philip IV on the outskirts of Madrid in the 1630s With its superb display of paintings by Velázquez and other contemporary artists the palace became a showcase for the art and culture of Spain's Golden Age A Palace for a King first published in 1980 provides a pioneering total history of the construction decoration and uses of a major royal palace emphasising the relationship of art and politics at a critical moment in European history produced on different aspects of the history of the palace and its decoration since the 1970s A number of new unpublished illustrations have been added and many of the plates are now reproduced in colour The publication of this edition gains added importance from the fact that plans for the expansion of the Prado Museum include the restoration of the Hall of Realms to approximate its original appearance as reconstructed in this volume A Manual of Spanish Art and Literature Augusta Blanche Berard, 1866 Elements of Art Criticism, Comprising a Treatise on the Principles of Man's Native as Addressed by Art Together with a Historic Survey of the Methods of Art Execution in the Departments of Drawing, Sculpture, Architecture, Painting, Landscape Gardening and the Decorative Arts George Whitefield Samson, 1868 Calderon: the Painter of His Dishonour, el Pintor de Su Dishonra Pedro Calderón de la Barca, 1991 Alan Paterson presents Calderon's original text from manuscript and printed sources with a skilful verse translation into English of a remarkable play in which Calderon develops the motif of marital honour in quite original ways The blending of deep pathos and humour anticipates the modern theatre of the absurd though Calderon is pushing to the limits the license gained by Lope de Vega to mingle tragedy with comedy The play incorporates important aesthetic ideas of the Renaissance on painting and the character of the artist It must be unique in seventeenth century European in dramatising the painter as he works in his studio and meditates on his art Since the play deals with the aesthetic component in human behaviour its own aesthetic status as a verse drama had been conserved in the translation Those with no knowledge of Spanish will find a text which is agreeable to read and to perform The translation is close enough however to offer the reader of limited ability in Spanish a reliable key to the Spanish text Spanish text with facing page translation

introduction and commentary Old World Masters in New World Collections Esther Singleton, 1929 Elements of Art Criticism George Whitefield Samson, 1868 A Social History of Modern Art, Volume 2 Albert Boime, 1993-05-15 In this second volume Albert Boime continues his work on the social history of Western art in the Modern epoch This volume offers a major critique and revisionist interpretation of Western European culture history and society from Napoleon's seizure of power to 1815 Boime argues that Napoleon manipulated the production of images as well as information generally in order to maintain his political hegemony He examines the works of French painters such as Jacques Louis David and Jean Auguste Dominique Ingres to illustrate how the art of the time helped to further the emperor's propagandistic goals He also explores the work of contemporaneous English genre painters Spain's Francisco de Goya the German Romantics Philipp Otto Runge and Caspar David Friedrich and the emergence of a national Italian art Heavily illustrated this volume is an invaluable social history of modern art during the Napoleonic era Stimulating and informative this volume will become a valuable resource for faculty and undergraduates R W Liscombe Choice Memories to Keep, 1997 Reading textbook series organized by thematic units utilizes award winning unabridged trade book literature to teach reading and language arts competency to students grades K-6 Sculpture Collections in Early Modern Spain Kelley Helmstutler Di Dio, Rosario Coppel, 2016-04-01 In the past decade there has been a surge of Anglophone scholarship regarding Spain in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries which has led to a reframing of the discourses around Spanish culture of this period Despite this new interest in which painting in particular has been singled out for treatment a comprehensive study of sculpture collections and the status of sculpture in Spain has yet to be produced Sculpture Collections in Early Modern Spain is the first book to assess the phenomenon of sculpture collecting and in doing so it alters the previously held notion that Spanish society placed little value in this art form Di Dio and Coppel reveal that due to the problems and expense of their transport from Italy sculptures were in fact status symbols in the culture Thus they were an important component of the collections formed by the royal family cultivated noble collectors humanists and artists who had pretensions of high status This book is especially useful to specialists for its discussion of the typologies of collections and objects and of the mechanics of state gifts transport and collection display in this period An appendix presents extensive archival documentation most of which has never before been published The authors have uncovered hundreds of new documents about sculpture in Spain and new documentary evidence allows them to propose several new identifications and attributions Firmly grounded in extensive archival research Sculpture Collections in Early Modern Spain redefines the socio-political and art historical importance of sculpture in early modern Spain Most importantly it entirely transforms our knowledge regarding the presence of sculpture in a wide range of Spanish collections of the period which until now has been erroneously characterized as close to non-existent The Spanish language, la gramática inglesa, and the English reader Nicolas Gouin Dufief, 1811 The Drama of the Portrait: Theater and Visual Culture in Early Modern Spain, Examines theater and portraiture as interrelated social practices in seventeenth century Spain Features visual images and cross disciplinary readings of selected plays that employ the motif of the painted portrait to key dramatic and symbolic effect      Alfonso X of Castile-León Kirstin Kennedy,2025-10-01 Alfonso X the Learned of Castile 1252 1284 was praised in his lifetime as a king who devoted himself to discovering all worldly and divine knowledge He commissioned chronicles and law codes and composed poems to the Virgin Mary he gathered together Jewish scholars to translate works of Arab astrology and astronomy and he founded a university of Latin and Arabic studies at Seville Moreover according to his nephew Juan Manuel Alfonso was careful to ensure that he had leisure to look into things he wanted for himself The level of his personal involvement in this literary activity marks him out as an exceptional patron in any period However Alfonso s relationship with the arts also had much in common with that of other thirteenth century European royal patrons among them his first cousin Louis IX of France Like his contemporaries he relentlessly used literary works as a vehicle to promote his royal status and advance his claim to the imperial crown His motivation for the foundation of the university at Seville was arguably political rather than educational and instead of promoting institutional learning during his reign Alfonso preferred to direct the messages about his kingship in the lavish manuscripts he patronized to a restricted courtly audience Yet such was the interest of the works he commissioned that those who could obtain copies did so even if these were still incomplete drafts Three codices traditionally held to have been copied for Alfonso in fact show how this learning reserved for the few began to filter out beyond the Learned King s immediate circle Close codicological analysis of particular manuscripts to make new arguments about the existence and organization of the Alfonsine scriptorium and the revision of the list of manuscripts commonly agreed to have been copied for Alfonso himself Close analysis of the iconography of Alfonso to present new arguments about the role of colour and astrological symbolism in the construction of the royal image The conclusion that Alfonso s literary patronage was part of a propaganda campaign directed towards his court circle and was not an attempt to formulate a cultural programme for his kingdoms or a campaign to support educational institutions such as universities      Painting in Spain Jonathan Brown,1998-01-01 El Greco Ribera Vel zquez Murillo these are but a few of the great sixteenth and seventeenth century artists of Spain s golden age of painting In this authoritative and handsome book an enlarged extended and revised version of his Golden Age of Painting in Spain eminent Spanish art scholar Jonathan Brown surveys the development of painting in Spain during this fascinating period Focusing on the interaction between art and the socioeconomic and political conditions that prevailed in Spain s golden age this book offers information about religious beliefs social attitudes the activities of patrons and collectors and how these were absorbed and interpreted by painters The author sets the history of Spanish paintings within a European context and explores Spain s contact with artistic centers in Italy and the Netherlands He discusses not only Spanish artists but also such non Spanish painters as Titian Ruben and Luca Giordano who either worked in Spain or influenced other artists there Brown also examines the collections of foreign paintings that Spanish noblemen and prelates assembled and how these collections affected the production of art and the social status of the Spanish artist In this up to date and innovative analysis of two hundred years of Spanish painting Brown describes a country that brilliantly transformed the artistic impulses it received from abroad to fit the needs of its own society      Slave Portraiture in the Atlantic World Agnes Lugo-Ortiz,Angela Rosenthal,2013-09-30 The first book to focus on the individualized portrayal of enslaved people from the late sixteenth century to abolition in 1888      Late Gothic Painting in the Crown of Aragon and the Hispanic Kingdoms ,2018-06-19 This book aims to analyze the genesis and evolution of late Gothic painting in the Crown of Aragon and the rest of the Hispanic kingdoms examining this phenomenon in relation to the whole context of Europe in the second half of the fifteenth century The authors consider the influence of the Flemish primitive movement on the art produced by their Spanish colleagues the artistic relations and interchanges with the Netherlands and other countries and the introduction and development of the Flemish language in the Spanish lands The book also examines altarpieces considering topics such as changes in shape and structure and liturgical links along with offering stylistic analyses supported by new technologies Contributors are Joan Aliaga Maria Antonia Argelich Marc Ballest Judith Berg Sobr Carme Berlab Eduardo Carrero Ximo Company Francesca Espa ol Francesc Fit Montserrat Jard Nicola Jennings Fernando Mar as Didier Martens Isidre Puig Nuria Ram n Pedro Jos Respaldiza Stefania Rusconi Tina Sabater Albert Sierra Pilar Silva Llu sa Tolosa Alberto Velasco and Joaqu n Yarza      Shakespeare Studies Leeds Barroll,1998-02-15 This volume includes the Forum Race and the Study of Shakespeare and a related essay Hottentot The Emergence of an Early Modern Racist Epithet Other articles discuss the works of Robert Weimann recent studies in early modern sexuality and concepts of virginity      From Greco to Goya Harris, Tomas, ltd., firm, art dealers,1938      Zurbarán Jeannine Baticle,Francisco de Zurbarán,Yves Bottineau,1987
